The Ottawas, with pride and joy, Held Councils and from miles around, Came "Injuns" to this famous ground;

And where you sit they may have sat And smoked and danced and "chewed the fat";

And so our curtain we will raise On "Injuns" of those ancient days. This bunch of "braves," as you may guess, Are actors all, in fancy dress,

Who with loud whoops will dance and sing And start our show with bang and awing.

Veteranews

By Gilbert M. Lindsay

Twelve Simple Principles of Thought and Action for the Civilian.

1. Be natural at all times. Don't strain to appear nice or to say the right thing. Though changed, the veteran is still an ordinary human and wants to be treated as such. In fact, his service friendships have such genuine ones and have been based on such conditions of reality that he can spot insincerity readily.

2. Treat him as a responsible citizen, as well as a veteran. He has a tremendous job to do and will be one of the most important citizens in the community. Don't be patronizing. Recognize him for what he is, a citizen who is better equipped for success, as a result of his service experience, than most civilians.

3. Don't pamper him and don't feel or show pity. He's entitled to all the real consideration at your command, but he's a man who has been taught to stand on his own feet.

4. Don't kill him with sympathy. He wants real help, not mindless tears. Genuine kindness and a recognition of the job he has done form the basis of the real attitude for you to develop.

5. He'll talk about what he's been through if he wants to, but don't urge him. Like all of us, some veterans will want to talk, while others won't. Remember, if only one civilian were curious about what it was like it would be one thing, but he is likely to be queried by scores. So let him take the initiative in such conversations.

6. Keep your poise and don't be startled if he has changed markedly, is disgraced, or highly nervous.

He knows you'll notice and don't stare or call attention to it. If you feel you must mention, or he brings it up, discuss it in a natural way as possible.

7. Be realistic. If he wants to talk about his problems and the future, don't tell him that he doesn't need to worry. Tell him the facts about employment and other situations in the community, and advise him, if you can, on how to cope with them. The G. I. Bill gives him a lot of help, but he'll have to compete with civilians and other veterans for long term success.

8. Develop serenity of spirit. This applies especially to those who are close to the veteran. He may have thought you were wonderful, so try to show your best colors.

9. Don't brag about how much money you've made or how well you've done while he was away. And if he's curious, tell him, but remember he may think, and rightly so in some cases, that the war has given the people who stayed at home an advantage.

10. Don't bring up the subject of how difficult things have been at home. It hasn't been difficult and he knows it. Certainly it would sound ironical to mention the petty home-front hardships in the face of what he's been thru. Just let him know most of us have everything that we've been asked to do and have wanted to do more.

11. Help him in every way you can. Be sure he is aware of his rights, his opportunities to get an education, his priorities on his old job, under certain circumstances, and other benefits.

12. Remember, too, that you face problems of adjustment. Your nonwar job may not pay as well and it won't be as easy to get a job as it was. Furthermore, the veteran should have a prior right to any available job because he has given up time and opportunity to fight for us.

Jeanie Hampton From Chungking

This is the second in a series of interesting letters sent by WAC Sgt. Jeanie Hampton to her parents, now living in Charlevoix:

"Dear Folks: The door of the C-46 opened and discharged passengers and cargo. My feet touched Chinese ground and the ordinary airport scenes greeted my eyes—scattered wooden buildings, dust, curious natives, and the necessary transportation to take the passengers to their final destination. I was too tired, dirty and hungry to be interested in everything about me at the time. I climbed first into the 6x6 and then into a command car when it was offered as a more comfortable way of traveling the bad road into the City of Chungking. "Bad" road was a gross understatement, particularly since we were in no condition to be jolted unnecessarily after an unrefreshed journey from Bhamo, Burma!

"A command car has no doors and is the most inhumane and springless contraption ever invented. I was convinced, as we were bounced and thrown about unmercifully with little to hang onto at all, that I was in a remote area about 30 miles off a main road and about 10 miles off a gravel country road over rutty wagon tracks? Well, this road to the city approximates those wagon tracks after a rain and 30 miles of it too. I am flabbergasted that this country, boasting of the most ancient civilizations in existence, shouldn't have a modern four-lane highway from Peishih Airport straight to the WAC Hostel, but that's life. On our way, groups of little children waved at us and yelled "Tuba How"—how are you? Or they held up their thumbs and chorused "ding how"—very good. We ding-howed back as enthusiastically as possible but finally compromised by just nodding at the hoodlum acclaim. We noticed lots of times they held up their little fingers instead of their thumbs and were mystified but pleased. I have learned since that the gesture stands for "Boo how"—not very good! Chinese sense of humor.

"It took an hour and a half to drive over two rows of mountains. The scenery wasn't breathtaking but was decidedly pretty. We arrived at the WAC Hostel at dusk creaking in every joint and eagerly looking forward to the first cool shower and clean clothes in 24 hours. We were nabbed by the 1st Sgt. as we entered the door and taken to the Dayroom to be properly acclimated, however. We were told there of such things as working hours, how to report to the office the next afternoon, that we couldn't leave the hostel that night, that we couldn't leave the hostel ANY night without a male escort even to go to the compound (where the offices, Red Cross, Library, Movie and Church is) etc.

etc. After the meeting I dashed around looking for the best room of those that weren't already taken and then headed for the shower room. Horrors! Water, water, everywhere and not a drop for a shower. The latrine upstairs was out of order and running over. Water leaked through the floor and through the plaster of our ceiling. Great hunks of plaster fell about you at each step adding to the lake at your feet. Water even dripped down the light cords while the bulbs were burning and I watched utterly fascinated by the expectation of an explosion any minute.

"After taking a spit bath out of my canteen I fell on my bunk, the mattress of which is stuffed with straw and the pillow with cement. I'll swear! The morning of the next day I spent most of the time unpacking—barracks bag, musk-ta bag, duffle bag and pocketbook. The junk I just piled on top of my elmira, out of sight, out of mind. I hoped. It consisted of my steel helmet, gasmask, carrying straps, mosquito galashes, messkit, leggings, etc. Quite a dainty wardrobe, but better days are ahead. I share my room with Erma George, who I knew in Ft. Oglethorpe training days, and between us we have the following: 2 elmiras, a dressing table, 2 chairs, a dresser, a rug, 2 candles, a 5 watt (could be) electric light bulb, a Chinese bamboo lantern I bought from a coolie in an off moment, 2 beds (?) and one bedbug. These are definitely the best quarters I've had since I've been wrapped in the Star Spangled Banner.

"In a July issue of Time, I notice they describe the atmosphere of Chungking as 'humid'. I agree. India's heat was tropical, but China as I've previously mentioned, is quite mountainous as Chungking is surrounded by them, they prevent the faintest breeze, PARTICULARLY in my bedroom! I miss those fans we had on Hastings-on-the-Hoogheer, the Hoogheer is the name of the river down which float all those lovely things such as dead bodies. I am happy to relate the Yangtze which flows through this city has more sampans than bodies as the Chinese dispose of the deceased in much the same manner as we—by burial.

"When I reported to work the next day, I found it was a 20 minute walk from the Hostel to the Compound. Headquarters building is new and so is all the furniture therein. I reported to the Operations Section instead of Personnel where I've always been assigned both in the States and abroad, and inasmuch as the job in my particular sub-section of Operations concerned the assignment of crews and aircraft, it promised to be interesting as well as refreshing.

"On my daily walk to and from the Compound (when I don't grab the newly installed bus) I have mentally been comparing the Chungking man-on-the-street with the Calcutta populace. I find, personally, the Chinese are by far the best off, though their conditions could stand a lot of improving. They are cleaner, better and more modernly dressed, and most outstandingly healthier. They are also more literate and less subservient than the resigned India, and have more initiative and natural independence inasmuch as they are not bound in every thought and action by such an intricate religious system as the Indian's. One who really knew the score could write a very interesting treatise comparing the futures of these two large countries. India's is largely futile only because of the caste system; China's promises everything under their "New Life Movement" which is doing and has done such fine things as abolishing the binding of women's feet. The stress is definitely on modernity in China and it is being accepted wholeheartedly and enthusiastically.

"I guess this letter has been a little dull as I've merely tried to give you an idea of the new military world in which I find myself. I shall concentrate on the lighter side—the "sassy" side—in my next. I think you will be very surprised to learn where I found myself one day last week—I know I was. By the way, just in case it takes me longer to get my next letter out than I anticipate... Da not be surprised to see my mug in a newsreel somewhere sometime, or in the Dayton Journal-Herald. No, I haven't been awarded the DSC or SPAM Ribbon, but I am among the first group of WACs in China and there is a recruiting program on in the States I'm told. Love, Jeanie"

Protect Machinery

THE machine shed, in years past regarded as a secondary building which usually was cold and drafty and in poor repair, is becoming one of the most important structures on the American farm. In fact, on many farms it is not only housing a variety of valuable labor-saving machinery, but also is used as a garage and repair and workshop.

These uses call for a completely enclosed building which will protect the machinery and equipment from cold winds, rain and snow and at the same time provide reasonably comfortable working quarters. The importance of this protection has been emphasized by the need for farmers to keep every Existing sheds with strong frame-work and poor coverings can be made weather-tight and comfortable by applying asbestos cement siding over the present cover. If a new roof is needed, asbestos cement shingles applied over present roofing will assure permanent protection.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTERS

Question—Christ was the perfect man, but—

Answer—But that is not enough. He was and is the divine Son of God. (John 3:16) In Hebrews 1:8-10 the Father calls His Son "God." That our Lord and Saviour is more than a perfect man, is shown in Ephesians 3:9: "God, who created all things by Jesus Christ."

Q—Wasn't Abraham a Jew?

A—He is not so called in the Bible. Abraham's son was Isaac, and his son was Jacob. Jacob had twelve sons whose descendants were called the Children of Israel. (Jacob was also called "Israel." Genesis 32:28.) From Judah, one of Jacob's sons, came the name Jew, applied to anyone belonging to the tribe or kingdom of Judah. (2 Kings 16:6; 25:25.) Later the term was extended to include anyone of the Hebrew race who returned from the captivity. Finally it comprehended all persons of that race throughout the world. (Esther 2:5; Matthew 2:2.)

Q—Astronomy has proved that some of the stars are planets or worlds like ours. What are you going to do with the old Bible idea that this world is the only one?

A—The Bible speaks of more than one world. Hebrews 1:12 says: "God... hath in these last days spoken unto us by His Son, whom He hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also He made the worlds." And, Hebrews 11:3: "Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear."

Q—Christians say that we must be born again to become God's children, but Malachi 2:10 says: "Have we not ALL one father? hath not one God created us?" A—It is true that by creation all men are brothers. (Acts 17:26-28.) But spiritually, only those who are born again are the children of God. "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name; which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." John 1:12,13.

rural telephones are dial operated today

ONLY ONE out of ten rural telephones was dial operated in 1937. Today two out of three have dial service. That illustrates some of the progress that has been made in improving rural telephone service.

Now that the war is over, bringing dial service to still more rural customers is only one of many improvements Michigan Bell plans to make as rapidly as sufficient materials, trained manpower and manufacturing facilities become available.

We have developed important new devices and construction methods which will make telephone service available to more rural folks. We intend to add more lines so there will be fewer parties per line.

We are conducting market and rural-opinion surveys, so that we can more exactly meet the wants of telephone users. We are studying special features designed to make telephone service more valuable.

This indicates the way we are resuming our rural construction and improvement program. The program began long before the war. In 1940 we incorporated into it a rural construction plan suggested by the Michigan Rural Communications Committee, a group of agricultural leaders. But the entire program had to be curtailed because of wartime shortages.

Its resumption is an important part of Michigan Bell's 5-year, $120,000,000 post-war expansion and improvement program. Of course, it will take time, for much telephone construction is slow, painstaking hand work.

However, we will work constantly toward our goal of providing the best possible rural service, to the largest number of people, at the lowest possible cost.

Cpl. Tony Faculak In Beautiful Bavaria

Cpl. Tony Faculak, who is now in Bavaria with an Armored Infantry battalion, writes the following letter to the folks back home:

For some time I have intended writing and telling you just what I am doing here in Bavaria. My battalion is stationed in the southern Bavarian Alps, probably the most scenic part of Germany. I can look out of my bedroom window and see the snow-capped peaks rising high into the air, kissing the clouds that surround them.

There isn't an awful lot to do here unless one is athletically inclined. The battalion has riding horses at Oberan, where the battalion headquarters are. Swimming pools are open for us at Garmisch, the site of division headquarters. There is also a Red Cross club where they serve coffee and doughnuts.

Garmisch is a beautiful town. Full of hotels, it was a resort town before the war. In 1936 the Winter Olympics were held there. Old Hitler, if he is dead, must have turned over in his grave when we held a big parade in the Ski Stadium he built. I have to laugh every time I think of it.

This part of Germany was hardly touched by the war. The only things they are in want of are the so-called luxuries of life, cigarettes, candy and chewing gum. The kids here call it "cow-gummy". When you think of it chewing gum does make you look like a cow chewing on its cud.

These people have little food. They stand outside the company mess-hall and beg for scraps from the mess kits. They stand in line like a crowd in front of the movie, kids and grown-ups alike. It's pitiful in a way, but if they were dumb enough to get involved in a war, they must pay the price. That's something they can not seem to understand. They plead innocence of what Hitler did. They don't seem to hate us but they don't hesitate to tell us they hate our fliers. They hate them for what they did to Munich and Nuremberg. Most civilian casualties were caused by air raids. When we mention London, Warsaw or Rotterdam, they say their fliers bombed only military targets. The people here are illogical.

I sure would like to get home soon but shouldn't leave these people alone and unguarded. You see, folks, when I can get home I want to settle down and live happily and peacefully. I don't want my kids and somebody else's youngsters fighting these people the way I had to. That's what I came over here for—so future generations wouldn't have to. That's why somebody better keep an eye on the Germans.

Giant Mushroom On Display at Staley Hardware

Was Grown on Carl C. Smith Farm, Located 4 Miles South of Charlevoix

A giant mushroom, the property of Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Smith, farmers, living four miles south of Charlevoix, is on display this week at the Staley Hardware here.

Resembling a spud, the huge mushroom is perfectly shaped and weighed 22 pounds. It measured five feet in circumference.

The mushroom was found in the orchard of the Smith farm and was cut loose from the root Monday. Two smaller mushrooms lay nearby, one of which will be allowed to expand and grow until the very peak of development is reached.

"The mushroom was beautiful lying there in the orchard and surrounded by high green grass," said Mrs. Smith. We hesitated to cut it loose from the vine.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are natives of Paulding, Ohio, and came to Charlevoix a year ago, locating on their farm opposite Adams lake on route 2.

The Smiths have three children, two sons, 9 and 12 and a daughter, age 10.

Robert Pearl Takes Bride

Couple Speak Vows in Church Ceremony

Miss Edith C. Goode, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Goode, of Brooklyn, N. Y., became the bride of Chief Petty Officer Robert O. Pearl, U.S.N.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben J. Pearl, of this city, at a double ring ceremony performed at 5 o'clock Sunday evening, September 9, at the St. Alban's Episcopal church, Brooklyn, by the rector of the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white net and lace. Her veil was finger-tip length and she carried a Colonial bouquet of white roses.

Miss Bertha Lake, as maid of honor, wore a gown of light blue lace and net. Her flowers were also a Colonial bouquet.

Ensign Donald Taylor assisted as best man. Ushers were Navy friends of the bridegroom. Mrs. Goode chose a navy suit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses for her daughter's wedding.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 75 relatives and friends was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The couple arrived in Charlevoix last Wednesday to visit the bridegroom's parents for several days before going to the upper peninsula on a short wedding trip. Mrs. Pearl will return to Brooklyn when CPO Pearl reports at Detroit for re-assignment.

C.P.O. Pearl enlisted in the U. S. Naval Reserve on December 8, 1941, and reported for duty in January, 1942. He was stationed on the east coast before going overseas where he served in England and Germany for 22 months. He returned to this country on August 31, 1945.

Legion Speeds Enrollment of World War Vets

National Commander Edward N. Scheiberling gives the order to the 58 departments of the American Legion comprised of 12,348 posts and 1,650,000 members to enroll the newly-eligible 12 million fighting men and women. He has set the week of September 16 to 22 for the launching of this greatest American Legion campaign.

[Eligibility of members of the armed forces for immediate membership in the American Legion dates from the signing of the surrender terms by the Japanese government. All veterans now serving as well as veterans now holding honorable discharges are eligible to become members of any American Legion Post.

Parents of sons and daughters now serving in the military forces are keenly interested in veteran's organizations. Many may wish to send the son or daughter a 1946 paid up membership card. The Leslie T. Shapton Post No. 226 of the American Legion, Department of Michigan, offers a hearty welcome to the incoming veteran, and full participation in all of the rights and benefits of this great organization. Employers too, may wish to send paid up membership cards to valued employees who may soon return to civilian duties. To them we offer the same privilege.

The local Post is now making plans for re-modeling and improving the Legion Home on Garfield avenue. All members of the Post are urged to bring a World War I veteran to a meeting at the Legion Home, Tuesday evening September 26. After a short meeting of the Post, the balance of the evening will be devoted to entertainment. Our County-Veteran's council will be present for information on veteran's affairs. Moving pictures and lunch will climax the evening. All servicemen and ex-servicemen are especially invited to attend, according to F. R. "Pete" Bulow, commander Leslie T. Shapton Post No. 226.

Better Hearing For School Children Now

Dr. Litzenger Gives Plan to Aid School Child for Handicap

Dr. A. F. Litzenger, M. D., Director of local District Department of Health No. 3, has secured the services of the Michigan Hearing Conservation Dept., who will conduct hearing program throughout the District within the near future.

The doctor went on to say that Miss Annette M. Fox, R. N., of the Michigan Department of Health, is now in the district making arrangements with County School Commissioners and School Superintendents in order to contact every school child of the fourth grade and up. The doctor estimates 5000 children will be served in this hearing program.

"Screening" on a group audiometer will be the first step to determine which children need to have accurate hearing tests made. After "Screening", perhaps at some later date, a State Consultant in hearing will give individual hearing tests on a clinical pure-tone audiometer to children who have been screened out in the preliminary test.

According to the doctor, 80 percent of the children with hearing losses can have their hearing improved by medical attention and that 60 percent of the children with hearing losses, can be restored to normal hearing.

Dedicate Church Building Sunday

Christian Science Society Marks Progress at Services

The Christian Science Society building located at 205 Clinton street was dedicated Sunday, September 16, during the regular services. Dedication ceremonies were conducted and the history of the church was read amid a happy group of visitors as well as the local congregation.

Prior to the summer of 1906, there were no Christian Science services held publicly in Charlevoix, although at that time there were a few people who were interested, and some of the resort people. They met a few times at the cottage of one of the resorters, and made arrangements to hold services in what was known as the Bank Hall, where they were held for two summers.

The congregation increased and began to seek more agreeable quarters, and were able to secure the K. of P. hall, which at that time was a very pleasant room and in a desirable location. Services were held there two summers. In 1909 a large summer attendance was enjoyed, and the group was able to organize as a Christian Science Society, a branch of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

It became increasingly evident that it was necessary to make another move, since the services were continuing through the winter, and the small hall was not sufficiently heated. So the Odd Fellows Hall was used for a short time. Then the use of the Van Pelt hall was acquired which met the needs perfectly and was occupied for 24 years. The church building being dedicated today was purchased in September, 1934, and through the loving devotion of both the local people and the summer residents, the society is able this day to dedicate this church building.

Christian Science churches are dedicated, only when free from debt.

Mrs. Ethel Hamlin, daughter, Helen and son, Herbert, spent the weekend at Marquette with Mr. and Mrs. George Hamlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ross, of Atwood, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ross.

The Jewish Post of Indianapolis, Ind., The Jewish News of Detroit, Mich., and other Jewish newspapers and periodicals have warned their readers of outbreaks in various sections of the nation, and urged their people to refrain from any un-American and inhuman practices, pointing out that the Jew is of the minority group and must "stand erect and be a living symbol of American ways and ideals."

The Jewish Post, in regard to the Charlevoix incident, comments: "E. Irving Steinhurst, editor of the Charlevoix Courier, in an editorial this week, said that part of the responsibility for avoiding acts like those which brought about the outbreak, rests with the vacationers. He told The Jewish Post that Jewish vacationers may rest assured that no more untoward incidents will take place, pointing out that in any community there are a few youths who might break the law and that an entire community should not be held to blame for their acts."

The Jewish News said in regard to the findings of the court and comment by the Courier editor: "E. I. Steinhurst, editor and publisher of the Charlevoix Courier, in a statement to The Jewish News, said that Judge Fowler, 'means business.' He added that the judge said he would not allow that sort of thing, 'meaning the near riot, and anyone coming before him would be dealt with according to the laws of the state and the Charlevoix municipality.'"

Expect Reciprocity
Mr. Steinhurst added: "We in Charlevoix want to do everything possible for our guests the vacationers, to make it a nice place to enjoy themselves. But we expect reciprocity from all visitors, no matter what their color, creed or race."

"In any event, you may be sure that the court intends to punish any and all offenders. You are safe in assuring your readers that Charlevoix will be a safe place to come to. Needless to say, a community should not be punished because of a few miscreants—and the guilty must suffer the consequences."

has a hobby

Andy Botkin, tavern keeper at the Garden Cafe, has a hobby. It's writing to all the service men who used to make his place a sort of club. And do they appreciate it! One of them sent him a German combat helmet, another, a Jap flag. He's got pictures and coins and souvenirs of all kinds on the wall—mementos with "To Andy" written on them. And he showed me the letters that he's got back... from homesick privates to reminiscence columns. Letters about home and

Main Street and the Garden Cafe... from men who remember listening to football scores on Andy's radio, sharing a mild glass of beer with friends... From where I sit, Andy's doing a one-man job of boosting morale. Andy's spottless tavern, with its decent, homelike surroundings, is doing a job on the home front, too... in promoting moderation and wholesome relaxation.

BIBLE QUESTIONS
ANSWERED BY THE
VOICE OF PROPHECY
INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTERS

Question—What did Jesus mean by "the leaven of the Pharisees"? Answer—It was their hypocrisy. "Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy." Luke 12:1.

Q.—Was milk used for food in Bible times? A.—It was. (See Genesis 18:8; Judges 5:25.) It was sometimes kept in bottles. (Judges 4:19.) It was made into butter. (Proverbs 26:33) and cheese. (Job 10:10).

Q.—How can an uneducated man judge the conflicting religious teachings he hears? A.—He can apply the test of Isaiah 8:20: "To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them."

Q.—I maintain that Christ began His existence at Bethlehem. A.—But He said, "Before Abraham was, I am" (John 8:58), and in John 17:5, "O Father, glorify Thou me with Thine own self with the glory which I had with Thee before the world was."

Q.—Was Paul one of the twelve apostles? A.—No. Yet, according to Romans 1:1, he was an apostle: "Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God." "Apostle" means one sent. In Hebrews 3:1, Jesus is called an apostle.

Q.—The Bible says that we should make no images, yet God told Moses to make the gold angels on the ark. Was that right? A.—Read the second commandment in Exodus 20:4-6. It is clear that this commandment is against the worshiping of idols and the making of images for that purpose. The cherubim on the ark were not idols and were not made to be worshiped.

Q.—According to John 13, did Christ really eat the Passover, or did He institute a new feast at that time? A.—Both. Read Luke 22:14, 15. The account of the Passover, continues to verse 18. Thina follows the institution of the Lord's supper. "And He took bread, and gave thanks, and broke it, and gave unto them, saying, This is My body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of Me. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in My blood, which is shed for you." Verses 19, 20.

Fixing Up
the Farm
by BURTON WILLIAMS

Guard Against Roof Fires

NEARLY one third of the annual fire damage in the United States results from flames which consume farm property. The tremendous loss is due largely to the lack of adequate fire-fighting equipment to prevent the spread of flames from one building to another, and to the nearly universal use of inflammable construction on farms.

In most cases fires spread because flying brands from a burning building fall on roofs of other buildings. Farmers in increasing numbers are realizing the need for roof protection against fire and are using fireproof materials in re-roofing old buildings or in new construction.

One of the most widely used fireproof roofing materials today is asbestos cement shingles, which will not burn. Unless the existing roof is in a very bad condition, asbestos shingles can be applied directly on top of it. In some cases, however, it is necessary to remove the old roofing before the asbestos shingles or any other type of roof covering are laid. In addition to protecting the building from roof fires, asbestos shingles will make a strong cover that will resist wind, rain and snow. They will not rot and will last the life of the building.

Assignment: HOME
Fay A. Bradley has been discharged from the army at Fort Dix, N. J., and will remain in the east with friends for several weeks before returning to Charlevoix.
In the service since March 1943, Fay was a company clerk at Fort Jackson, S. C., and later was stationed at Camp Atterbury, Ind. It was from there he went overseas in October, 1944, with an infantry division. While overseas he was a squad leader.
When the Ardennes break-thru came in December, 1944, he was captured by the Germans and was in a prison camp in central Germany until liberated by the advancing Americans in April, 1945. While a prisoner of war, he celebrated his 40th birthday anniversary.
Returned to this country early in June, he spent a 60-day prison of war furlough with his daughters, Shirley, who resides here and Barbara, endet nurse at the Mercy Central school of nursing, Grand Rapids, before reporting at Miami Beach, Fla., for re-assignment. He was a sergeant at the time of his discharge.
Mr. Schradzki, who has been a summer visitor here for the past three months, returned to the Pere Marquette Hotel, Peoria, Ill.

Solar homes—with windowed walls. More healthful, enjoyable, economical housing. And new jobs for glassworkers.

Fireproof glass draperies. Greater public safety—more jobs from glass.

Making Postwar Jobs—Out of Glass!

HOW MANY postwar jobs will there be—for soldiers, sailors, war workers? No one can tell exactly. But this much we do know:
Business management, in scores of industries, has long since planned new products, new ventures, new services, that will make jobs by the thousands by creating new demands.
For example, the glass industry in producing for war has found amazing new uses for its product. Imagine glass through which nails can be driven, like wood. Glass that bends. Glass that bounces. Glass that floats, like cork.
Soon, now, beautiful textiles will be made of glass—textiles that are fireproof and mothproof. There will be rotproof glass tarpaulins. Glass awnings. Glass windows that will not frost. Improved glassware for homes.
All these new uses will increase the demand for glass—and demand for goods makes jobs.
The glass industry is only one of many along the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Nickel Plate, and the Pere Marquette, that have planned very thoroughly for postwar employment.
And now that Victory has been won, these industries and others throughout the country will put into operation their plans for the jobs and opportunities all of us want.

4 ways to build bank credit

1. Confide in your bank. The more we know about your finances, the more we can help you.
2. Keep your checkbook records carefully so that you won't write checks for a greater amount than you have on deposit. Overdrafts damage your credit.
3. Meet obligations as agreed. Pay debts of the bank or elsewhere promptly as agreed.
4. Pay bills on time. This is quite important to good credit standing.

Fisheries Fin - Clip 100,000 Lake Trout

Wisconsin and Michigan fishery workers are fin-clipping 100,000 lake trout fingerlings at the federal fish hatchery here to be planted in Wisconsin waters of Lake Michigan.

A like number was planted a year ago in Michigan waters near the Fox islands opposite Little Traverse bay.

Fisheries authorities of both states are to continue such plantings for six years in an effort to learn whether planting of hatchery-reared lake trout in Great Lakes waters helps commercial fishing. States bordering the Great Lakes are expected to pay rewards in coming years for the reporting of marked fish taken in nets.

Fisheries patrol boats owned by Wisconsin and Michigan conservation departments will be used in planting operations.

LIVING MEMORIALS

Some 18,000 members of Michigan home economics clubs, located in practically all counties in the state, are being asked to plant at least one tree apiece during the next 11 months in honor of men in the armed services. This is part of a new project to beautify farm homesteads in Michigan, and is under the guidance of the MSC extension service.

Living and growing trees are most fitting memorials to our boys who gave their lives for their country, and especially those who came from the land.

Cooperation should and will be of the finest."

AAA NEWS

Walter H. Henley, Chairman
Charlevoix County AAA
Committee

Charlevoix County farmers this year may again receive a Commodity Credit Corporation loan on their late crop potatoes under the Government's 1945 price support program. Loans will be available beginning September 15 through December 15 and all papers must be completed by December 31. Applications will be received at the county AAA Office.

As in past years, the loan program will be the principal means of price support for late potatoes. Loans at 3% interest will be available on late potatoes that may be stored well.

Loans are payable on demand not later than next April. Beginning January 1, potatoes may be delivered in lieu of payment, in accordance with CCC's delivery schedule, the prescribed condition and manner, and if the appropriate grades of each lot are offered.

Charlevoix County support price per hundred pounds for U. S. No. 1 grade potatoes, packed in new or thoroughly renovated sacks and loaded on board a through carrier "in carlots at shipping point, are: $2.05 for September; $2.10 for October; $2.20 for November; and $2.30 for December. Differentials and other details concerning these prices may be obtained at the county AAA office.

Loan rates on late potatoes in Charlevoix county for U. S. No. 1 quality are $1.39 per cwt. farm storage; $1.49 per cwt. warehouse storage. For U. S. No. 1 size B and U. S. No. 2 the rates are 47 cents per cwt. in farm storage and 57 cents per cwt. in warehouse storage. These loan rates and support prices are the same throughout all counties in Michigan.

Growers, grower's associations, and dealers certified by the County AAA Committees as having agreed to pay the price support equivalent to growers, are eligible for loans.

Beefsteaks on the Move Increased cattle marketings this fall plus reduced Government buying will put more beefsteaks on the Nation's meat counters than in many months.

Beef cattle are on the move from the grasslands and feedlots. Market receipts have risen steadily after hitting July and August lows. While much of this faster movement is seasonal it is largely due to record numbers of cattle in the county.

Most of the beef will probably be of better-than-average quality for the season as a result of unusually good range conditions and a larger number of cattle on grain feed.

All Government set-aside of meat has been ended. This will divert more meat to the civilian market. There was more meat in retail stores during August than at any time since March. The supply in non-producing areas particularly has improved following the effects of Government distributing programs. In addition higher quotas for Class II slaughterers should result in larger supplies in many localities.

Mail Overseas Packages Early

The Christmas mail problem for soldiers will be complicated this year by the fact that thousands of overseas personnel will be moving from one organization, or even continent, to another under the redeployment procedure.

Important: So that your Xmas parcel will reach the soldier, be sure the addressee is overseas.

Defer mailing if necessary until the new address is known. Remember, Christmas parcels will be accepted after October 15, up to and including December 10, 1945, upon presentation by the sender of a change of address notification.

Do address the parcel accurately and completely to the latest address furnished by the addressee.

Choose wisely—Ascertain in advance through correspondence what items the addressee would like to have and limit your mailing to that. Don't send: Perishables, intoxicants or inflammable materials.

Pack securely—Select a strong box and strong cord, also heavy paper for the wrapping. Pack contents tightly. Limit package to regulation weight (8 lbs.) and size (no longer than 18 inches; 36 inches in length and girth combined).

Address clearly and be sure your package carries the endorsement "Christmas Parcel".

Mail early and remember postage must be fully prepaid. The 30-day period does not apply to Christmas cards. These may be mailed at any time during or after the package mailing period, must be in sealed envelopes and prepaid at first-class rate.

Farmers' Group Enjoy Dinner

Hear Union President On Legislative Matters

The Charlevoix County Farmers' Union served a chicken dinner Sunday, Sept. 23 to the members and friends. The attendance was far beyond expectations.

At 2:30 p. m. an address was given by Sim Martin, president of the Michigan Farmers Union, who spoke on the actions of the last session of the Michigan legislature.

Mr. Martin told of how enemies of the farmers, by legislative manipulations, took out of the hands of the people and the Governor, the authority of directing the duties of the Commissioner of Agriculture and placed it in the hands of five commissioners. This left non one elected by the people responsible for Michigan agricultural regulations.

He also spoke on the National full employment bill now to be up for action by our National Congress. He told of how there can be no hope or prosperity for the American farmer without full employment for our millions of workers.

The Norwood local of the Farmers' Union will hold their next meeting on Thursday, Oct. 4 at their new location, the Hiltion school.

Corp. Stephens Gets Citation

Cpl. G. Ralph Stephens, of the Sixth Marine Division, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stephens, has received the following commendation from his commanding officer: "It gives me great pleasure to express to you the Commanding General's appreciation of the manner in which you performed your assigned duties in the operations on Okinawa Shima as a member of the Sixth Service Battalion."

Cpl. Stephens, 21, enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserves in May, 1943, and after receiving training at San Diego, Calif., went overseas in September, 1943. He was stationed in the New Hebrides until going to Okinawa on April 8, 1944. He is now on Guam.

"I am in good health, will see you soon," were the words which brought a world of happiness to Mrs. Fred Gill. The message was contained in a telegram received Monday morning from her son believed to be dead.

Benjamin S. Gill, 28, fireman, second class, U. S. Navy, missing in action since early in 1942 when the submarine, Perch, was lost in the Southwest Pacific, has been found in a Jap prison camp and is enroute home. The news came Monday in two cablegrams from him to his mother, Mrs. Fred Gill. Sent from Manila on the first leg of his journey home, the first message stated: "Am in good health. Short stay in Manila. Hello all. Will see you soon," and was signed "Bennie Gill".

The second cable received less than an hour later read: "No answer to last cable. Hope nothing happened at home. Answer immediately. Recovered Personnel APO 501".

Late Monday afternoon, Mrs. Gill received a letter from him postmarked September 15 and evidently written soon after his release from the prison camp. It reads in part: "Everything is well with me and am in the best of health. . . . It has been a long time to be out of circulation. . . . I'm sorry I couldn't write home and let you know I was alive but I was only one of many. . . . More later but now I have to get some letters out for some of my friends, who are still left in prison camp at Makassar (in the Celebes, Netherland East Indies). More when I get to Manila. Your long lost son, Bennie."

The above are the first messages received directly from Ben Gill since his family received a letter in January, 1942, which had been written in Manila on November 20, 1941, at the time he had transferred to the submarine, Perch, from the submarine tender, Canoe, which had been served since September, 1941.

On April 16, 1942, his family were notified by the Navy department that the submarine, Perch, was "long overdue and must be presumed lost". A year later on April 19, 1943, a letter was read on a broadcast from Radio Tokyo presumably from Ben stating he was a prisoner of war and was well. He was never officially reported a war prisoner by the Japanese government. His family, however, never lost hope that he would eventually be found. He was the only Charlevoix youth to become a Japanese prisoner.

No details of his rescue have been disclosed.

Graduating from the Charlevoix high school in 1937, Ben left here in September, 1939, for Miami, Fla., where he worked for a year before enlisting in the Navy on September 30, 1940. After boot training at Norfolk, Va., he was transferred to San Pedro, Calif., where he was assigned to the aircraft carrier, Lexington, which was later lost in the Battle of the Coral Sea. In September, 1941, he was transferred to the Philippines where he was assigned to the submarine tender and early in November, of the same year he joined the crew of the Perch. It was always believed the submarine was at or near Manila when the Japs attacked that city on December 8, 1941.

His mother, Mrs. Gill resides at 307 Prospect st. His father died in January, 1945. A brother, Sgt. Robert Gill, returned in July from overseas where he served with the Seventh Army in France and Germany. Another brother, Sgt. Albert G. was discharged from the army in May after serving in France where he was wounded last November and now lives at Sheboygan, Wis. Other members of his family include three brothers, Bud, of Ironton, Glenn, of Sheboygan, Wis., and Don, at home and two sisters, Mrs. Robert Duff, of Elmira and Mrs. Vern Snyder of Milwaukee, Wis.

Quick-Freeze Your Food at a Nominal Cost

A comparatively new $100,000,000 industry which boasts it is saving a total of $150,000,000 a day for 2,250,000 American families is one of the good things that the country got out of the late unlamented Depression. It is the cold-storage-locker system for preserving foods, an invention of a group of financially hardpressed but bravely imaginative farmers of the Pacific Northwest, who saw no reason why they should continue to sell their livestock and their crops at rock-bottom at slaughtering and harvest time, only to buy the same goods back as food at four or five times the price a few months later.

There were practically no locker plants in 1933, but there are more than 10,000 of them now. One hundred more are being built every month. They range in size from plants of 50 lockers, to plants of 2,000. Each locker holds about 200 pounds of food-stuffs. It is estimated that each locker saves its renter from $30 to $100 a year in food costs.

The locker plants are cold-storage plants in which food is first "quick-frozen" at ten or more degrees below zero F., and then stored at a steady temperature of from zero to 15 above zero until needed.

The quick-freezing process is the secret of the plants' success. Frost, which is a slow-frozen formation, destroys vegetables and fruits, making them watery and tasteless, and ruining their firmness of texture, while quick-freezing not only avoids injury to the food but in the case of peas and spinach actually improves their color and texture. The reason is that when freezing occurs slowly, ice crystals form inside the fruit or vegetables and continue to grow, sending out needlelike points, until the cell walls are pierced and the vital juices drain out. With "quick freezing" the sudden plunge to extreme cold causes only minute ice crystals to form and the cell walls remain intact.

A frozen food locker for Charlevoix will necessitate much planning, especially in the size of the plant, and the number of lockers needed to care for all who require them. One of the greatest advantages of the quick-freeze method of food preservation is the saving on vegetables and meats. Farmers can fill a locker at harvest or slaughtering time and have access to flavorful goodness of meats and vegetables the year around.

has heroes, too

Over at Thistle Ridge they're always boasting about their local heroes—ancestors in the Revolutionary War, congressmen, and an artist with pictures in the Metropolitan Museum.

Well, we've got our local heroes, too...

There was old Doc Turner, who fought for years against the intolerance and bigotry that kept children from being vaccinated in our county.

And Deacon Follensby, who fought for free pews in the churches; Jess Hackney, who campaigns for teaching honest history in schools; Wedd Towers, who fought the encroachment of Prohibition in our county and persuaded folks they wanted tolerance and moderation in place of a return to lawlessness.

You won't find monuments to these folks. But from where I sit, they're heroes in a cause that's pretty sacred in our town: the cause of freedom, tolerance, and human dignity.

AAA NEWS

Walter H. Henley, Chairman
Committee

Dairy Production Payments will be made beginning October 1st, covering sales of butterfat and milk sold during the months of July, August and September. The new rates for this quarter are 13 cents per pound on butterfat and 45 cents per cwt. on milk.

Farmers selling sheep and lambs to slaughterers should present their evidence of sale to the AAA office now. Applications for payment will be prepared at this time. To date, our sight drafts for payment have not been received, however, it is expected that they will be mailed to us within the next week, and payments will then be made direct to farmers through this office.

Farmers should bear in mind the fact that the only means of obtaining the support price for late crop potatoes is to place them in storage under loan. We wish to remind you that if you plan to store your potatoes in a warehouse, they should be stored in a separate bin, and not mixed with the potatoes belonging to some other farmer. This is necessary for inspection purposes. Potatoes are high on the list of plentiful foods and are expected to hold their lead throughout the year. With the third largest potato crop on record to handle, the Department of Agriculture is buying potatoes in fourteen states in order to support the price. One of the big problems is to get the big intermediate crop of potatoes out of the way quickly, because they don't store well. That is why the Department of Agriculture is urging all farmers to put their late crop under Commodity Credit Loan. Then the intermediate crop can be consumed through normal channels. Farmers can get loans at 3% interest on their late potatoes through their county AAA offices. The program runs from September 15 to December 15 and guarantees the farmers at least ninety percent of parity.

DOCTOR RATIONING! DO YOU WANT IT IN AMERICA?

COMMUNISM, FASCISM, NAZISM are not mere matters of terms or definitions. They result from the establishment of centralized controls and the operation of mechanisms of administration. Unfortunately, in the development of these mechanisms the insidious step by step procedure may postpone recognition of their real significance.

We are a trusting people. In some respects we are gullible folk. It is essential in these times that we be ruthlessly realistic. There have been introduced in the United States Congress Amendments to the Social Security Act. They are known as the Wagner-Murray-Dingell Bills. Most Americans favor the expressed objective of some of the proposals. However, almost hidden in the caroling verbiage of the Amendments is the cold steel move to place in the hands of appointees of the Federal Government and exclusive responsibility for the distribution of health care for one hundred million people. This service would consist of general medical, special medical, general dental, special dental, laboratory care, hospitalization and home nursing service. Into country has machinery been established more sweeping in its provisions to serve the purpose of a Collectivist State.

A DRAIN ON PRODUCTION — FEWER JOBS FOR WORKERS

In the beginning the tax provisions would create a central fund of more than Eight Billion Dollars annually. It is not anticipated that this amount would even approximate the total cost. It is to be supplemented from "General Revenue." We have fought and won two wars. Now confronted with a national debt approximating Three Hundred Billion Dollars, there is grave doubt whether our economy could sustain this additional drain of from Ten to Fifteen Billion Dollars each year.

The key principle of our Freedom of Enterprise System is more jobs for more men at maximum wages to provide ever greater markets for the products of a constantly expanding industry. Yet, it should be emphasized, the Wagner-Murray-Dingell proposals are a direct tax on employment. There would be a minimum of Eight Billion Dollars yearly less for consumers to spend for the potential output of our mines and factories and farms. This, of necessity, would create a downward spiral of production and fewer and fewer jobs for workers. These results, within limits, would be inevitable. They might be disastrous but they are not the really important consideration.

The unparalleled progress and incomparable achievements of the American people are the result of self-respect, individual initiative and self-reliance. When formalized Security is substituted for self-reliance we forfeit the essence of the factor that has been our strength. When the incentive for individual effort and thrift is removed progress, as we have known it, will be shifted into reverse.

BEWARE, — IF DOCTOR RATIONING FAILS

It may be possible that a truly wise and honest administration can reasonably ration the food supply of a nation. Save under truly totalitarian concept and control, is it within reason to expect the effective rationing of physician and hospital services for one hundred million people? A vital difference should be kept in mind. If the food rationing fails, it may mean only that there are no steaks or pork chops on dining room tables. If the doctor rationing fails, men and women and children die. Human lives are the issue.

The Wagner-Murray-Dingell Health Services proposals should be recognized for what they are. They are in reality State Medicine. They are instrumentalities and mechanisms of the Collectivist State. If we are to preserve our Freedom of Enterprise System we dare not enact these proposals into law.

Former Charlevoix Resident Married Tuesday At Petoskey

The St. Francis Xavier church Petoskey, was the scene of an attractive wedding at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, September 18, when Sgt. Lottin Budek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Budek, former Charlevoix residents, and Lieut. George Schmalzried, son of Mrs. Mamie E. Schmalzried, of Dormont, Pa., were married. The Rev. Fr. Hugolinus Klener officiated at the double ring ceremony. A special choir furnished the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional white satin bridal gown and pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her full length veil was held in place by a crown with pearl clusters on either side. She carried a bouquet of sunburst roses.

Miss Peggy Kerwin, as maid of honor, wore a gown of Albee blue net over taffeta and her shoulder length veil of blue fell from a crown of matching flowers. She carried pink tulleman roses.

Mary Ann Budek, sister of bride, was flower girl. She wore a pale pink taffeta gown with watching ribbons in bar hair and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations and delphinium.

Thomas Schmalzried, of Pittsburgh, Pa., brother of the bridegroom assisted as best man and Donald and Douglas Erfourth acted the guests.

Mrs. Budek chose a gold dress with brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias for her daughter's wedding.

Mrs. Schmalzried wore a black suit dress studded with silver and black accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of gardenias.

A wedding breakfast for the bridal party and their families were served at the home of the bride's parents after the service. A reception for friends followed the breakfast.

Lt. and Mrs. Schmalzried left for a wedding trip in the east after which they will return to their stations at Alamogordo, New Mexico.

Mrs. Herbert Campbell and Dan McCann left Monday to visit their sisters, Mrs. Don Mabley and Mrs. Edward Bridge in Detroit. Mrs. Campbell will then go to New York City to spend two weeks with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Block. They expect to be gone a month.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY

Question — Does Christ have power to forgive sins the same as God has?

Answer — The Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins." Luke 5:24.

Q.—How can a person get faith?
A.—The source of faith is the Word of God. "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God." Romans 10:17.

Q.—Did people in Christ's time sing hymns?

A.—"And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives." Matthew 26:30. See Ephesians 5:19 and Colossians 3:16.

Q.—What does the expression, "At that time shall Michael stand up" (Daniel 12:1) mean?

A.—The phrase "stand up" used in this way means to begin to reign. Look at Daniel 11:3: "There shall stand up yet three kings in Persia."

Q.—What does the Scripture say about Jesus' death? The age of Jesus' years? and "the time" He started to preach?
A.—The Bible says: "And He went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them; but His mother kept all these sayings in her heart." Luke 8:17.

Q.—Please give me all the facts where the word "immortal" is used in the Bible.

A.—There is just one—1 Timothy 1:17: "Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honor and glory for ever and ever." "Immortality" is found five times—Romans 2:7; 1 Corinthians 15:53, 54; 1 Timothy 6:16; 1 Timothy 1:16.

Q.—Can you harmonize 1 Samuel 24:24 and 1 Chronicles 21:28?

A.—Two distinct transactions are pictured. For "the threshing floor and the oxen," David paid fifty shekels of silver ($50.00). For "the yoke" (the entire piece, or property), he paid six hundred shekels of gold ($6,000). As to the two names—Araucan and Ornan—they are merely two forms of the same name.

Q.—I understand that people were saved by keeping the law before Christ's time, and by faith since. Is this so?

A.—The only way men have ever been saved is by faith. In Hebrews 11:1 we are told that "Abel's faith was offered a lamb. Read the whole chapter to understand that all the Old Testament believers obtained a good report through faith."

Veteranews

By Gilbert M. Lindsay

Twelve Simple Principles of Thought and Action for the Veteran.

1. Don't expect home folks to be the same. On the basis of time alone, your family, friends, and others have changed too. So accept them as they are today and reestablish relationships on the basis of what you now have in common. You'll be happier if you do.
2. Don't be resentful of the easy way in which some people who stayed at home appear to have weathered the war. Everybody obeys the Government's orders during wartime, and in 99 percent of the cases, the man who was not in uniform either could not qualify physically or the Government thought him more valuable sticking to his job. So even though it has been easy for some, wipe resentment of that fact from your mind. You'll get back in the swing faster. You'll get ahead faster.
3. You're a success. You've been idolized by family, friends, the public, and especially children for what you've done and for what you've been through, so don't disappoint them. Your future will be much happier if you continue to show the traits which made you a success in the greatest fighting force in history.
4. Play your part in the community. You're young, eager, and thanks to your service training, better equipped than many to help solve the tough problems which face your town and country as a whole. So get back in the community life as fast as you can. Your help is wanted and needed.
5. Sell yourself. You have fought for and won freedom of opportunity. So make the most of it. You've got to compete with everyone else, just as you did before. But you're better equipped to win success than you were before.
6. Don't expect to find making a living easy. Your rights and benefits are designed to help give you a start, but real, long-term success depends on you alone.
7. Don't be disappointed if the people at home can't fully comprehend what it was like or what you've been through. The person who wasn't there can never understand, so don't expect him to. You've got to hear the whine of the shells, see the horror war creates and experience the discomfort and suffering yourself before you can understand.
8. Have faith in the future, and contribute toward making it a better one. You have fought for your right to control your country's future, so make the most of it.
9. Your service experiences qualify you for leadership. And the future of the country is in the hands of your generation. So continue to educate yourself and shoulder your responsibilities, so that when the time comes, you will be equipped to put that leadership to work toward the betterment of the country's government, industry and other institutions.
10. In your civilian life, try to approach the heights of your war sacrifice. This may sound like preaching to a civilian, but you know what it means and the spiritual satisfaction that goes with it.
11. Remember that the folks at home are with you, and will stay with you.
12. You have prior rights of many kinds and these rights will be respected, but remember that the home folks must make a living too. So strive to work for unity among all of us.

Richard Hull Writes Mother

Tells of Landings in Tokyo Bay

Richard J. Hull, Cox., who is serving with the U.S.S. Ozark in the Pacific, sent the following letter to his mother, Mrs. Emerson Hull, with this note attached: This is something the ship put out for us to send home and I think it is pretty good. It gives you an idea what we did. I wish you could see it here and then you would really know what it is like as it is pretty hard for me to describe.

I am now in Tokyo Bay, where the Mighty Ozark is anchored off Tokyo, taking aboard American prisoners of war. We steamed into the Bay the morning of the 30 and landed about a thousand Marines and Sailors at Yokosuka Naval Base. All hands enjoyed making this "invasion," when the only thing we had to worry about was denting the bows of our landing boats on the concrete escarpment ramps where we beached.

Things began to happen when we left Guam on August 13 (where, incidentally, the Ozark was anchored next to the British battleship "Duke of York" during the ceremony in which Fleet Admiral Nimitz was awarded the British Order of Bath.) We embarked Brigadier General William Clemente of the 6th Marines, who is now Commanding General of the Yokosuka area and set a northerly course.

Off the Bonin Islands we saw the B-29's pass overhead on their last hostile run to Japan, and soon after received the word that Hirohito had accepted unconditional surrender. We were, naturally, happy to hear it, but also a little restrained since having previously heard several false reports. At any rate, all tendency to relax our degree of readiness was abruptly spiked the next day when a torpedo crossed our path just ahead of the bow. Right then we decided that while the Japs may have accepted surrender terms, there are always the 10 per cent who never get the word. We maintained our usual sharp lookout.

The next thing I knew we were joining the Third Fleet, about 300 miles off the Japanese coast, with orders to prepare to transfer at sea a thousand Marines and Sailors to the Ozark. The Third Fleet, as you probably know, is Admiral "Bull" Halsey's outfit, which includes the battleships, cruisers, carriers, etc., that had been bombing and bombarding Japan. These major units of the fleet each carry a group of "Fleet" Marines, who man anti-aircraft batteries, and they plus landing force sailors from the same ships—were the ones we took aboard.

The first ship to come alongside was the U.S.S. Bon Homme Richard, one of the Navy's big carriers. As she came alongside our port side line-throwing guns fired lines across and breeches buoys were rigged, fore and aft. In a few minutes, men were pouring across the 75-foot gap between ships as fast as the chair-buoys could be hauled over and back. At the same time, the U.S.S. Wisconsin came alongside our starboard side and as she got in position the ship's band on the Bon Homme Richard played "Don't Fence Me In," dedicating it to the Ozark.

As transfers were completed by each ship, another moved up to take its place, until 1,016 officers and men had been received from over 20 ships, including the battleships North Carolina and South Dakota, the carriers Shangri-La, Independence, Cowpens, Yorktown, Randolph, Ticonderoga and Bataan, the cruisers Springfield, Monterey, Pasadena and Wilkes-Barre, the destroyers Twining, Taylor, Woodward, Smalley, Hale, Buchanan, and several others.

The operation with each ship was timed and we think we set a record when 19 men were brought over from the South Dakota in 38 minutes. The whole maneuver is certainly a record, as such a mass transfer at sea had never before been attempted.

At the completion of the transfer we became a part of Task Force 31 and proceeded into Sagami Wan (Bay), just across the peninsula from Tokyo Bay. We anchored there and saw several Jap submarines, each flying the black flag of surrender from its conning tower. Early morning of the 30th we weighed anchor and moved down around the peninsula and up into Tokyo Bay for the landing.

It has been an honor to participate in this final amphibious landing and more so to be able to help evacuate our recently freed prisoners of war.

May this begin a lasting peace.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Gatti and their daughter, Mrs. Pete Sharrow and daughter, Pamela, left Monday for their home at Miami Beach, Fla., after spending the summer at their north side home. Their grandson, Michael Gatti, who has been here for several weeks returned to his home in Chicago.

Everyone makes a mistake once in a while, but don't mar your grouse hunting trip with one, boys!

Military experts are trying to determine the smallest number of words to make ourselves understandable to the Japanese. Just two words are necessary: "Hell, no."

Strikers in automobile factories who have stopped production of new cars, have made themselves very unpopular. They should be taken for a ride.

Already we are becoming worried over the mounting unemployment figures. In the old days the number of unemployed varied only according to the whereabouts of the boss.

We can't understand why the wife gets so concerned when we fail to get home by 10 o'clock. Before we were married she didn't care how late it was.

We wonder if all land owners know that when a farm is posted with "No Hunting" signs, it means that no one, not even the owner, can hunt on that land.

Nutritionists now tell us that there is no such thing as "brain food." Hereafter, there will be no excuse for eating "noodle" soup.

Those guys in New York aren't the only ones to have their ups and downs. We had an aisle seat at the Palace Theatre Sunday night.

This is national newspaper week. No price is too great to pay for Freedom of the Press. The cost to you is trifling, but profoundly important. Paying pennies for a clean constructive newspaper is one way of keeping alive "The Torch of World Peace" for without news told truthfully, you would live in darkness.

We might be a bit envious of Mrs. Young's sojourn to Milwaukee via steamship, for ten days, but knowing how arduous she labored this summer, and for past several years, we can only wish for her the very best on that well-earned vacation.

With quite a few of the boys "up north" hunting grouse, we hesitate to think what the "ole home town" will be like when deer season opens.

USO Swamped By Returning Veterans

United Was Fund Drive Will Benefit Servicemen

USO clubs at and near ports on the east, west and Gulf coasts through which returning servicemen are pouring, are handling records crowds, with most places recording an increased demand for service from the returning soldiers and sailors, according to Ray Johns, USO Director of Operations, Continental United States, in a statement received today by Kenneth Forbes, County Publicity Chairman, USO, a member agency of the National War Fund, is financed by contributions to the United War Fund.

In New Orleans the pressure was so great that the clubs had to go on a twenty-four hour service basis. Calls for every possible service are taxing volunteers and professional workers to their extent of their physical ability.

San Francisco clubs show an average monthly increase of 150,000 visitors over a year ago, with the long growing heavier. In August the clubs served 632,000 persons.

Workers in the southwest USO clubs are rushed, and are finding a complete change in their "customers". A year ago their visitors were ruddy-cheeked youths just entering the Armed Forces or with very little training. Today they are "home" for thousands of battle-scarred sun-tanned veterans of many a campaign.

In San Antonio the pressure for service has increased about thirty per cent.

The situation at Norfolk, Virginia, is in marked contrast. Case workers' loads have doubled, and large numbers of veterans are being referred to veterans' service center. Club activity is expected to show 25,000 a month increase. The greater activity for this area extends even to Washington, where the club attendance has increased 11,500 a month.

Red Rayders Win 25-0

Local 11 Trim Grayling On Local Field Friday

Charlevoix High School started the 1945 Football Season in good trim by whipping Grayling High School in a slightly lopsided game by the score of 25-0.

Grayling kicked off to Charlevoix at exactly 4:03. B. Carey received for CHS on his own 35 and ran it up to his 45. F. Martin made three first downs by end runs to put the ball on the four. Then D. Brown went through a hole in the line for the first tally. Time—2 minutes 15 seconds. B. Carey punted the extra point. Charlevoix kicked to Grayling and in a confused fumble took the ball again. Between F. Martin and B. Zietler Charlevoix put the ball on GHS 20 yd. line from where Frank went over behind a screen of protective blockers for the second score. Time—9 minutes and 30 seconds. The rest of the quarter saw Grayling more able to hold the ball and horn blew with no more excitement.

The second quarter the locals started with the ball on our 20 yd. line but lost the ball on downs then went into action, backwards. Three penalties and "Red" Ilmor don't mix. CHS was on her own 3 and Carey kicked to the 30. Bennett caught for Grayling but dropped the ball. Carlson retrieved it for Charlevoix again and then it slipped from him; Kewey who took it, ran a few feet and was hit. B. Zietler fell on it for Charlevoix. More end runs and line smashes by Martin and Brown gave us five more first downs and Martin went over standing up for the third touchdown. Zietler's pass failed to contact and the score stood 13-0. The rest of the quarter Grayling had the ball but never again did they pass our 35 yd. line.

The third quarter opened while the boys were still quite cold. It took them almost ten minutes to get into action. But they marched down the field to the ten and B. Zietler went over behind some beautiful blocking. Carey's kick went into the wind and high. Grayling was awake and the only pass completed was from Bennett to Carlson. Good for 15 yards Charlevoix held them on our 30 and when the horn blew had the ball again.

The fourth quarter the ball went back and forth over the Fifty yard line with neither team showing much action. The event went only as far as their 30 and got as far as the 45 when the game was called.

The last time Charlevoix played Grayling was in 1942 when they clinched the northern Michigan class C conference title with the score of 18-14 over the Rayders. Charlevoix made 12 first downs, Grayling 5. Charlevoix had 7 substitutions, Grayling 5.

This week Friday the "Red" Rayders travel to Munclona and another victory, they hope.

War Prisoners Receiving Help

Service of National War Fund Makes It Possible

Nine hundred and forty-three cases of recreational and educational materials are being shipped overseas this week to aid ex-Allied prisoners of war who are still held in internment camps in Poland, France and Germany.

According to officials of War Prisoners Aid of the Y. M. C. A., a participating service of the National War Fund, who announced the 100,000 pound shipment, the materials are designed to support the morale of the ex-prisoners while they await repatriation.

According to Tracy Strong, General Secretary of the World's Committee of the Y.M.C.A., who returns Friday to his headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland, the shipment contains a wide variety of sports, theatrical and educational equipment. The items being shipped are: softballs and bats, basketballs, volley balls, boxing gloves, horseshoes, hockey equipment, playing cards, chess and checker sets, recordings, table tennis sets and handicraft and theatrical equipment. Also being sent are art and school supplies and musical instruments. Dr. Strong pointed out that thousands of Poles, Balts and Yugoslavs who were once prisoners of war are now within the borders of Germany and France awaiting return that would result in their return to their homelands.

'Bud' Potter Sees Jap Homeland

Aboard the U. S. S. MISSISSIPPI, Tokyo Bay.

Harold "Bud" Potter got his first glimpse of the Japanese homeland August 27, when his ship, the U. S. S. Mississippi sailed up to Tokyo Bay as part of Admiral "Bull" Halsey's powerful Third Occupation Fleet.

He served as a member of the Engineering Force aboard the 40,000 ton battleship during the Palau, the Philippines, and Ryukyus operations. He wears the Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with four battle stars, the Philippine Liberation ribbon with two stars.

"Bud" is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Potter and is married to the former Elinor Alburus of Flint, Michigan. Mrs. Potter and three children reside at 1412 Huron avenue, Flint, Michigan.

The present Mississippi, claimed to have been sunk on several occasions by both the Japanese and Germans, was duplicating the feat of a previous warship bearing the same name. In 1853 Commodore Matthew C. Perry coined the first Mississippi into the then anchored waters of Tokyo Bay to open world commerce to Japan.

Commemorating the return of the "Missy" the State Flag waved proudly from the mainmast below the stars and stripes. It had been presented in colorful ceremonies attended by Rear Admiral L. D. McCornick, USN, Commander of Battleship Division Three, and Captain J. F. Crowe, Jr., USN, on the day of entry at Sagami Wan.

He was inducted into the Navy Jan. 6, 1944 and has spent all his service, except Boot Camp aboard the U. S. S. Mississippi.

An interesting letter received this week by his parents, tells of his experiences aboard the mighty Mississippi.

We'll Stay On the Job - - Until the Service Flags Come Down

The coming winter will be one of the most critical times in human history. Victory in the Pacific and the morale problems of occupation, demobilization and convalescence mean a peak load for the USO and USO-Camp Shows with no possible retrenchment before spring.

The next six months will settle for millions of the liberated the grim question of sheer survival, and also will largely shape the kind of peace and the kind of world with which we shall have to live.

President Truman told us that victory can be lost after it has been won—if we are careless or negligent or indifferent.

"Europe today is hungry," he said. "I am talking about the people of the countries which were overrun and devastated by the Germans. . . Many of them lack clothes and fuel and tools and shelter and raw materials. They lack the means to restore their cities and their factories."

"As the winter comes on distress will increase. Unless we do what we can to help we may lose next winter what we won at such terrible cost last spring. . . If we let Europe go cold and hungry we may lose some of the foundations of order on which the hope for world peace must rest."

From the standpoint of realism—sympathetic realism—those are reasons enough to warrant our greatest effort.

Governments of liberated countries are using their resources for mass feeding, fuel and the first steps in rehabilitation. Lend lease is out of the relief picture. UNRRA is providing relief in the Balkans, to a limited extent in Italy, and among displaced persons in Germany. For the time being though there can be no substitute for the service of the private agencies.

To bring sympathy and support—when most needed—to brave people who are too stunned, exhausted, cold and hungry to stand on their own feet unaided, budgets of European relief and for the Philippines have been stepped up to concentrate our help at once.

It is plain that we now are facing the peak of the need, that this is time when our agencies must be at the peak of their programs.

It is equally plain that this task, to which we all have pledged our best effort, must be carried through.

The American people have spent hundreds of billions to prove that the United States can win wars. Now they are asked to give $115,000,000 to demonstrate that they are as loyal as ever to those in our armed forces, and still generous and friendly to stricken neighbors in their time of greatest need.

From where I sit... Joe Marsh

Americans have a word for it

Bill Larkin's boy, who's back from overseas for good, was telling us about the funny customs and the different languages of European countries.

One thing he noticed is that in so many of those countries there is no word for "home." "House," yes... or "building." But no name that stands for what we mean when we say home.

"In spite of the fact," says Bill, "that it's the most important thing there is... a place where you can take your shoes off and let down your hair... enjoy a glass of beer before the fire and relax with folks you love!"

From where I sit, that may be an important difference between this country and some others. The conception of home as a place of tolerance and sacred loyalties—where differences of habit and opinion give way before love and understanding! Yes, we Americans have a name for it!

Unique Calendars Help to Promote "Good Neighbor" Policy

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.—Calendars now are doing their part in promoting the "Good Neighbor" policy with South America. The calendars contain original Gaucho paintings by F. Molina Campos, Argentine humorist, and because of their success in 1944 and 1945 for the third year now are being planned again by the Minneapolis-Moline Power Implement company in 1946. Campos is shown at left above with Walt Disney whom he assisted in making a movie, "Saludos Amigos." The picture, above, is "The Lasso," one illustration that appears in this year's calendars. The calendars are so popular that they are considered collectors' items by many.

Cross Breed Cattle Success In South

BEEVILLE, TEXAS—A cross between Shorthorn cows and Brahma bulls, such as the herd shown above, is the only successful cross breed to date to be impervious to heat and ticks, chief enemies of good cattle in hot climates. The cross embodies Brahma immunity to heat and ticks, removes the Brahma hump and yet retains all Shorthorn top qualities of modern beef cattle.

The herd of 13 heifers shown above, priced at $550 per head, averages eight months in age and 600 pounds in weight, and is the first shipment on a four year contract by John P. Impson, (inset left), Beeville Shorthorn breeder, and William du Pont, Jr., (inset right). The contract provides for from 80 to 100 heifers which will become the basis for a herd of Santa Gertrudis cattle with the above group going to du Pont's ranch at Carrcroft, Del. Other heifers will be shipped in 1945 and 1946 to du Pont ranches in Delaware, Maryland and Florida. There they will be mated with Brahma bulls from the King Ranch, Kingsville, Texas, originators of the Santa Gertrudis breed.

Buy Deer License
Early This Season

Buy deer hunting licenses early in the conservation department's plea.

Anticipated record sale of resident deer licenses this fall has the department in a dither.

An additional 15,000 resident licenses has been ordered from the printer, making a total of 325,000 licenses that have been distributed among dealers.

Many hunters bought licenses last fall in the counties in which they hunted, their choice of locale having been determined by the number of gasoline ration coupons in their possession.

Consequently, unless they intend to buy licenses from the same dealers this fall, the department's calculations may be upset.

If that is to be the case, the department wants to know in time to do something about it.

Resident deer licenses sold in Michigan in recent seasons totaled, 1944, 225,404; 1943, 216,621; 1942, 215,034; 1941, 227,067; 1940, 176,314; and 1939, 169,441.

Licenses are on sale locally at Wood Bros. Hardware and Stanley's Hardware.

Quest. What is a Locker Plant?

Ans. A Locker Plant is a refrigerated warehouse where individuals may rent lockers in which to store and preserve foodstuffs.

Quest. Is it expensive to store food in a Locker Plant?

Ans. This is one of the least expensive methods of refrigeration. At our introductory price of $12.00 per year the cost is only $1.00 per month or 3c per day.

Quest. Aside from inexpensive refrigeration, how does the use of a Locker Plant save me money?

Ans. 1. If you are a farmer, you can slaughter your own livestock or we will do it for you. We will cut and wrap your meat, smoke your hams, render your lard; and you can have fresh (not cooked or canned) meat all year around. We will have a market here where you can sell your livestock; no need to ship to Traverse City, or Chicago and then buy back at a price many times what you sold for.

2. If you are not a farmer, you will be able to buy cattle at our market and directly from the producers. You can have the farmer slaughter, or we will do it for you. We then will take care of processing and preserving your meat, the same as we will do for the farmers, and you will get all of the advantages of fresh meat, year around, at a fraction of your present costs.

Quest. What prices will you charge for your services in connection with marketing, slaughtering and butchering?

Ans. Our prices will be in line with those charged for similar services by other locker plants in this area.

Quest. Will your present introductory Locker rental, be your regular price?

Ans. No. The regular price will be $15.00 per year or $8.00 for 6 months.

A MESSAGE, TO THOSE WHO ARE ALIVE FROM THE SHOULDERS UP

For 40 years or more now, the population of Charlevoix has remained practically stationary.

The blame for this condition is partly on the shoulders of our community's leadership and is partly the responsibility of those who follow the leader.

You leaders who directed the civic affairs of this area, to the youth you have said "Go to the big cities to make a livelihood." You leaders were too lazy to shoulder your own responsibilities and you shirked your duty of creating opportunities for the followers.

You who follow the leader should have had gumption and guts enough to think for yourself, to hold in contempt the false doctrine of your leadership and to have made your own way in this world, instead of leaning on others.

Results of these policies are: much of the best blood of Charlevoix is scattered, diffused to the far portions of the earth and here the births just about balance the deaths, hence your stationary population.

There are people in this area who want this situation to continue. They are the landlords getting juicy rentals for obsolete real estate; they also are the cockroach merchants, whose livelihood depends upon trimming marks two months of the year and putting their pants tighter the other 10 months. There are others, also, in this class, people who are dead from the shoulders up. My message is not directed to any of the foregoing, except to such of those of the foregoing, who are willing to lift their sights, and improve their lots.

My message is sent to those true Christians who are willing to follow Christ's words, and "Let the dead bury the dead." As you well know, Christ here was referring to the mentally dead. I want you to live in the living present.

We, who are alive, have work to do. We have problems to solve, jobs to be finished. Our big problem today is what to do about ice. A way is pointed out to solve this problem, and with it, a lot of your other problems, problems vitally affecting your pocketbook and living standards.

By building an artificial ice plant here at Charlevoix, we can have ice regardless of natural conditions. By building a Locker Plant to go with it, and having a butcher shop and slaughter house and market in connection therewith, you can slash the costs of your living, and create a local market for your produce.

So that this plant can go in, let every last one of you, who is alive from the shoulders up, go you down to your bank and deposit now your $12.00 locker rental.

And, to those who have money, and would like to put it to work, go down to your bank and deposit it in trust in our account. The accompanying advertisement tells you how to do this.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY

Question—Is Italy mentioned in the Bible?

Answer—Yes, four times. Acts 10:11; Acts 18:2; 27:11; Hebrews 13:24.

Q.—What is the almsgiver mentioned in 1 Kings 10:11?

A.—Bible scholars are not certain, but some think it is the annual wood.

Q.—Don't you know the world required millions of years to be made?

A.—The Bible says: "In six days the Lord made heaven and earth." Exodus 20:11.

Q.—How can I tell that I have the Holy Spirit in my life?

A.—"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance; against such there is no law." Galatians 5:22, 23.

Q.—Don't you think repentance is more a frame of mind than an act? And is it really necessary?

A.—Repentance includes sorrow for sin and turning from evil, and it is commanded by the Lord. 11 Corinthians 7:10; Proverbs 23:13; Acts 17:30.

Q.—Do you look for Christ to return soon?

A.—Read Matthew 24. Most of the signs of the times here listed have occurred. Verse 33 says: "So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors." Read also 11 Timothy 3:1.

Q.—Will not the gospel be preached in all lands until the whole world is converted?

A.—Let us read Matthew 24:14: "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come." Notice, the preaching is for a witness to all nations. We are not told that they will be converted.

Q.—Is a Christian always the same after he is converted?

A.—He ought to grow spiritually. "But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." 11 Peter 3:18. How is he to grow? "And heeds this, giving all diligence, to your faith, virtue, and to virtuous knowledge; and to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience kindness; and to kindness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ." 11 Peter 1:5-8.

New Era In Food Foreseen By A & P

The nation's food distribution industry is challenged as never before by new opportunities to improve its service to the American family, according to an official of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea company in an announcement of the chain's observance this week of its eighty-sixth birthday.

C. Wall, vice president of the company's operations in this area, declared that "developments in the field of science and research, coupled with the industry's wartime experiences during the last four years, point to changes that undoubtedly will improve the quality and increase the variety of palatability and healthfulness of the American diet."

In scanning areas of possible change, Wall said "significant developments may be expected in practically every field of the industry's operation—in processing, refrigeration, packaging, transportation and in methods of the handling and display."

British Coal

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

COAL IS England's main industry. Her 708,000 miners produce 200 million tons a year. We have only 393,000 miners in the United States but they produce 586 million tons of coal a year; more than five times as much per man as in England. English miners draw $25 a week while Americans earn $52 a week for the same work accomplished in a much easier way and pursued for fewer hours a day.

In America miners use power cutters. Automatic loaders put the coal in cars and electric locomotives pull them away. In England men dig coal out with picks and pitch it in cars with shovels. The power that pulls the cars to daylight is a scrub mulch with a rag over his eyes. That's how they used to mine coal in America when grandpa was a boy.

War Wages GETTING a ton and Prices of English coal to ground costs $4.20 for labor alone; $14.00 in America. The manpower shortage, incidental to war, ran the price of British coal to $6.50 a ton—twice its pre-war price. American coal advanced only 60¢ a ton. Hand work is what commands the premium when men are scarce. This economic fact has worked a hardship on the English.

England does not raise enough food for her people, nor enough fibre to clothe them. Such necessities are imported by the shipload. In a practical sense, they are bought with coal. Plain to sea, with coal costs doubled,

Mrs. Frank Olesky entertained with a party at her home on Wednesday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Connie's eighth birthday anniversary. Guests were members of the third grade at St. Mary's school. Games were played with prizes awarded the winners. Refreshments were served at a table decorated in a pink and white motif and colorful favors and centered with a lighted birthday cake.

Elmore and Roberta Gene Carpenter were guests of honor at a farewell party given for them last Thursday evening by their music teacher, Mrs. A. F. Novotny. Twelve guests attended the theatre and enjoyed refreshment served at the home of Mrs. Novotny later in the evening. The girls were presented with gifts from the group.

The Young People of the Barnard Reformed church held a "holo" party at the Sportsman Park Club House in East Jordan last Friday evening. Seventeen members were present. Prizes for the best costumes were awarded to Lawrence E. Boss and Mrs. Theodore Heeres. Refreshments and a social hour followed. The Rev. and Mrs. Ellsworth Dykstra, of the Barnard church and the Rev. Howard Moore and daughter Ruth, of East Jordan, were present. Bernie Matchett and Junior Boss were the committee in charge of the party.

Mrs. Emerald Gallagher and daughter, of Detroit are making an indefinite stay with her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. C. McDonald.

things to eat and wear became very dear in England. People blamed the war, of course, but the real trouble was lack of modern coal mining machinery.

Women-shoe WITH A nation Regulations so dependent on coal, why didn't the mine owners equip their properties with modern machinery, get out more coal per man and pay better wages? Answer: Government interference! Tax laws discouraged replacing old machinery. Regulations placed a penalty on efficient methods. The results were three: High prices, low wages and a ruined export trade.

Workers in British mines blamed the mine owners. The squeeze that pinched their wages to half the American scale was a political Government.

regulations and taxes retarded production and choked prosperity. This was so craftily hidden from the workers that they should lead for nationalization government ownership. It will come now, with Churchill out and Attlee in.

With most admirable fortitude the English came through the war to victory. Peace might have brought England prosperity; ability to pay her 12 billion dollars of war debts. With business men free to compete and produce, earn profits and raise wages, it might have been. But socializing all industry will start a long detour off the road to a better England.

It now can be told that Japan was forced to give up the struggle because of a shortage of food, ships, planes, Pacific islands, and disappearing cities.

Many Boats Make Port During Season

Boat captains and owners laud Charlevoix for its fine harbor and hospitality. This is truly manifested in the large number of fine craft to find haven here in bad weather and to enjoy the beautiful scenery during the summer season.

Probably the greatest single reason for the return again and again of these beautiful boats is the hospitality shown the various captains and owners by our own "Joe" Howard, captain of the port here.

A tireless worker, Mr. Howard cares for the port here and is responsible for the appearance of a great many of the beautiful cruisers and schooners, as well as the larger boats.

Keeping Charlevoix on the map through fine port facilities is an asset second to none, especially in keeping this summer vacation land alive to the tourist and vacationers.

Red Rayders Do It Again

Win by 25-0 Score Over Mancelona '11'

Mancelona High, having a lighter football team this year, broke down under the vicious blocking and tackling of the weightier Red Rayder team, and were defeated last Friday by the score of 25-0, the locals repeating the score of a week previous, when they defeated the Grayling "11".

The Mancey Eleven kicked-off to Charlevoix and "Jennie" Hardy received for the locals on our own 29 and ran the pigskin up to Mancelona's 49. It took our boys just five minutes of playing time to make the first touchdown. Frank Martin and D. Brown made four first downs in rapid-fire succession, then "Bernie" Zieller went from the Orangemen's 8-yard line carrying three Mancelona linemen and a quarterback over with him. The kick failed to score and the tally stood 6-0. The last half of the first quarter, neither team made progress.

The second quarter saw an exciting moment when Charlevoix's Capt. D. Brown took a Mancelona fumble but our boys were unable to score on it. After the locals had lost the ball on downs, they pushed Mancelona back. Mancey's left half-back kicked out of the hole and B. Zeiler ran the ball 10 yards before being knocked out of bounds. This put the ball on Mancelona's 35. The Rayders were held in that section and "Bobby" Carey punted in the three.

The third stanza, the locals put over two more touchdowns. But the most exciting play was when D. Brown intercepted a long pass and started the machine in motion, which gave Charlevoix a 12-point lead.

During the last quarter, the local "11" had Mancelona on their own 20-yard line when a bad pass from center caused a fumble and D. Brown recovered for Charlevoix. Two plays and a first down later added another score for the locals. A fake kick ended in a pass from Carey to Brown for the top point of the game.

Coach Kipke sent in his second string. D. Jolliffe surprised everyone when he smashed through the center line behind some blocking and made three first downs in as many plays.

Charlevoix made 16 first downs to Mancelona's 9. The locals met Mancelona twice last year and defeated them both times, 12-7 and 18-7.

This Friday the Rayders met Boyne City Ramblers on the South Side Athletic Field for the game that everyone has been waiting for. Weather permitting, the high school band will be there to help boost the locals to another victory.

"The need for generous giving this year is equally as great as during the recent war years," Mr. Bridge stated. "With more than 200,000 American boys in Japan alone, to say nothing of the hundreds of thousands in other occupation centers throughout the world, the need for their entertainment remains great, and this is done almost entirely by the USO, he explained. The greatest share of the proceeds obtained from the National War Fund's part in the drive goes to the USO. "Be Generous in Victory" is the National Campaign slogan which will go into effect today."

If you were one of the millions of Americans who sat at the radio recently, you heard President Truman say: "War service is not ended. I don't need to tell that to anyone whose son is still serving with the occupation forces or with the service troops in this country."

"For them the war still is going on."

"That's why USO and USO-Camp Shows must go on with the fine work they've been doing — until all our service men and women are back home with us again."

President Truman urged generous support of the Community War Fund to help win "the total victory of human justice and decency and faith in mankind."

Following is the total budget: Mich. United War Fund.....$ 6,227 Expense.....149 C. S. O.....100 Boy Scouts.....1,000 Girl Scouts.....400 In addition to the above, $100 was allowed for the Boyne City Service organization, and $250 for the East Jordan Service organization.

The total budget for the county is set at $8,226.

County chairman and directors: Robert Bridge, county chairman; Ralph Hamilton, city vice-chairman; Mrs. John Porter, East Jordan, secretary-treasurer; Kenneth Forbes, publicity director; Ed Rehman, county agent, Boyne City, Rural Area Director.

Local committeemen include Karl J. Erber and George Haggard.

FORMER C. E. OLDS BOAT IN PORT FOR REPAIRS

The "Remman", formerly owned by R. E. Olds of Lansing is back at her home port here and will be under the care of Capt. Brown for the winter. R. W. Krizler of Marion, Ind. is the present owner of this beautiful cruiser.

Another boat, the "Tecumseh," a 62-foot schooner, owned by George Fox of Chicago is also entrusted in Capt. Brown's care for the winter. Both boats will receive the usual check up and repairs will be made at the Brow boatworks by the captain and three skilled workers, maintained throughout the winter by Capt. Brown.

Several smaller boats are at present receiving repairs in the Brow Boatworks.

Who's News?

By Earle Ferris

Comio cut-ups are nothing new for Alice "Mrs. North" Frost who is being coupled with "Harvey" friend, Frank Pay, for a network series in the fall. NBC's sleek sleuth, shown here, used to snare laughs with such top comedians as Fred Allen and Walter O'Keefe.

Phil Baker received a royal welcome when he returned to his "Take It Or Leave It" program after a short vacation. The $64 question man found that his popular Sunday CBS quiz had been issued a year's renewal, effective Sept. 16.

Orson Welles, shown here, whose new American network program is heard Sundays at 1:15 p. m., e. p. t., will be doubling week-days at a national studio where he is scheduled to start directing and acting in an as yet untitled mystery drama.

Alfred Bester, author of MB's Sunday series, "Nick Carter—Master Detective," will be represented on Broadway this fall by a mystery-comedy titled "Frisbie." In addition to these two writing chores, Bester also writes and directs a five-a-week air series.

MB's interviewer Paul Stone, shown here, who wrote a children's book to while away the time after her husband went into service in 1941, is conferring with publishers who want to put it on sale in time for the coming Christmas season.

QUONSET READY FOR FARM JOBS

War-Famous Structures Now Available to Civilians

Quonset buildings such as those adopted by the "Cucumber Commandos" in farming Pacific islands for our fighting forces are now available to American agriculturists at home, the Great Lakes Steel Corporation Stran-Steel Division announces.

The "Cucumber Commandos" operated under Navy and Foreign Economic Administration direction to provide fresh food to Americans as they hammered on the doors of Japan. The fire-resistant, rot-and-termite-proof, round-roofed structures were used principally for feed and implement storage, dairy barn and residential purposes.

Quonsets are built of arch-ribbed Stran-Steel framework into which nails are driven. The framework is assembled quickly with bolts and screws, and the buildings can be dismantled and re-erected at will. Cost of erection and maintenance is less than for similar-sized structures of other types, according to the manufacturer.

Production of the packaged buildings will continue for farm, industrial and aviation purposes in the sizes most used by the Navy. Retail prices are about $900 for the basic "Quonset 20," a 20-by-48-foot structure, and about $3,000 for the "Quonset 40," a 40-by-100-foot general-purpose building. Shorter or longer Quonsets in those widths and wider multi-arch structures may be purchased at proportionate price differences.

Tuberculosis still ranks as the seventh cause of death, the Michigan Tuberculosis Assn. warns. One of the most important steps in wiping out this disease is discovering it before symptoms appear. This means diagnosis through the magic of X-ray.

Visits Family

Pfc. John J. Martin arrived Thursday from Camp Campbell, Ky., to spend a 45-day furlough with his wife and family at Central Lake and with his mother, Mrs. John Martin, in Charlevoix.

A MESSAGE To the Merchants of Charlevoix!

The term "Cockroach Merchant" is a term used in one of the classifications of our economic system. The words refer to a merchant who has a hole in the wall for an office or shop, and who comes waddling out of this hole only when immediate profit is in sight; and like its namesake, the cockroach merchant crawls back into this hole, or hibernates elsewhere when the crumbs of profit are scarce.

For 40 years now, many merchants have been doing this very thing. With the arrival of the spectacular and colorful parade of "Kleister Marks," (meaning Marks in an unfamiliar environment, and labeled in diplomatic phraseology as tourists or summer visitors); the cockroach merchant crawls out of his hole, wipes the dust off the shelves, and sweeps the cobwebs from the corners; daubs up a bit with a paint brush; and with the mit act, (the glad hand act) down to perfection, proceeds to trim lavishly. When the tourist season ends, some crawl back into their holes, some close their establishments, then dream of the past, living on their accumulated fat, and hope for another killing 10 months hence.

In their actions, some merchants are similar to poor farmers. The poor farmer cultivates his soil to exhaustion and never bothers to put back any fertilizer. Then, when the point of exhaustion is reached, the poor farmer condemns the soil. The poor farmer never considers that his own viewpoints and actions are responsible for the soil being barren. Some of the merchants have been similar to the poor farmer.

For 40 years, some merchants; for 20 years many merchants have taken all the good (all the surplus value or profit) that they could out of the community. But only a few, a very few, have ever bothered to go out of the way to restore the fertility of your fields, by sponsoring enterprises where goods and purchasing power are created.

In their quiet sort of way, Mr. Miller with his small but efficient float business; Mr. Kaunitz with his wood shop, the Crosses, LaBlances, Brodine, Arvilla, W. H. Wallace and others in the despised fishing enterprises, have brought more lasting purchasing power into this community than has ever been done in the spectacular two months' parade of "Kleister Marks." For certainly the Foster Boat Co. has put more money into your pocket-books than ever was realized from summer trade.

Mr. Merchant! It is time we re-appraise the situation—our viewpoint. Do we want another 40 years of two months' prosperity, followed by 10 months' depression?

Mr. Merchant! Do you realize that thru your efforts and ours, in combination with our allies, we can cause Charlevoix to grow; to increase in population, with opportunities for all. To you, this means: IF WE CAN DOUBLE THE POPULATION OF CHARLEVOIX, AS A YEAR-AROUND GROWTH, YOU MERCHANTS CAN HAVE DOUBLE THE OPPORTUNITY TO DO BUSINESS!

The foregoing Capitalized sentence is a simple fact. But why has it taken some of you 40 years to learn this simple lesson? Will it take the majority of you merchants another 40 years to understand? Why are you resentful at having this shameful matter and kindred subjects brought to your attention? Are you of so little understanding that you do not understand your own self-interests?

It has been called to our notice, that there are, among you, those who have been appointing themselves as a committee, going around, seeking to line up all merchants into having no business with us! And there are among you those who have refused to cash our employees' paychecks, because you resented the term "cockroach merchant". It is evident that this term is appropriate, in some instances, because to those to whom the term does not apply, they would only laugh it off. There are among you, also, sympathizers and friends of a certain south side merchant who was fined by the OPA for price ceiling violation, resulting from his having sold for $1.00 an item that regularly wholesales for 13c.

With the foregoing facts in view, it is time many of you re-appraised your viewpoints. It is time you decided, if you wish to continue among the living dead (dead from the shoulders up) alive two months of the year, dead 10 months per business year; or do you wish to cooperate with us to the end that, together, we can cause Charlevoix to grow, and you can live a prosperous 12 months per year business life.

Instead of organizing committees of sabotage, it is to your self interest that through your responsible organizations, the Board of Commerce, and the Kiwanis Club, that you organize committees to study this locker plant proposal, to cooperate with us, in design and financing, to the end that you can have the use of your Locker Plant, the sooner, and out of it get, for yourself, better service for less money. You cooperate now, and next summer you can forget to display those "No Got" signs that were so apparent in many stores last summer. Through the use of your Locker Plant, when your next summer's Tourist business comes, you can have for sale, in abundance, Fish! Fresh Meat! Bacon! Lard! Ham! Yes, even Ice Cream!

Drop in at your local banks and subscribe for your locker. DO IT TODAY!

Tells of War
In Philippines

Our intelligence must have been very good. For, where cities were burned out, they were burned out all around these prison camps, but for the most part the camps were untouched. They did, however, have some accidents. There was no protection; no air raid shelters, or anything, but they were spared. They said it looked so strange to see your camp intact, and look over the city to see ruins, just complete destruction all around. They said one B-29 used to come over Osaka and Kobe regularly photographing for evidence. Before he left he always dropped a load of eggs on some target or other. They got so they called the pilot "Uncle Woody," because one of the Americans had gotten a letter from home saying that Uncle Woody had paid him a visit. They always watched for Uncle Woody and watched his beautiful precision bombing.

I have a very sympathetic ear and heart for the terrible things we hear every day. A great many ex-prisoners here now. Boy, it would make hair stand on end.
These people are well-fed here and well cared for—given a very thorough medical and dental exam. But they slow the process by asking everything about atrocities.
I have talked to interrogating officers. They have plenty of stuff—names, people maltreated, those killed—all the details. Thus they can also establish legal deaths.

The surprising thing to me is these Englishmen. Their speech to me is sissified, but they must be hard as nails—those who survive.
One lad, a fine Catholic, a convert, worked on the Thailand railway for 2½ years, with beatings, and disease carrying off 50% of his camp. Then a dismal prison ship ride—in the hold, packed in—to Japan. Up north of Tokyo and a year in the mines. Hard work, beatings, a foot of water in the mines. They were given shoes with no toes in them. All winter that water was cold and icy.

You hear so much, and corroborated by everyone who comes along, that it just staggers you.
I was told yesterday in more detail about poor Father Greene, the Englishman. Tall, thin, the refined scholar type. Interned in Hong Kong. A diphtheria epidemic. Four and five men died each day. No medicine. The Jap commander told them the Pope had sent 30,000 yen for prisoners.
Nothing done. So Father Greene wrote a strong letter to the commandant urging that medicine be bought. He was called into the office. Did you write this? Yes. Did you not know all business with the commandant is to be done through the officer (British) appointed as your representative?
Yes, but he did nothing. A smile and the commandant bows out.
Immediately two subalterns proceed to beat Father about the head, face and neck, within an inch of his life. He was in the camp hospital for two years, after that. And today he looks more like a corpse to me than any actual corpse that I have seen. And, get this, the Japs finally bought miscellaneous instruments with a part of the Pope's fund. You figure out what happened to the rest of it.

At present in camp we have 11 French-Canadian missionaries who were interned in Manchuria
(and were well treated). Father Kennedy, of Dublin, kept in Mukden; Father Kennedy, an Aussie; a Belgian missionary, and to help care for ex-prisoners, Father Leonard, a bonnie Scotchman just out from Glasgow. Boy,
I can understand only about half of what he says.

All prisoners rave about the beautiful precision bombing of our carrier planes, B-29s and others. And all glow with joy when they tell us about the Yanks dropping food, and the Yanks meeting them. One man told about the Yank carrier planes dropping food and clothes into a court yard 50 feet square. Right into it came the parcels. Next day British carrier planes also dropped stuff.
Most of it came crashing through the flimsy barracks roof, through the floor and buried into the ground. Some got Red Cross parcels once during their captivity.
You figure how long that was.

I met an American priest in Manila. Five weeks in the hold of a ship from Manila to Japan! First ten days a few crackers a day—no hot rice or food of any kind.
Dysentery, etc.—he said the stench was sickening. He buried 15 men at sea. The priest was a chaplain in the last war.

Could go on and on and could give you authentic details in abundance. Terrible. We have British, Canadian, Australian, and Scotch here. Down the road are the Americans. Haven't gotten down there yet.

TUBERCULOSIS DEATHS

Last year there were 1,748 deaths from tuberculosis in Michigan. Had these cases been discovered in their early stages and those sick with tuberculosis hospitalized and treated according to the latest scientific methods, every one of these deaths could have been prevented, says Mich-

Navy Builds Barn from Quonset

Given a Quonset, the Navy quickly erected this modern dairy barn at Guam from the Stran-Steel arch-ribbed utility building. Smokestacks at the right are part of pasteurizing unit boiler installation. Two-story construction provides a hay loft and feed mill space. Ensilage storage bin and cutter are in foreground. Basic "Quonset 40" buildings similar to that from which this barn was erected now are available to American farmers here at home.

Waterproof clothing—thanks to chemicals—will mean new jobs.

Molded furniture—through chemicals. More jobs for workers.

Unscuffable shoes—made possible with chemicals. Still more jobs.

Goodbye to mosquitoes—with chemicals. Still more jobs.

Making Postwar Jobs—Out of Chemicals

WHAT WILL the employment situation be — now that Victory has been won? Will there be enough jobs for returning soldiers, sailors, war workers?

No one can say, exactly. But this we do know: business management, in scores of industries, has long since laid plans for new products, new ventures, new services, that will make jobs by the thousands by creating new demands.

Take the chemical industry. Not only will it continue as one of America's basic job-makers, but from chemical research have come scores of new products that will mean thousands of new jobs in the future—products many of which were little more than dreams before the war.

Imagine your home rid of moths and mosquitoes. Specially treated clothing that will let you stroll in the rain and stay perfectly dry. Chemically treated pine furniture, hard as ebony, on which scratches and blemishes will not show.

Think of scuffproof shoes. Or shrink-proof woolens. Of window screens that won't rot or rust. All these things—and many others—will increase the demand for chemicals — and demand for goods makes jobs.

The chemical industry is only one of many along the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Nickel Plate, and the Pere Marquette that have planned for postwar employment.

And, now that the war is over, the chemical industry and other industries throughout the country will put into operation their plans for the jobs and opportunities all of us want.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTERS

Question—Is conversion just a preacher's idea, or does the Bible teach it?

Answer—The Bible teaches it. "Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord." Acts 3:19.

Q.—Does the world belong to God, man, or the devil?

A.—"The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein." Psalm 24:1.

Q.—Where is that text which speaks of the land "where the lion roareth and the dragon mourneth for its firstborn?"

A.—It's not in the Bible. Q.—Isn't there a text that speaks about abominable prayer?

A.—Possibly you mean Proverbs 28:9: "He that turneth away his ear from bearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination."

Q.—Who were the Sadducees?

A.—A sect of the Jews in Christ's time who did not believe in the resurrection nor the existence of angels. Matthew 22:23; Luke 20:27; Acts 23:8.

Q.—Was any book of the Bible ever sealed?

A.—We read in Daniel 12:4: "But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased."

Q.—What is "the sin which doth so easily beset us?" Hebrews 12:1.

A.—Whatever sin we are most likely to commit. The whole eleventh chapter of Hebrews is on faith. The opposite is unbelief, which is one of the most common sins in all the world and seems to be what is meant here.

Q.—Were the people who followed Christ always called the "church of God?"

A.—No. In Acts 20:28, they are called the church of God; in 1 Timothy 3:15, church of the living God; in Romans 16:16, church of Christ; also church of the saints, church of the Gentiles, Israel, household of God, disciples, servants, Christians.

Q.—Someone told me that the exclamation, "God save the king," was as old as the Bible. I said, "No." Who is right?

A.—It is as old as the Bible. "And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him whom the Lord hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, God save the king." 1 Samuel 10:24.

AAA NEWS

Walter H. Henley, Chairman
Charlevoix County AAA
Committee

In order to make the price support promise good to all late potato growers, a special loan program has recently been developed to place farmers' potatoes under loan who do not have regular potato facilities.

Under this special loan program potatoes will be placed under loan in temporary storage including field pits, barn, or other storage which will provide adequate protection from frost or other damage until at least December 15, of this year.

Without this type of loan, many farmers who could not provide regular storage could not avail themselves of the price support program covering this year's crop.

The loan rate for this type of loan is $1.24 per cwt. for U. S. No. 1 and 42c per cwt. for U. S. No. 2. While the loan rate is just slightly lower for potatoes, under temporary storage, farmers will still be eligible to receive the September price support of $2.05 per cwt. for those potatoes if they decide to deliver them to Commodity Credit Corporation.

Farmers are again warned that the only means of obtaining the support price guaranteed by the government is to place their potatoes under the loan program. Loans are available until December 15, 1945.

Any grower who is unable to secure the support price for his late crop potatoes in the regular market channels, should immediately contact their local AAA office and obtain full information concerning the program being offered.

Now 4 Points FOR USED FATS

Help Increase Supplies of Soap and Other Peacetime Products By Saving
More Used Fats

Industrial fats far short of last year! We are almost down to the bottom of the barrel. The nation's industrial fat supply is millions of pounds less than it was in 1944. We need fully as much as last year to help make the soaps and other civilian goods you want and need so badly. So...

If you want more soap and soap flakes... if you're dreaming of nylons, sheets, cotton fabrics and want them to hurry back to the store counters... you can help by saving those used kitchen fats as you never saved before! Save every drop, every day!

These fats are vitally necessary to help speed greater supplies of soaps and hundreds of other things—like new cars, electric washers, irons, refrigerators and tires. Industry must have these fats... to help get to you more quickly the peacetime products you've been longing to have for years!

So skim and scrape and scoop just as you did so faithfully before V-J Day. To prove how important it is, your government has increased the point bonus. So help meet this nation's need by continuing to save used fats. If you can't find a store that accepts used fats, call Home Demonstration or County Agent.

HERO HONORED BY CITIZENS

Locals Win First Game in 13 Years From Boyne "11"

At Last! Charlevoix's Red Rayders have beaten the Boyne City Ramblers for the first time in 13 years. The score, then, 1933, was 7-6. The most beautiful play ever seen by CHS fans came into existence last Friday when F. Martin, in the second quarter, scrambled over the goal line just ahead of six Boyne City Ramblers, after a 55 yard run.

Friday was ideal football weather and the Rayders played a perfect game. With B. Zeitler holding the ball, F. Martin kicked to Boyne's 10 yard line, received by Moore who got up to the 15. After three plays Boyne punted to CHS 45, caught by B. Zeitler who was pulled down on his own 51 yard line. Martin then ran the ball up to Boyne's 30 yard line. D. Brown pushed it six more yards and the first pass of the afternoon, Zeitler to Hardy, failed. But F. Martin made the first down up to the 15. A penalty placed the pigskin on the 20. F. Martin brought the ball back to the 15. Then a long pass over right end, from Zeitler to Martin, brought the first score. An attempted pass for conversion failed. The only real threat Boyne City made all afternoon came at this time when J. Moore and Tooley ran the ball up to the CHS 46 yard line. Brown and Ward pushed Moore back 15 yards and a penalty for clipping gave Boyne third down and 30 yards to go for a first. They preferred to kick and the quarter ended with Zeitler down on his own 35.

The second quarter opened with a smash. Brown and Zeitler went through the center for a first down. A penalty brought the ball back 15 yards and a pass from Carey to F. Martin brought it back up to the 45. Two plays later F. Martin took the ball around his right end and made the score that broke Boyne's morale. A 55 yard run! With six men breathing down his back he out ran them all. Wright received for Boyne but was snaggd by Mol, Brown, Mol and Ward kept Boyne worried and on their own side of the 50. A fumble recovered for CHS by J. Mol, gave Charlevoix the ball on the Boyne 49. The half ended when D. Brown ran the ball up to the 32 yard line.

The second half opened with B. Carey receiving the kick from H. Ryan. The Ramblers were bound and determined to hold the Rayders, so B. Carey punted to the 45. Tooley, the receiver, was stopped immediately. D. Brown recovered a fumble by O. Moore on the Rambler's 48. On the next play the left side of locals line opened a hole and F. Martin ran the third score over unopposed. A pass from Martin to Hardy made the first conversion. Tooley received Martin's kick and for three plays the local boys held them on the 35. A punt gave CHS the ball. Martin made two first downs, Brown and Zeitler each made one to bring the ball up to the 20. A beautiful pass from Zeitler to Hardy, and "Jennie" went over standing up. A fake proved to be a pass for the conversion and the score stood 26-0. F. Martin kicked and the third quarter ended with the Ramblers on the CHS 35 yard line.

The first play of the fourth stanza R. Hardy took a fumble from Boyne on their own 25. Bill Carey, a substitute, carried the ball up to the 11. Then D. Brown made a first down. Brown received a pass for another score but a horn on the play nullified the tally. A penalty brought the ball back to the 16. Bill Carey took the ball through center up to the 3, and from there B. Zeitler went over. But as he hit the ball squirted from his arms and J. Hardy recovered for the fifth score. Bob Carey was perfect and the score stayed 33-0. Boyne received but was held on the 20. They punted and Zeitler ran the ball up to the 40. A fumble re-

Hamilton Addresses Blue Star Mothers

The Charlevoix chapter of the Blue Star Mothers met at the home of Mrs. J. M. Foster on Thursday evening, Ralph S. Hamilton, city vice-chairman of the Community Chest Drive, addressed the group and asked them to assist in the drive. At the business session members volunteered for a house to house canvass to raise funds for the drive.

A social hour was followed by refreshments, served by Mrs. Foster, assisted by Mrs. Fred Gill, Mrs. Grace Geniet and Mrs. W. E. Goss.

covered by Brown and Boyne held CHS on the 45. Zeitler's pass was intercepted by Kujawski, who was downed on the BCIS 40. They could not make headway so punted and Zeitler ran the ball back to the 40. The game ended with Charlevoix on the Boyne 48 yard line.

Charlevoix made 11 first first downs to Boyne's 6. The officials were R. F. Hastic and V. Knowlton of Alpena and Dan Evans of Ludington. This game brought Martin's score for the season up to 36 points; Jennie Hardy has made 24, Zeitler 18 and Brown 6. But then the boys are not started yet. This Friday the Rayders meet East Jordan here for the fourth game.

Cpl. Howe Commended

SERVED WITH 4th CAVALRY IN EUROPE

Cpl. Arland G. Howe, of the Headquarters 4th Cavalry Group, has received a commendation as a member of the above named group which reads in part:

To Cpl. John C. Macdonald, Commanding Officer, 4th Cavalry Group:

"With the end of the war in Europe, I wish to express to you and to the officers and men of the 4th Cavalry Group, reinforced, my admiration and deep appreciation for the magnificent job the group has done throughout the campaigns of the VII Corps in Europe."

Space does not permit a detailed resume of the fighting of the cavalry group. The group has consistently shown itself versatile, rugged and willing to take on any missions assigned it.

"Please convey to each of your officers and men my profound appreciation of their great soldierly qualities, and wish them all for me the very best of success and good luck in their future endeavors."

J. Lawton Collins, Lieut.-Gen. U. S. Army, Commanding

From Col. Macdonald the following letter was sent to the men under his command. It reads in part:

"This great letter acknowledging your soldierly qualities in combat is transmitted to you direct with my deep appreciation and respect, not only for your gallant and effective accomplishment of all your battle missions but also for the great American esprit de corps which as soldier citizens or citizen soldiers you displayed in serving your country in this great war. You are typical of the heroes of the past who won and preserved our liberties and freedom for the United States of America. You enjoy a priceless heritage and stand in a glorious tradition and you have added luster to both through your service with the Fourth United States Cavalry Group, Reinforced."

John C. Macdonald, Colonel, Cavalry, Commanding

Cpl. Howe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Howe, has been in the service since October, 1942, and has been overseas for two years. He was stationed in England and went to France on D-Day, June 6, 1944.

Gun Accidents Serious Again

Youthful Carelessness is Cause for Alarm

Four boys, 18 or under, have been wounded in early season gun accidents. A Bay City man is dead and two adults have been seriously injured.

The fact that more than half of the early season accident victims have been under 18 is causing grave concern among leaders of sportsmen's organizations and the department in recent months have greatly increased their efforts to educate youths in the safe handling of firearms. Here in Charlevoix, Bonnie Nickerson, president of the local Rod and Gun club, has arranged for motion pictures to be shown to club members and interested sportsmen dealing with all phases of hunting and handling of firearms. Motion pictures, lectures and demonstrations used to carry the message of gun safety to scores of groups throughout the state.

Interested persons have hoped that a decline this fall in gun accidents among youths may result from these efforts; the early season showing indicates there is little reason for optimism.

Sixteen persons were killed during the 1944 grouse season, 15 died during the deer season, and seven were killed while hunting ducks and rabbits. Those wounded during hunting seasons last year totaled 142.

This season's first fatality was Stephen Talaga, 30, of Bay City, killed while duck hunting.

'Bennie' Gill Arrives Home After 3 1/2 Years In Jap Prison

GIVEN UP FOR LOST BY WAR OFFICIALS, MOTHER NEVER GAVE UP HOPE

Bennie Gill is coming home! He is expected to arrive in Charlevoix late this week where a hero's welcome will greet him. Liberated from a Jap prison camp in August where he had been held since the loss of the submarine, Perch, in February, 1942, he landed in Seattle, Washington, last Wednesday. In a telephone call to his mother, Mrs. Fred Gill, on Wednesday evening, he assured her his condition was good, that it was wonderful to be back in circulation again, and that he would be home soon. He left Seattle late Monday evening and is expected here Friday morning.

In letters received here this week he gave a few details of his rescue by the crew of a Catalina Flying Boat based at Balikpapan; "How did I get this far? An American Commander finally got a plane to land in Makassar about two weeks after the war was finished. He got our names, etc. then. They came over every day and dropped medical supplies for the hospital, and some cigarettes, CANDY and food for us."

"You see, there was a woman's camp about 20 miles from us that the AAF bombed thinking their rooms were warehouses and many were injured, so they came in and dropped blankets by the hundreds and medicine and food mostly for them."

"On with the trip. The day he first came he took eight men out. The reason no more, because it was a B-25 and there was no room for more. In a few days he came with a Catalina Flying Boat loaded with a doctor and plenty of food. An English officer was going to take command of the food, but the commander informed him that the 'American Air Force' had been stationed at Balikpapan had prepared it for the Americans only, so that was that. I was among the 20 who left. I didn't get a crack at it. I think I made out OK tho'. We left the 'Hell Hole' at 2 p. m. and there wasn't one of us who wasn't glad to get away. We landed at Balikpapan at 4:23 p. m. We were transferred to the Naval Base and had our first medical examination."

"Our headquarters was the MAA shack, but we made it the hospital and galley. The place was ours. The doctor, chaplain, more or less took charge of us and we really enjoyed it. Two finer men I can't meet. The chaplain reminded me so much of Rev. Parker. I got sort of homesick. Well, we had our first navy supper and did we make a clean-up of it. The Dr. had detailed men to serve us and the guys seemed to enjoy their job immensely. Nothing got empty or even close to it before they had a full one in front of us. Then the ice cream came. We didn't think we had room for it, but it slid down and then they had nerve enough to ask us if we couldn't eat a little more."

After that we were picked up in the truck and taken to the movie. After the show they waited all night for us to talk with some of the men and officers. Back to the galley for a cup of coffee I met a boy from Cassopolis and had quite a talk with him. He had just come out so had the latest dope. Didn't turn in until 2:30.

"The next morning we were supposed to go to Palawan, but the plane didn't get in so we had to stay. We went to the airport tho' and met the crew of the Catalina again. They were packing all their gear into the plane. We ask what the dope was and were informed that they could take no more prisoners out of unoccupied territory. The Commander then drove up and was he mad. He couldn't finish a project he'd started. They must have got that settled tho' for two days later they got 20 more out. More about that later."

Compulsory Health Insurance

WHAT IS IT? WHAT ARE THE IMPLICATIONS?

On May 24, Senator Wagner introduced in the U. S. Senate a Bill (S. 1054) Social Security Amendments of 1945. Congressman Dingell introduced an identical Bill (H. R. 3293) in the House of Representatives.

The key measure of these amendments provide for free medical, dental, laboratory and nursing care and hospitalization for all Social Security beneficiaries and their dependent. Compulsory Health Insurance.

These provisions are more far-reaching than any proposals ever previously presented in the United States Congress. They are more comprehensive than any measures enacted into law in any country with the possible exception of Russia.

They not only represent a departure from all precedents but they would establish governmental machinery and administrative mechanism that are truly collectivist in concept.

In this country at this time there is a leadership of groups that would personally profit by the centralizing of controls. They would become the Gauleiters of the sub-fuehrers of a new order.

The leadership of the A. F. of L. and the C. I. O. Labor Unions are vigorously supporting the Compulsory Health Insurance Provisions of the Wagner-Murray-Dingell Bills. The rank and file of Labor do not understand the meaning and implications of these measures.

Times change and the points of view of men change with time—but there are basic principles governing human relationships that are eternal verities.

For a mass of postage, under the pretense of compulsory social insurance, let us not voluntarily surrender the fundamental principles of liberty and freedom, the hope of the Republic of the United States, the leader and teacher to the world of the significance of this great anthem chorus of humanity—LIBERTY!

Fr. Collins Tells of War In Philippines

Father John W. Collins, former pastor of the St. Mary's church, who is now an army chaplain serving near Manila in the Philippines, is working with liberated prisoners of war in the Pacific area. In recent letters he has written many messages of these men and what they have endured during their imprisonment. The following are excerpts from his letters.

The first was written Sept. 13: "In a couple days I expect to be assigned to one of the battalions which is caring for liberated prisoners. I have been able to chat with a few of them, mostly British. Boy, they have been in for a long time—some since Java fell, some at the fall of Singapore, some since Hong Kong. Those were all kept in Japan. I understand there are some from that terrible Thailand-Burma railroad we heard so much about. THEY really suffered. Mostly from tropical diseases coupled with the hard work. A priest told me that one of them said all he had to his name for 3½ years was a G-string—no clothes, no hat, mind you, in that terrific sun and monsoonal rains. Many, many died from tropical ulcers. One very famous Aussie surgeon was with them. And he doesn't know how many amputations he had to perform, with only a knife or a razor blade—gangrene caused by tropical ulcers. But all the survivors are vociferously happy. One and all they glowingly tell us of our carrier planes dropping food, etc. to them right away. What a Godsend that was!

"Yesterday a bonnie Scotchman came into this office in the afternoon for a Rosary. He had no chance to attend mass for three years. Fortunately, he is a humorous man, for he has been through plenty. I certainly felt in love with that man and sympathized with him. He was a policeman in Hong Kong for 14 years. He was taken along with military prisoners and kept with them throughout the time. The poor man is trying in every way possible to find out if his wife and two children are alive. For they were interned as civilians also in Hong Kong. The man was given a rough time in a prison camp, then moved to another, and finally was being shipped to Japan on that Jap transport which was sunk by one of our subs. He said there were 1800 of them down in the three hatches and the manholes were tied down. Fortunately, the ship stayed afloat for 20 hours after the torpedo hit. One of the officers happened to have a knife and worked all that 20 hours, reaching the knife up between the boards of the hatch cover and he could just touch the ropes. So, he finally got one cut, then had to move over to the other side and cut another. Finally got it opened.

The Japs had left some guards aboard. Some of the prisoners were shot, but the rest overpowered the guards and opened the second hatch. Came to the third and found that they could do nothing for the men imprisoned there—they were already dead. Just then the ship lurched and they were all thrown into the water. There were some small Jap ships around and they swam for them. But each time one of two things was done: either they shot the prisoners who approached, or they let them come close, then hung ropes over the sides just out of reach of the men and laughed at them. So, they swam away and clung to pieces of the old ship floating around. Many drowned of course, but the rest were in the water for 24 hours. Then another Jap ship came along and picked them up and took them to Osaka. In prison there he fared very well. He said they were only beaten once in a while. The chief thing they were afraid of was their face. They didn't mind the beatings elsewhere on the body, but he said they got Red Cross parcels one or two times. In the boxes were little skull caps, wool. So, they would put rice or sugar into the skull cap and put it on their heads under their caps. Of course the favorite Jap beating was over the head. He said we felt nothing and the Japs never caught on. He worked down at the warehouse, so they stole the Japs blind and brought lots of things back to camp. They were caught only once, and then were beaten, but even though they were thoroughly examined after that each time they came back to the camp after work, he said, they still got plenty of stuff. The fire bomb raids were terrible. He said the city was leveled. You have no idea, he told us, of the devastation. He was in a camp outside Osaka. And when the Americans hit Kobe across the bay with high explosives, he said they could look right straight across the beautiful city of Osaka and see the beautiful display in Kobe.

We also had a Canadian priest who was kept at Hong Kong. A Belgian priest who was in a camp near Tokyo, too, was there. I haven't met him. There must have been some good camps. The priests were talking tonight about how Jap priests were allowed to come in regularly to some camps for Mass. In one camp in Korea a native priest came in regularly, distributed Rosaries, prayer books, etc. and had about 50 converts. I am living in a tent with three British intelligence officers who are charged with investigating and checking atrocity accounts. They spoke of one man who gave them enough material that it could have filled a hundred pages, but 15 were more than enough to incriminate several Japs.

"Draw Me Nice for Mom!"

A HOT LITTLE ISLAND in the Pacific. A badly wounded boy lies on a hospital cot. The boy may die. He may live. It's touch and go!

He speaks to the artist who is sketching his picture:

"Listen, Mister. Don't draw me the way I am now. Make me nice and goodlooking for my mom. It may be the last she'll ever see of me."

Perhaps the kid is right. He may be dead within hours. Perhaps... and this the doctors hope for... the sketching of the picture may give the patient a healthy lift when he needs it badly.

Under the auspices of the U.S.O., scores of artists visit hospitals and draw crayon portraits of wounded fighting men to be sent home. The money you give to your local community war fund makes it possible to send these artists to the Pacific and other distant fighting areas.

Don't give up giving! Your help is needed now.

more than ever before! Your donation to your community war fund not only spreads cheer to wounded veterans far from home, but also provides maternity care for wives of servicemen... provides wholesome recreation to combat juvenile delinquency... and aids the homeless and helpless people of our allies.

How big is your heart? Give now, and generously, to the National War Fund in your community. Millions will thank you!

It takes more than a telephone to provide service

If all we needed were new telephone instruments, the job of providing service for the 125,000 families now waiting would be much easier and faster. However, nearly two-thirds of those waiting are in areas where present central office equipment cannot handle any more telephones, or where all outside wire and cable are in use.

Large-scale manufacture of civilian telephone equipment is under way, and no effort is being spared to hasten production. But cable and central office equipment are not ready for use when they leave the factory. They must be fitted into the existing telephone system before they can be used to connect new telephones. This is a complicated, time-consuming process.

If you are among those waiting, you may be sure that we'll fill your order in its proper turn as soon as possible. But it may be nearly two years before telephones can be installed generally without delay.

Conservative?

THIS WORD, STRIPPED OF ITS DIPLOMATIC CLOAK, IN BANKING CIRCLES MEANS "MENTALLY LAZY."

THE MIND OF A CONSERVATIVE HAS CRYSTALLIZED IN A BY-GONE ERA. ONE SO AFFLICTED, MENTALLY, LIVES IN THE PAST, AND IS SATISFIED WITH THE PRESENT.

THE OUTSTANDING TRAIT OF A CONSERVATIVE IS PROCRASTINATION. TO NEVER DO TODAY WHAT SHOULD BE DONE; TO ALWAYS POSTPONE ACTION TO A TOMORROW THAT NEVER COMES.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"We have only just begun to fight"

We were sitting around Bill Webster's fire the other night, enjoying a mellow glass of beer, and talking—now that the war is over—about what Peace really means.

"I can tell you one thing it doesn't mean," says Bill. "It doesn't mean that we can all relax—and take things easy—and figure we're living in Utopia."

"You're right," Judge Cunningham agrees. "Peace means, among other things, eternal vigilance. Free men are still at war with hatred, prejudice, intolerance—whether it's intolerance of a man's political beliefs, or of his right to choose between a glass of beer or buttermilk."

From where I sit, the Judge is absolutely right. Peace means continued vigilance—continued struggle against all the forces of intolerance that caused the last war, and can sow the seeds of future conflict. Maybe we should paraphrase the slogan of a Revolutionary hero: "We have only just begun to fight!"

Question: WHY do we have a United War Fund drive, now that the fighting has stopped?

Answer: UNTIL the service flags come down in every home, and the immediate misery and despair of war are eased for war's innocent victims, the job is not done for HIM or for us.

WE MADE a pledge when HE went away. We would back him up at home until the job was finished, and we would preserve and sustain the kind of Home HE was fighting for.

There are vital things yet to be done; the service flags are still in the windows—and the taking care of those in agencies and institutions, is a continuing responsibility.

So, though the fighting has stopped, we have again our War Fund campaign, to finish the job we said we'd finish; to meet the needs we said we'd meet. To make good the pledge we said we'd keep.

WHAT IS the need?

When Germany surrendered, some War Fund expenditures stopped. British War Relief was ended. So was Russian War Relief. So was American Danish War Relief. War Prisoners' Aid was reduced by the number of prisoners released. Later, American Field Service (ambulances) suspended. These were savings. Then the Army asked USO to quadruple its camp shows in Europe for the boys at the front who yesterday had been fighting today we are faced with the war and anxiety about going home. At the same time USO had been asked by the Army to double its installations in Hawaii; to extend its operations into the Philippines. These changes called for substantial budget increases.

WITH German surrender, "happy" scenes were opened in the occupied countries. Not mere misfortune; not mere hunger, cold, exposure, but appalling misery that could not, must not be ignored; that called for first-aid. Here, spending must be increased if despair was to be checked, hope to be renewed.

IT WAS of this situation that President Truman, returning from the Potsdam conference, said: "Today Europe is hungry. . . I am talking about the people of the countries which were overruled and devastated by the Germans. . . As winter comes on, the distress will increase. . . Unless we do what we can to help, we may lose next winter what we won at such terrible cost last spring."

IT WAS of this situation that the New York Times said: "The next twelve months are as critical to victory as the last twelve months of the shooting war. . . Starvation, illness and cold are poor leaders but great powers in the post-war world."

AND SO, even if pity and sympathy were not to respond, enlightened selfishness must respond here. America's own stake in an ordered, civilized world must help, here, toward order if only in America's own interest. The War Fund agencies gave and are giving that help. Not long-range relief; not prolonged welfare work, but quick, prompt first-aid, medicine, comfort—hope.

Japan surrendered, and then?

There were 11 million boys to be brought home, when and as circumstances would permit. Japan, as well as Germany, to occupy. Many problems of transportation and demobilization to be worked out.

MEANWHILE, that pledge of ours, to HIM, to stand by.

The fighting finished, but ahead a long, long trail a-winding into the land of his dreams of Home! He needed aid, and he still needs the assurance that WE have not quit.

The National War Fund directors, carefully surveying needs and possibilities, concluded that the 115 millions asked for the 12 months, as things stood when Germany surrendered, could now be made to cover 16 months, until January 1, 1947—and that this would be the last of the campaigns for the National War Fund (though some of the agencies, with work perhaps then unfinished, might require a further, but independent campaign).

THIS program carefully computes the possible economies foreseen as the war operations come to a close and demobilization progresses. Until the close, USO must extend entertainment at the front; must serve the men at all demobilization centers and at the widely expanding hospital centers. The United Seamen's Service must continue its cooperation to those engaged in the long, trans-Pacific haul of overseas supplies and returning men. The War Prisoners' Aid must stand by for help and comfort until the release of all prisoners is completed. Self-interest, as well as sympathy for human misery, must extend a hand to helpless victims overseas. China and the Philippines now share with Europe's stricken the right to our helpful aid in their struggle back to ordered civilization.

That's the obligation before us now; that, with the annual roll call for our Community Funds and their home-sustaining agencies.

Difficulties? Possibly. Impossibilities? Never!

And who are we to give HIM excuses for NOT finishing the job; NOT taking the objective; NOT planting the flag where it was planned to go? And what would our excuses be?

MAYBE you've forgotten a bit of history from 1918.

In 1918 the United War Work Campaign (same as our United War Fund now) had a drive set to go. Notice the beginning date. It was November 11, 1918. You remember that? Armistice and hallelujah, hurry-it's-all-over, and why should anybody bother about war duties then? But the United War Work Campaign needed 170 millions then (not 115 million as needed now). Because of Armistice they had to start later; a postponement. They had to point out that the job, in spite of Armistice, wasn't finished. And what happened? They raised 203 million dollars, not 170 million. Michigan subscribed $2,550,000, as compared to Michigan's quota of $5,454,392 for this 1945 campaign.

Then, as now, the answer was, "SURE, WE'LL FINISH THE JOB."

The October War Fund Campaign Is Our Faith-Keeping With Our Pledge to HIM

LET US strive on to finish the work we are in; to care for the nation's wounds; to care for him who has borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan; to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and all nations.

Gambling kept him poor!

Canada Bill Jones was known as the cleverest three-card monte operator on the river, back in the heyday of the Mississippi's floating palaces. But he stayed poor, because his passion for gambling was too great.

Marooned in a Louisiana village, Canada Bill found a fero game in a barber shop.

After a few plays, his partner warned him the game was crooked. "I know it," Canada Bill replied, "but it's the only game in town."

Like Canada Bill Jones, you'll find the cards stacked against you, too, if you gamble your car against the weather. When the temperature drops suddenly, driving even a few miles without proper winter-conditioning can cause costly damage.

Right now is none too soon to prepare your car for cold weather. Your Standard Oil Dealer is trained to do the job right. Drive in now, for your Standard Oil Dealer's 10 Star Fall Tune-up.

Return to Charlevoix Amid Wild Cheers

A perfect Indian summer day and crowds of friends greeted Bennie Gill, electrician's mate, second class, upon his return to Charlevoix on Saturday after an absence of six years, during which time he spent more than 3½ years in a Jap prison camp.

Lead by the Coast Guard with colors, the parade, which started at the top of south Bridge street hill, included the Charlevoix high school band and the Girl Scouts followed in a car carrying the honored guests, which included his mother, Mrs. Fred Gill, who had met him at Ludington; his brothers, S/Sgt. Robert Gill, home on furlough from Camp Campbell, Ky., and Albert G. Gill, of Sheboygan, Wis., who was discharged from the army after being wounded in Germany, and Edward S. Randle, Red Arrow Division veteran, now discharged. Members of

THANKS TO ALL OF THE CITIZENS OF CHARLEVOIX

To the people of Charlevoix:

For the six years I was away from Charlevoix, I had dreamed of the day I'd return. For the three years, six months and ten days that I was held as a Japanese prisoner of war, many thoughts of home filled my every waking hour and at night I dreamed of my family and friends back here. When I was liberated on Sept. 13, I knew that I would once again see all those people and places that had helped me through those dark days at Makassar.

Landing in the States was wonderful but it was just another leg on the journey that would bring me home. As I came closer to Michigan, I had qualms about many things I know now were unnecessary.

When I came into Charlevoix last Saturday morning to the wonderful homecoming you had prepared for me, it made everything alright again. It is good to know that even though I was out of touch with all of you, I wasn't forgotten. I just haven't words to convey my feelings but I would like to express my most sincere thanks to all of you from my family and from me. It has meant a great deal to all of us.

BENNIE GILL

the family followed to the family home at 309 Prospect street.

The Gills held a family reunion on Sunday with each member bringing Bennie up to date on almost four years of family and local events. As he says "after being isolated for so long, I feel like Rip Van Winkle must have felt, only I haven't a beard." Those present besides Mrs. Gill were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duff and family of Elmira; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gill and family of Ironstone; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gill and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gill, of Sheboygan, Wis.; Mrs. Vernon Snyder and daughter of Milwaukee; S/Sgt. Robert Gill, Don Gill and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Swartz.

A personal appeal was made and special invitations extended students by a committee composed of Meyer Levinson, Clarence McGinnis, Dr. McMillan and Fenton Bulow when they appeared before the students at the high school building this week.

Harry Hincham, Clarence McGinnis and Meyer Levinson comprise the committee in charge of arrangements for the entertainment.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Couple Here

Miss Betty June Pearl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pearl, became the bride of James D. Woodward, of Detroit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Woodward, of Henryville, Tennessee, at a ceremony performed at ten o'clock Saturday morning at the St. Mary's rectory. The Rev. A. V. Ulunowicz read the double ring service in the presence of their immediate families.

The bride chose a mellow rose dressmaker suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white roses for her wedding.

Miss Donna Bennett, of this city, were their attendants. Miss Bennett wore a pearl gray dress and Mrs. Savic was attired in an ice blue dress. Both wore black accessories and corsages of red roses.

Mrs. Pearl, mother of the bride, wore a bluish gray dress with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

A wedding breakfast for relatives and friends was held at the home of the bride's parents at eleven o'clock. The bride's table was centered with a large wedding cake and bouquets of pastel pompons decorated the rooms.

After a wedding trip to the Tahquamenon Falls in the upper peninsula, the couple will make their home in Detroit.

The bride is a graduate of the Charlevoix high school class of 1943. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Summertown, Tennessee, high school.

Out of town guests who attended the wedding were Mrs. Paris Leland, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Marie Bines, of Detroit; Mrs. Lee Mason and Mrs. Henry Ingalls, of Flint; and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lakies, Romulus.

Economics Group Meet at East Jordan

Will Demonstrate How to Construct Lamp Shades

"How to Make Lampshades" will be demonstrated to the leaders of the County Home Economics Extension groups Friday, Oct. 26, at 10 a. m. The meeting will be held in the Eastern Star dining room in East Jordan.

From pieces of wallpaper and from scraps of curtain, drapery or dress materials the leaders will recover old lampshades or make new shades of the size, shape and color which will fit their lamps and rooms and which will also meet the requirements of good lighting.

It is often difficult to find a ready-made lampshade to fit a certain lamp at a price one can afford to pay. For this reason dark, dingy paper or fabric lamp shades which rob rooms of good light and good looks are not required.

At this meeting leaders of the Home Economics Extension groups will learn to make various types of lampshades.

The leaders are reminded to bring with them the equipment and materials needed for this lesson.

The arrangements for the meeting have been made by Emma J. Fero, Home Demonstration agent.

The demonstration will be presented by Jessie Marion, Extension Specialist in Home Furnishings, from Michigan State college.

Reconversion at Foster Boat

Following is letter, mailed yesterday, to all personnel of the Foster Boat Company, by H. G. Foster, president and general manager:

"You are all aware that the abrupt termination of war contracts immediately following V-J Day has posed tremendous problems for industrial plants throughout the country. The process of reconversion, instead of being a more or less orderly affair over a period of six months to a year as anticipated, has become a mad scramble.

"The two big headaches of management are the winding up of government contract termination negotiations—and the obtaining of materials for peace-time production.

"Government contracting offices are swamped with the details of settling hundreds of thousands of claims arising out of terminated contracts. Each claim is a complicated piece of business all in itself.

"Our claims were filed as quickly as possible—and, at the time, we were led to believe we could expect final settlements within about a month or a month and a half. That time has now gone by, and the best we can hope for is that another 60 days or so will bring final payments.

"All this means that a very great part of our working capital is tied up in government negotiations. We'll get it, of course—but meanwhile we are forced to confine operations to finishing up the 24 Plane Personnel boats and operating the sawmill and our department.

"It is impossible for us to begin producing rowboats, as we had originally planned. The necessary plywood can't be obtained until the mills on the west coast are again in operation.

"It is necessary, therefore, to make a temporary reduction in the number of employees. We are doing all in our power to make it a brief one—but it may be 60 days.

"If you are among those temporarily laid off, we suggest you make immediate application for such unemployment compensation benefits as you are entitled to. This company has contributed

Sunshine Sisters In Special Session

The Ladies Aid of the Church of God met Thursday, Oct. 18 at the home of Mrs. C. J. Fiedler, south of Charlevoix. It was the annual Sunshine Sisters' Tea. Secret sisters were revealed and new ones were taken for another year.

The new president, Mrs. Winn Bambuch, had charge of the meeting and all new officers began their year's work. The devotions were arranged by the vice-president, Mrs. Fiedler, with the subject, "Friends and Their Value" briefly treated by four ladies, Mrs. McGinnis, Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Stephens.

The program was varied and interesting, as the Sunshine Sisters revealed their identity, after reliving an embarrassing moment or special incident in trying to keep their secret. Mrs. Hazel Murray read an original poem in honor of her sister. A list of gifts received also gave variety.

Fancy open-faced sandwiches of many clever designs, iced tea, cakes and bowls of jello provided bountiful refreshments, which were served buffet style from a lace-cloth covered table, in the center of which was a large centerpiece of vegetables and fruits.

Mrs. Bernice Pearl poured tea. Arrangements for the refreshments were made by Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Berg and Mrs. Louelle. Over forty were present for the

Rayders Defeat Jordan to Remain Unbeaten

The Charlevoix Red Rayders remain undefeated and unsevered upon after defeating East Jordan last Friday by the score of 24-0. The visitors came closest to scoring against the Rayders when they had the ball on the local 1-foot line in the final period.

J. Mol received the kick-off for Charlevoix on his own 20 and ran the ball up to the 30. It was impossible for CHS to get past the 40, so Carey punted. East Jordan made no headway either, so they punted also. B. Zietler caught it in a series of first downs, using the ball for a 20-yd. gain. In three plays B. Zietler, F. Martin and D. Brown brought the ball up to the 25 yard-line. After R. Carey had run up another first down, F. Martin and B. Zietler clicked for the first touchdown. The pass to R. Hardy was short. After receiving the kick, East Jordan could not get past their scrimmage line, so they punted. B. Zietler caught it on the 20 and was pulled down on his own 30.

In the second quarter the Jordan boys stopped the locals and Carey punted again. Ayers caught it but was stopped immediately. In a series of first downs, using the old Statue of Liberty play, E. Jordan ran the ball from their own 25 to the CHS 30. Being stopped there, Ayers punted. F. Martin took it and running behind king Hite, Mol and Zietler went over from his 30 for the second score. Carey's kick went wide. Hitecheck got the kick-off but Jordan could make no gain. Penfold punted for the visitors and the Rayders were almost stopped for good, but Carey kicked from the 50. Then the Rayders stopped the Jordanians. Carey took Penfold's punt and brought it up to East Jordan's 20 for the last play of the half.

Officials were Wm. Dickman, Don Stewart and Harold Andreas. East Jordan made 6 first downs while the locals made 7. The visitors used 6 skulls and Charlevoix had 7. Next week our boys play in Harbor Springs. Can you make it?

Cpl. Ostrum Weds Mississippi Girl

Will Make Their Home at Lake Village, Arkansas

Miss Betty King, of Alligator, Mississippi, became the bride of Corporal Merlyn A. Ostrum at an evening ceremony performed by the Rev. T. M. Brownless on Thursday, October 4, at the parsonage.

The bride wore a white satin gown trimmed with lace. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and tube roses.

Mrs. Orwin Hamlin, Jr., her only attendant, wore a dress of white no over floral taffeta and a corsage of torn carnations, rose buds and tube roses.

William H. Bell, Jr., assisted the bridegroom as best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Bell. The bride's table was centered with a large wedding cake. Arrangements of roses and fall flowers were used about the rooms.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Delos Ostrum, of this city, has been in the service for two and one-half years and is now stationed at Lake Village, Arkansas, where the couple will make their home.

Proclamation

Pence has returned, and our valiant Navy and its coordinated sea forces, the Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Naval Aviation, and Merchant Marine, have added nobly and in the American tradition to their long, honorable history. In all of our wars, our Navy waged victorious for justice and for freedom. Many thousands of our men and women in our sea services gave their lives that we might live and continue to enjoy the blessings of true democracy.

Saturday, Oct. 27, will be the 170th anniversary of the founding of our Navy by act of the Continental Congress in 1775. As such, it will be observed as Navy Day throughout the land, by proclamation of the President of the United States.

Therefore I, Robert Bridge, mayor of the city of Charlevoix call upon all of our citizens to participate in such an observance with appropriate celebration. May I request that the National Colors be displayed throughout the community, and that suitable observances be held in the schools and elsewhere, so that appreciation of the services and traditions of our Navy and all its men and women, both living and dead, may be fittingly expressed.

Signed: ROBERT BRIDGE, Mayor

Certificate Presented by Service Organization

More than 100 Gold Seal Service awards are being sent, beginning this week, to local men and women who are serving in the Armed Forces at the present time, or who have previously served in World War II.

Because there is so little opportunity for Charlevoix citizens to express their heartfelt appreciation to their own youth who have sacrificed much to insure the survival of communities such as ours, in a free United States, the Service Award was conceived as a symbol which would convey the thanks of the entire city. Each award is hand printed with the name of the respective owner, signed by the Mayor and Charlevoix Service Organization chairman, sealed with the city seal in gold, and may easily be framed.

In contrast to the crumpled discharge paper which was the only certified testimonial to the service of men and women in World War I, the Charlevoix Service Award was devised as a permanent

YES, WE'LL FINISH THE JOB!

We made a pledge when we went away. We would back him up at home until the job was finished, and we would preserve and sustain the kind of home he was fighting for.

The job is not yet finished; there are vital things yet to be done; the service flags are still in the windows and the taking care of home, its agencies and institutions is a continuing responsibility.

So, though the fighting has stopped, we have again our War Fund campaign, to finish the job we said we would finish, to meet the needs we said we would meet.

To make good the pledge we said we would keep!

When you are contacted, give generously, as this is the last drive for the community War Fund!

Let's keep our pledge!

record of its recipients' participation in the recent world conflict. Conceived more than two years ago, 615 awards have already been presented to those who served before June 1, 1944. The group receiving the awards now, have served since that date. Because of the personal attention each award required, it was necessary to take the time and present them yearly. They will be sent to families of their real owners for safe-keeping, while every man or woman in the service will receive a letter informing them that the award has been made.

It is desired to thank Father Aloysius Ulunowicz publicly for the handwriting of each certificate and Francis Martin for the work involved in addressing and mailing.

The Charlevoix Service Organization is your organization and as such deserves your support in the War Fund Drive now underway so that it may continue to send the Charlevoix Courier, and also continue its other activities until all the Service Flags are taken down.

The Charlevoix Service Award may be seen on display at the Central Drug Store.

Friends Mourn Death of Beaver Island Native

The community of Beaver Island was shocked by the passing of Wm. D. Gallagher, who died suddenly of a heart attack at his paternal home in Peaine township on Sept. 10.

William D. or "Big Willie", as he was better known, was born on Beaver Island the 20th day of August, 1868. He was the youngest son of Michael and Susan Gallagher. Two brothers, Mike of Portland, Ore., and Dan of Petoskey, Mich., preceded him in death, as did also five sisters.

As a man who lived a single and quiet life, his kindly and humorous personality endeared him to a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

A man of unimpeachable integrity, and moral virtue, a devout Christian, and a loyal supporter of the democratic way of life, he was also an ardent exponent of good government. He represented Peaine township on the county board of supervisors for 15 years. Later he was elected secretary of the board of education. This office he held until his death.

Non-resident relatives and friends who attended the funeral and burial service at Holy Cross cemetery were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hartweg of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Ella Bonner and niece, Myrtle Douglas, of Detroit, and Mrs. Owen D. Gallagher of Frankfort, Joseph Schmidt of Pontiac, Sister Mary Clare and Sister Mary Bridgetta of Bay City, William Underwood of Chicago, and Willie Green of St. James.

A nephew, Rev. Ambrose Gallagher, professor of theology at St. Columban Seminary, Bristol, R. I., officiated at the requiem high mass.

His many friends mourn his passing.

Legion Commander Urges Navy Day Observance Here

Asks Clubs, Churches to Participate in Appropriate Observance

Fenton R. Bulow, commander of Leslie T. Shapton Post, American Legion, and chairman of the Navy Day activities, asks the citizens of Charlevoix to observe the day Saturday, Oct. 27 in a fitting manner.

Mr. Bulow has arranged no program or parade, but urges an appropriate observance in churches and public organizations, as well as schools, during the week in which the anniversary falls.

"I believe that all the citizens of our community are keenly aware of what we owe to our Navy and its associated sea forces," Mr. Bulow said. "And with peace so lately achieved, and at such terrific cost in lives and ships and money during World War II, it seems to me that it is especially fitting now that we pay honor to all of our sea fighters in previous wars and to those who have been a major force in bringing to a victorious conclusion what we hope will be the last war in which we ever shall need to participate in order to preserve our peace, freedom and prosperity."

The local concern has been more fortunate than most war plants in that not all of its contracts were terminated on V-J Day. The Navy contract for 24' Plane Personnel boats, although reduced at the time, still called for delivery of 30 boats, permitting continued employment of a substantial number of men.

Food for Those WHO THINK!

Up thru the census of 1910, the city and county of Charlevoix both showed a steady and healthy growth in population.

Before 1910 there was the era of highway pioneering, railroad development, lumbering, manufacturing. The harbor at Charlevoix was full with boats and the community thrived. Mansions, huge hotels and homes were built. Farms were improved, factories prospered.

Then came the era of CONSERVATISM--which is to say MENTAL LAZINESS!

All too many of the communities' leadership developed pronounced symptoms of the Sucker, in expecting and seeking something for nothing; and of the Mark, in expecting the best of everything. The small-time legitimate confidence men, the mercantile and realty interests found it much easier and much more profitable to trim suckers and marks in trade and rental than it was to create and operate enterprise, producing real wealth. The results were:

The railroad ceased to grow!
The boat builder ceased to build boats; instead he was satisfied to maintain them.

The development of industry, that is factories, was discouraged.

The farms began to run down.
The youth were told to go elsewhere to make a living.

One by one the big hotels burned down or were torn down, and were not replaced.

One by one the mansions rotted away, or have been torn down, and are not being replaced.

One by one the workers' homes have rotted away, or have burned down. These, too, are seldom replaced.

One by one the old line merchant and mansion owner have gone into oblivion and those who remain are squabbling among themselves for the steadily diminishing volume of trade and rentals.

Even the annual parade of Kleister Marks, (summer visitors) is diminishing.

Since 1910, under CONSERVATISM, the population of Charlevoix County has fallen by one-third.

Charlevoix County now has only two-thirds of the population that it had in 1910.

Between 1910 and 1940, under conservatism the population of the city of Charlevoix was diminished by 121 people.

Thus you have proven, on a mass scale, that the old biblical saying, "and there is he who withholds and yet his substance diminishes."

Such are the rewards for being conservative—or mentally lazy.

If permitted to continue, the present population trend will cause the county and city to be depopulated, to become GHOST COMMUNITIES.

This population trend can be reversed, but before that is done, every last one of you must make a mental inventory--an analysis of your own thinking and viewpoints. Some of you who pride yourselves in conservatism must change your viewpoints and attitudes.

From mentally lazy some of you must become mentally alert.

Take stock of your resources, if profitable, combine with your competitor, or with outsiders.

Those who are able must create enterprise, to employ those who lack initiative. Don't procrastinate, don't wait for your neighbor to do it. Do it now, if necessary, by yourself.

Your local bankers are sympathetic towards enterprise, soundly financed, soundly run.

The other day you folks had a splendid parade, in honor of a returning hero. The main street was decorated with flags and the band played, and it was proper that your civic leadership should so honor your heroes. But this is not enough.

In the mind of every person who partook of the war effort, either as one of the forces, or as a civilian, is a burning thought:

"What can I do now to earn a living?"

The hero's brass buttons, ribbons and medals; the merchants and landlords will not accept in exchange for food, goods or shelter. The hero and the humble alike now must scratch for a livelihood.

By welcoming and creating enterprises NOW your civic leadership can hold in Charlevoix the returning personnel from the forces, and can bring back the migrant war plant worker. If you put into your enterprises enough sacrifices, work, guts, gumption and initiative, your work will attract to this community strangers and friends who will become year around residents.

It is up to you and you alone to decide whether or not your present class position is to be altered for evil or for good. You have it in your power to change from or to the proletariat, stiff, cockroach, professional, middle, burgoise, or elite classes. Your mental conditioning, reflexes, inhibitions and initiative as demonstrated thru your work and life, determines your individual place in our class stratified society. As enough of you go, so goes the community, the city, the county.

Before you is a simple test of your mental viewpoint: The Locker Plant proposal. Many have shown a progressive viewpoint by taking advantage of the special introductory price, and have subscribed.

To those who took the chance, and deposited your rental money in escrow, with the bankers, congratulations on your sound investment--an investment which will return to you a savings equal to 40% interest.

To those who have not as yet subscribed, you can still reserve your locker by depositing in escrow, with your banker, the $15.00 yearly locker rental.

This is the plan that we began in 1940

• By 1940, Michigan Bell's rural expansion and improvement program had been under way for a number of years. That year we incorporated into it a plan worked out in cooperation with the Michigan Rural Communications Committee, a group of agricultural leaders. This plan called for a liberal amount of free line-construction, and small monthly payments in cases where any construction charges were involved. Its purpose was to bring telephones to more farm families, and a good start was made in that direction.

This is the war that delayed the plan that we began in 1940

• For nearly four years, our fighting forces took almost all of the nation's telephone manufacturing output. Nevertheless, we installed all war-essential rural telephones. Today there are more farm telephones in Michigan than ever before. But line construction and switchboard expansion have not been able to keep pace with the increased demand for service. Now that the war is over, there is an enormous amount of work to be done.

This is when we expect to resume the plan that we began in 1940

• Just as soon as trained manpower, materials and manufacturing facilities are available in sufficient quantities, we will push forward our $13,500,000 5-year, rural expansion and improvement program. We have important new devices and construction methods which will make telephone service available to more rural folks. We intend to construct more lines so there will be fewer parties per line. We plan to bring dial service to more farm families. We are studying special features to make telephone service more valuable. These are but a few of many ways Michigan Bell expects to give better service to more rural people.

"There ought to be a law!"

Every now and then, when I run out of news for the Clarion, I print items about what happened Fifty Years Ago in Our Town. May be a lazy man's way of filling space, but it often makes mighty interesting reading.

Seems like human nature is always repeating itself. Same old prejudices, bickerings, and mistakes. Here's an 1895 politician trying to restrict free speech... a demagogue crying out against women's rights... a local committee raising the bugaboo of Prohibition.

Same old cry down through the years: "There ought to be a law!" Same old desire of one group to force its opinions on another.

From where I sit, it's not more laws we need—nor more restrictions of our right to think, and choose, and live as we see fit. But more tolerance and understanding—more "live-and-let-live" among human kind.

VICTORY LOAN DRIVE OPENS

Tells Experiences As Prisoner of Japanese

Bennie Gill, electrician's mate, second class, was liberated from a Jap prison camp on Sept. 13. He had been held as a prisoner of war for more than three and a half years after his ship, the submarine Perch, was lost early in the war. He was never reported as a prisoner of war and except for a shortwave broadcast over radio Tokyo in April, 1943, no word was heard of him until his mother, Mrs. Fred Gill, received two cables from him on Sept. 24. He arrived here on Oct. 29 to spend a 30 day leave before reporting at the Naval Hospital, Great Lakes, Ill. He still has another year to serve on a six year enlistment and says that he may stay in the Navy.

He is reluctant to talk about life in the prison camp and his treatment under the Japs but he did give us the following story in a recent interview:

"No matter how you put it, it's still wonderful to be home. I keep thinking that someone is going to wake me up and I'll find this is only a dream. I don't want to talk about the last three and a half years but if you will ask a few questions I'll try to answer them.

"When and where were we lost? I'll start from November, 1941 and try and give you an idea of what happened. As you know, I was in Manila then. We were out on a mission and returned there on Dec. 3. On Dec. 8, Philippine time, we were at war with Japan. From then on we were out. In February the coming tower was hit and we could no longer send radio messages. That was why the Navy Department never quite knew when we were lost.

"It was during the battle of the Java sea that we lost our ship. The Japs came after us with depth charges until we thought our number was up. One more charge would have finished us but the Japs didn't know that and they didn't drop it. They left long enough for us, with a great deal of effort, to surface and abandon ship before we scuttled.

Mrs. Hamlin Entertains Blue Star Mothers

The Charlevoix chapter of the Blue Star Mothers met at the home of Mrs. Josephine Hamlin on Thursday evening. At the business meeting, at which Mrs. Leo Carey presided, funds were voted to the Rehabilitation fund and the National War Fund. A report was given on the National War Fund Drive and plans made for a booth at Fairbanks' Bakery on Saturday. Plans were also made to send Mrs. P. R. Rose to the state convention at Port Huron on October 29-30.

Along the Avenue

By The Editor

A town isn't just houses and streets—it's mostly folks. Be one of them.

We like to see people get along—and the sooner some of them get along the better.

It took all the 48 states to win the war. Let's stick together to win and keep the peace, too.

A lot of folks are wondering what they can do to help the returning veteran. If you can't give him anything but sympathy, you better leave him alone. He doesn't like that kind of help.

As pheasant hunting companions during the opening week, Herb Wilson, Glenn Rose and Bob Sarasin proved they could take it—and unload it to the birds. They brought back their limit of a dozen fine cocks.

Deer hunters are readying for the annual trek northward. Many from other parts of the state will be hunting in Charlevoix county, while our local nimrods will be going above the Straits to hunt the buck.

Acc. to Dallas Henry was first to ferret out and report to ye editor the fact that new Ford cars arrived in Charlevoix Tuesday.

They are going to up the price of butter again. It should bring tears of pride to the cow to learn that her product is so fattening to the bank account.

The first 1946 car to be sold went to a war veteran. He evidently has decided to see America next.

President Truman recommends a year of military training for young men after completing high school. At least, a student will know what he's going to do the first year after graduation.

The trial of the Belsen war criminals brings us to tears as they plead their innocence. They were only doing the best they knew how.

The author of "Bambi" died recently. Felix Salten brought fawn and enjoyment to thousands of children.

A soldier, still in Belgium, writes that he hopes to get home soon to get acquainted with his wife again. They had been married only a few months when he left for overseas, and says he, "Even Tommy Manville does better than that."

Another soldier writes that he just finished reading "20,000 years in Sing Sing." "It's a lot like the army," he says.

"A small world, isn't it? On a recent pheasant hunt into the Thumb of Michigan, we had the privilege to hunt with a couple of gents who, when they learned we were from Charlevoix, asked about their friends, the Harry Fosters, Gordon Clements, et al of the Foster Boat company. High in their praise of the hospitality of our local business men were two of the hunting companions. By name, they are known as "Hal" Newhauser and Harry Miller of the world champion Tigers.

Herb Weissinger and Al Young, artists and designers, who have opened their studio here, together with their wives, were hosts at an open house and "Hard-Times" party last Saturday evening. A fine evening's entertainment, including refreshments, were served at the popular couples' Belvedere mansion.

Big time for the kiddies at the New Palace Theatre tonight.

Martin Elzinga Home for Good

Martin Elzinga, one of three men from Charlevoix to be held a German prisoner of war after the Battle of the Bulge in December, 1944, was discharged from the service at Percy Jones Hospital, Battle Creek, Oct. 15, and arrived Thursday to join his wife and family. He has a total of 76 points.

Entering the service in March, 1944, he went overseas with the 106th Infantry in October, 1944. During the time of the Ardennes breakthrough in December he was taken a prisoner of war and held in Germany until his liberation by the Americans in April, 1945. He returned home in May for a 60-day convalescent leave and reported at Miami Beach, Fla., late in July. He has since been stationed at Fort Sheridan, Ill., and the Percy Jones Hospital. He was a private first class at the time of his discharge.

Fowlers Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Horace R. Fowler were honored guests at a surprise party at their home Tuesday evening, Oct. 23, in observance of their Golden Wedding anniversary. Thirty friends and neighbors gathered for a social evening and refreshments. The couple received many lovely gifts and flowers, commemorating the occasion.

On Sunday, Oct. 28, a family dinner was held at the Fowler home with Mrs. Fowler's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Burney, of Grosse Pointe Park, her nephew and nieces, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Welles and son, Randy, and Mrs. William Barry, Jr., of Traverse City, present.

Mr. and Mrs. Fowler were married in Charlevoix Oct. 23, 1895, and have always made their home here. Mr. Fowler was born at Brighton, Gifford-Surrey, England, Oct. 1, 1873. An orphan at the age of 5, he came to Canada when he was 9, with a family, and lived there for four years before coming to this community where he resided with his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cornell, in Marion township. He was in the meat and grocery business for 28 years before operating a car sales and garage business. Later he operated a taxi and bus service throughout northern Michigan. He retired from that in 1929. He has served in many public offices. He is at present justice of the peace, an office he has held for the past 18 years. He has also served on the city council, and as county poor commissioner. He has been active in the Masonic lodge for many years, served as grand master for two years and has a life membership in the organization. He has been associate patron of the OES for 16 years.

Mrs. Fowler, the former Nettie A. Shrier, was born at Arkona, Ont., Can. on Nov. 16, 1875, and came to Charlevoix with her parents at the age of 6 years. She has been active in the OES and has a life membership in the lodge. Both are members of the Congregational church.

The Fowlers have one son, Forrest F. Fowler, who resides in Grand Rapids; and three grandchildren.

County Quota Set at $283,000; City's Share Is $94,333

VICTORY BOND QUOTA FOR THE COUNTY

E. Bonds	Ind. Bonds	Corp.	Total
$104,000	$95,000	$84,000	$283,000
EACH CITY'S QUOTA
$34,666	$31,666	$28,000	$94,333
Last Bond Quota for Each City
$69,333	$46,666	$28,000	$432,000

Ralph Price, County Chairman, is confident our quota can and will be met, as have all previous drives. However, this is not only the greatest drive—but the final one, extra effort will be needed to bring about its successful conclusion. We must keep the Peace! YOUR HELP IS NEEDED—AND NOW!

The treasury department urges this newspaper and all businesses and industries which use newspaper advertising, to support the Victory Loan drive to the limits of their abilities. The Treasury is asking for eleven billion dollars in the Victory Loan in order to help pay for:

Care of wounded; rehabilitation of veterans.
Cancellation and termination of war contracts.
Bringing men and women of the armed services home.
Maintaining armies of occupation.

The possibility of inflation is still a danger. Present figures indicate that the "inflationary gap" between available consumer-merchandise and income will be about $40 billion this year. In addition, Americans have accumulated approximately $100 billion in savings since Pearl Harbor. If this extra money is used for the purchase of Victory Bonds it can provide a backlog of buying power for years to come. If people should try to spend it now before adequate consumer goods are available, chaos can result.

Suggest Adoption of Permanent Farm Policy

A permanent farm policy should be adopted in Michigan, recognizing the family type farm as a top root for economic and political freedom, and that families secure on the land should have parity with other groups in the state and nation, farm union officials declare.

To bring this about, the farm union members believe, the following program must be adopted:

A stated land policy. Land is the basis of life, and farm families are the seed of the nation.

A good land policy will conserve the soil for future generations, building it to a higher state of fertility. It will put in practice policies that will make it possible for the farm hand and tenant farmer to become land owners.

Michigan has a much marginal land which should be taken over by the state and put to the growing of trees. A placement service would catalog all lands so to state of fertility and kind of crops it is suited to produce.

For the breaking up of excessive land holdings and driving out the land speculator, and encouraging home ownership. It is necessary that land held by absentee owners or speculators should be compelled to pay a higher tax rate, a graduated tax, depending on size and value of holdings. At the same time an occupancy and use owner should be exempted from all improvement taxes so that, if he puts a drain in his field or improves his buildings he would not be penalized in the form of added taxes.

DOG OWNERS CAUTIONED

With the killing of more turkeys recently by dogs, Charlevoix County officials will put the "clump" on any dogs found running at large.

Under the law, owners of dogs killing turkeys, sheep, etc., can be held liable for damage.

He was a member of the IOOF. Surviving are his wife; two sons, Elmo, of Detroit, and Ilo, of Charlevoix; six grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and two sisters, Mrs. E. E. Folander, of Charlevoix, and Mrs. Lulu Monty, of Flint.

Funeral services were held at the See Funeral Home at two o'clock Monday afternoon with the Rev. W. D. Wood officiating. Interment was at Brookside cemetery.

The couple will make their home in Charlevoix.

Wagner Resigns

E. D. Wagner, superintendent of the Charlevoix public school system for the past year, last week tendered his resignation to the board of education, effective immediately.

His health is said to have forced resignation from further duties here. Mr. Wagner will take a complete rest, probably extending to January 1, 1946.

The board of education is considering applicants at this time to fill the position left vacant by Supt. Wagner.

The bride is a graduate of the Charlevoix high school and is employed at the local office of the Michigan Bell Telephone company. SOUND MOVIES ENTERTAIN ROD & GUN CLUB MEMBERS Sound movies and refreshments will follow the regular business meeting of the Charlevoix Rod & Gun Club at 8 p. m. Thursday at the I.O.O.F. hall. Everybody come!

The Red Rayders walloped the Harbor Springs team last Friday by an score of 64-0. The Harbor Team consists of seven Freshmen, three Sophomores and one Junior so the veteran Charlevoix team had no trouble in scoring. But Coach Kipke also put most of his second team for the last three periods.

R. Carey, L.E. Hassel, B. Ward, L.T. Standish, I. Manville, L.G. Brown, R. Crain, C.C. Angell, L. King, R.G. Elliott, E. Howe, R.T. Knutzel, J. Mol, R.E. Kishigo, B. Zietler, Q. Davert, P. Martin, L.H. Chellis, R. Hardy, R.H. Lintala, Brown (capt), J.E. Casens.

Bob Carey took the kick from Harbor on his 25 and got as far as the 45. P. Martin took the pass from center and went 55 yards for the first score. L. King kicked back and CHS held Harbor on the 35. Casens kicked, but Zietler dropped it and Harbor was on Charlevoix's 20 posing for a touchdown. On the next play Zietler recovered a fumble for CHS and Zietler, Martin and Brown made first downs up to Harbor's 35. A pass from Zietler to Hardy placed the ball on the 20. Brown brought it up to the two from where B. Zietler went through center for the second touchdown.

Chellis took Carey's kick up to his 30. B. Ward recovered a fumble and on the next play Martin went over for the third tally. Hardy smashed over for the point after touchdown.

Davert took King's kick on his 10 and ran it up to the 30. P. Martin intercepted Chellis' pass and went over for another score, seventy yards behind blocking that would make any coach's chest swell with pride.

Davert again took King's kick determined to hold onto the ball. He stopped by the whole CHS line for three downs. In the second quarter Billy Carey picked up a Harbor fumble and ran to the HSIS 28 yard line. Billy Carey threw a pass to B. Zietler who went over for the fifth score.

Davert again took the kick and ran it to his 30, where HSIS was held. Billy took Chellis' punt up to his 35. D. Brown ran up a first down and a pass from Zietler to Hardy placed the ball on the 5 from where Hardy smashed his way over for the sixth score.

D. Brown kicked off and Davert ran the ball back to the 50 yard line. Two passes failed so Chellis punts which Pat Martin took and stopped on his own 35. Billy Carey ran up a first down to Harbor's 75. D. Brown got to the 25 and Pat carried the ball to the 10 for the final play of the first half.

In the first scrimmage play of the second half E. Martin intercepted Chellis' pass and got to his own 35. Then Martin went over to make the score 45-0. A pass from B. Zietler to Martin for the extra point was good. Score 46-0.

Martin kicked and Davert again took the ball and was stopped on his own 23. Two penalties gave Harbor a first down on their own 49 where CHS held and took the ball on downs. Jolliffe made 9 yards and Zietler a first down on the 25 to get into position for a pass to Martin who went over to make the score 52-0.

Davert took Martin's kick to his own 35. Frank intercepted a pass and started over behind his

Most Farm Fires Are Preventable

Last week (Oct. 7-13) was National Fire Prevention Week, and both farm and city dwellers were asked to check their properties carefully for fire hazards.

Safety specialists at Michigan State college quote nationwide statistics which show that 85 per cent of all farm fires are preventable. These fires can be traced to one or more of the following hazards:

1. Failure to protect buildings with lightning rods.
2. Defective, sooty and poorly constructed chimneys.
3. Sparks from chimneys and bonfires falling on flammable wooden roofs.
4. Defective stoves and furnaces and failure to use fireproof covering on pipes.
5. Careless use of matches and smoking in barns.
6. Improper storage and careless use of gasoline and kerosene.
7. Hot ashes placed in paper or wooden containers.
8. Spontaneous ignition of hay.
9. Misuse of electricity and the failure to replace or repair worn cords and defective electrical appliances.

Correcting these hazardous conditions immediately before the winter heating season starts will prevent many disastrous fires.

Lansing, Oct. 31—Black bears of Houghton and Chippewa counties are asking for trouble, it appears, and the conservation commission may be asked to remove protection from them.

The Blue Haze Sportsman's club of Hancock is recording complaints of Houghton county farmers concerning increasing depredations of the animals. In Chippewa county, sportsman's groups are considering recommendations, to lift the ban on bear shooting.

Year around shooting of hens in Iron and Ontonagon counties was approved by the commission last month on request of boards of supervisors, increasing to five these counties in the upper peninsula where bears are without protection. Other counties are Baraga, Menominee, and Schoolcraft.

Bears also may be shot at any time in Leelanau, Missaukee, Ogemaw, and Bay counties below the Straits.

The W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church are serving a cafeteria supper at the church, Wednesday, October 31.

New Canned Food Soon

Now that the postwar era has become a reality with the downfall of Japan, citizens of Charlevoix county can look forward to dramatic developments in canned foods, many of which were first packed for the armed forces, according to W. C. Stolk, vice president of the American Can Company.

Mr. Stolk said that the approximately 1,056,000 cans of food opened annually by residents of the county undoubtedly will be largely increased with the arrival of the new postwar items. It will be no trick at all, he said, for a housekeeper to put together a three or four course meal by making use of the canned foods she should shortly find on grocery shelves.

Among the new foods he listed are such items as canned hamburger, canned bacon, seafood cocktails and salads in cans, as well as a long list of meats next to a can, among them chicken stew with dumplings, beef and gravy, pork with apple sauce, ham with raisins and honey turkey.

U. S. ARMY RECRUITING OFFICE TO OPEN HERE

Capt. Francis A. Sadowski, recruiting officer for Emmet, Charlevoix, Otsego, Cheboygan, and Presque Isle counties, today announced the opening of a recruiting office in the Charlevoix city hall.

Capt. Sadowski stated, "The Regular Army is now prepared to offer all male citizens between the ages of 18 and 35 who are physically and otherwise qualified, an opportunity to realize their ambition to travel, receive an education and make the army their career if they desire. Vacancies now exist which enable a man to select his arm of service (air corps, quartermaster-corps, signal corps, etc.).

Men honorably discharged from the army who meet the physical requirements may enlist within three months after date of discharge.

A special provision has been made for men discharged under the point system on or after May 12, 1945. These men may enlist any time before Oct. 20, 1945, and still regain their former grade. After Oct. 20, 1945, anyone discharged who wishes to regain his former grade must enlist within 20 days from date of discharge. Men in this category will be given the enlistment allowance of $50.00 per year for the first three grades (master, 1st, technical, and staff sergeants) for each year of service since the last enlistment in the case of men who served in the regular army or $50.00 per year for the first three grades for every year of service in the case of men who served in the army of the United States. Men in other than the first three grades will be given $25.00 per year in their respective case.

Men who are discharged and enlist the next day are also immediately eligible for the enlistment furlough. This furlough may be for as long as 90 days, depending on length of service.

Regular army men may immediately apply for reenlistment in the regular army regardless of their point status. Reenlistments will be in their permanent regular army grade with an immediately temporary promotion to their present grade. Regular army men who reenlist are immediately eligible for the full 90 day furlough and the enlistment allowances. The enlistment allowance will be computed on the higher grade held whether the grade is temporary or permanent.

Sgt. Wm. Barney will be in charge of the branch office in the Charlevoix city hall club rooms. This office will be open every Thursday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. A man's draft status does not affect enlistment.

On exchange of losing the ball on downs, CHS, on their own 35, opened a hole in the right side and Billy Carey went through tackle for 55 yards and the final score of the game. Experiences her for good. That didn't take much after the beating we'd taken.

"It was just before dawn on March 8 when we left her. In a short time all 59 men of the crew, 5 officers and 54 enlisted ship. We were then taken were also aboard. We were taken directly to the port of Makassar on the Celebes in the Netherlands East Indies, six degrees below the equator.

"And when you're that close to the equator it's always hot. In all the time I was there the temperature never dropped below 80 degrees and in the sun, which just poured down, it was as much as 150 degrees.

"Prison camps were set up on the outskirts of the city of Makassar for the Americans and for Dutch and British military personnel who had been captured. We had our own compound and each of the other nationalities had theirs. The only clothes we had were those in which we'd abandoned ship—dungarees and a shirt. Most of us had kicked our shoes off in order to stay afloat, for besides our Mae Wests, we had escape lungs on. They were the last shoes we were to see until we were liberated. What did we use for shoes? It's amazing what a tough 'sole' one can develop in about a year. I got so I could walk on broken glass, sharp stones and coral and on the roads which, when the sun was beating down, were scorching hot. In all the time we were there we were issued five sets of clothing—a shirt and trousers which wasn't much protection against the sun.

"We worked, and what I mean, we worked—from early morning until late at night. We did everything from landing ships, making air raid shelters, cleaning up after air raids, building roads and airports—just you name it. We did it. We were happy to see our planes come over but air raids always meant extra work for us.

"Food? Well, we won't say much about that. It's one of the things I'd like to forget. The first year we were there we had a little meat and eggs now and then but after the Japs started suffering set-backs in the Pacific our diet got slimmer and slimmer and so did we. Then we had tripe and rice and more rice. I don't even want to hear the word again. Along with that we would have boiled 'bam' which is comparable to boiled grass and just about as tasty and nourishing. We did a little tending on the side with the natives and the Chinese but the punishment was so severe if we were caught that we didn't take many chances. We all carried 'lost bugs' tied to our legs and when we were out on 'work detail' we'd pick up whatever came our way.

"The Chinese and natives often brought us cigarettes and food. Many risked their necks getting the things to us. It was through these same people that we got news now and then about the war.

"Among the Dutch held captive were eight Dutch doctors, who were captured with the Dutch forces when the war started. With little to work with, they seemed to perform miracles. One was a wonderful surgeon. In January, 1943, I had an attack of appendicitis but came through it. In the fall, though, I had a second attack and on October 3, he operated on me. Now, having one's appendix removed in a modern operating room back here is one thing, but having it done in a 10x15 foot crude tin shack with 2 100-watt bulbs for light and only the most meager equipment, and supplies to work with, is another thing. I was pretty sick for a while with a stitch infection, but he pulled me through. Later when I contracted a deadly tropical disease, he somehow pulled through that, too. A lot of men owed a great deal to all those doctors.

"The war ended August 15. We didn't know about it until two days later when the Japs told us. We had been living in bamboo harrucks that were in awful condition and they soon moved us into a Dutch military hospital which they had been using until then. One of the boys, a radioman, had somehow gotten a radio. No one knew where he got it or how long he'd had it before the war ended but when it did end, he brought it out and we all listened to news and everything else we could pick up.

"During our captivity we worked at times, in a military hospital. There are a lot of things lying around a place like that and we all picked up what we could. This same radio man who was trying to build a radio set got it working about a week after the war ended so he could send messages to the planes overhead. When our fliers got our messages they dropped more equipment and he made a set that could contact the base at Balikpapan on Borneo. They gave us instructions about various things and dropped food and supplies that we asked for.

"One thing we all enjoyed before we left was the sight of 2,000 or more Nips working night and day to prepare the landing strip for an American plane after an order had come through from the Americans. As soon as the strip was ready, a B-25 came in with supplies and took out eight of the sickest men. The next day, Sept. 13, we left Makassar. Thirteen was a lucky number for me. I was liberated on Sept. 13 by Squadron No. 13 of our air force.

"I have already told you of my rescue. At the time I was liberated, I weighed 95 pounds. Since then I have gained 50 pounds and hope soon to be back to my normal weight of 165 pounds.

"The atrocities? I don't want to talk about those. If you have read the papers you know that there were untold numbers committed against all prisoners. Now that I'm home, I want to forget about them as soon as I can."

Jameson Tavern, 125 Years Ago, Was State of Maine's Birthplace

Just 125 years ago the citizens of the District of Maine, then a part of the State of Massachusetts, voted for separation from their mother state.

At Jameson Tavern, in Freeport, Maine, in January, 1820, the separation agreement was signed by two commissioners representing the District and two the State of Massachusetts. As part of the settlement, the District of Maine obligated itself to pay to Massachusetts the sum of $150,000 over a period of forty years, part in settlement of Indian claims and part for public lands.

Commemorating the establishment of Maine as a sovereign state, there stands a plaque beside the front entrance of Jameson Tavern, placed there in 1911 by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The tavern, built in 1779, included some of New England's most famous sons among its guests. Its register bears the names of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, Nathaniel Hawthorne and William King, Maine's first Governor, in addition to many others prominent in their day.

BIBLE QUESTIONS

ANSWERED BY THE

VOICE OF PROPHECY

INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTERS

Question—Do you still believe in hell?

Answer—"The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God." Psalm 9:17.

Q.—If sin is stronger than I, then am I responsible when it overcomes me?

A.—It is not stronger than God's grace. "But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound." Romans 5:20.

Q.—Who are the "dogs" in Philippians 3:2?

A.—Those impure persons whom the Apostle mentions in verses 18 and 19.

Q.—Did God make Christ die for us, or was He willing to do so?

A.—"Who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father." Galatians 1:4.

Q.—Is this the only world there is?

A.—"Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the Word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear." Hebrews 11:3.

Q.—Were the twelve apostles the only apostles?

A.—Paul was an apostle (Romans 1:1). Barnabas was an apostle (Acts 14:14). Epaphroditus was an apostle (Philippians 2:25 A. R. V.). An apostle simply means "one sent," and implies that he has a vision or message from God.

Q.—Do you believe that what Adam did could affect the whole world?

A.—The Bible says: "Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned." Romans 5:12. But if a man is lost, it will be his own fault, not Adam's. "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Romans 6:23.

Q.—Do you think God actually hears what we say?

A.—He knows what we say. Psalm 139:4: "For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether." It is written in Matthew 12:34: "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." And in verses 36 and 37: "But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned."

Candy and Red Cross Girls Greet Blackhawks

CHICAGO, ILL.—When the train bearing the 86th Infantry's famous Blackhawk Division stopped for an hour in railroad yards here, the battle-weary heroes of the European war swarmed off the cars like schoolboys to receive candy bars, cold drinks and doughnuts from Red Cross Canteen volunteers, and it was smiles all around as these women passed out candy donated by Curtiss Candy Company for the occasion.

The men were on their way through Chicago to Camp Grant, Ill., for processing and inspection before being granted their 30-day furloughs, but for the 700 Chicagoans among them it was a real homecoming as some of them recognized relatives and friends among the Red Cross girls who came to greet them.

in the great Victory Loan!

Sure, we've won the War

BUT THE COST GOES ON!

IT WILL COST MILLIONS TO BRING OUR ARMIES BACK and it's just as expensive as it was taking them over. Meanwhile, thousands of our men who stay behind in occupied territory must receive their pay, be clothed, housed and fed at Uncle Sam's expense.

UNCLE SAM MUST STILL PAY FOR THESE. Although America had already started to cut down on production of various kinds of war materials, the swift ending of the war left many planes, tanks, battleships, guns, made at the last minute, still to be paid for.

WE OWE THEM A RETURN TRIP TICKET TO HEALTH. Today, the rehabilitation and care of over 300,000 wounded are among America's gravest, peacetime problems. This obligation is one which every American can now share in—by investing in the Great Victory Loan.

Americo Must Take Care of Her Own in the Great Victory Loan!

It's too much to expect that the cost of a war which lasted many years can just stop overnight. Although the fighting is over the paying has to go on for some time to come.

So once more it's ALL TOGETHER in America's Great Victory Loan. Start off your own peace and prosperity—and your country's—right by investing in the biggest quota of bonds you've ever bought.

Buying Protection

AS A LAZY MAN'S EXPEDIENT, SOMEONE HIT UPON THE IDEA OF BUYING OFF THE YOUNGSTER PRANKSTERS' HALLOWEEN ACTIVITIES.

Now folks, there are several reasons why youngsters celebrate Halloween by mischief and begging. These are:

1. You have neglected to provide them with creative opportunities to occupy their time.
2. You have neglected to provide them with means of honestly acquiring purchasing power.

Less conservative (less mentally lazy) community leadership has discovered that actively employed youth, with earned money jingling in the pocket, is not out destructively bent on Halloween; hence it is not necessary to buy protection.

All that is required is, that you and you, become mentally active; figure ways and means whereby youths' activities can be channeled to constructive enterprise, and be rewarded by real purchasing power.

Highway departments all over the country are letting contracts for new bridges and highway construction. Next summer most of your traveling will be on detours. But don't worry, they will be well marked. You can always recognize a detour by the blue haze of profanity that hangs nearby.

Kids had a lot of fun Halloween night. We could have enjoyed it too, but we didn't have a haunting license.

Soon it will be ice skating time again. Skating is like everything else in this world. You get ahead by getting up and trying again every time you fall down.

Mrs. "Pat" Ramsey, co-partner of the Melms & Ramsey Hudson dealers, suggests a Saturday matinee at the local theatre as a means of solving the child care problem while busy mothers are doing their bargain hunting. A swell idea. And if enough mothers like the idea, and drop a line to this dept., we will present the plan to our genial theatre manager for perusal and consideration. We might add that other Michigan cities have successfully solved the youngster problem, on shopping day, in the same manner—let's hear from you interested mothers!

Many of the fellows who are in debt got there because they spent what they told the other fellow they were making.

Oh, for the good old days, when you could buy $2 worth of groceries and everyone in the family had something to carry home.

It's easy to pick a smart guy. He doesn't have to get hit up to show it.

A nice round figure is good to look at—especially if it has to do with a bank account.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wojciechowski, who are brand new residents here, were pleasantly surprised by several couples of local acquaintances at their abode on 343 Belvedere Ave., Holloew'en night. The missus entertained while husband, Ben, retired before the guests arrived. We never knew a restaurant prop. to go to bed with the chickens.

Statistical Dept. Phyllis Martin, our very efficient secretary and office girl, reminds us that in the past 10 days 108 new and renewal subscribers have joined the Courier family for the next 12 months. This brings our total reader family to 10,250.

Our advertising department warns us that less than 10% of Charlevoix's merchants are taking advantage of our advertising bargains.

Our classified department finds that a life 35 cent classified ad. takes your message to all of our readers at the rate of 293 for 1 penny.

Community War Fund Drive Lags

County Is $3000 Short of Goal, While City of Charlevoix Lags by $800

The Community War Fund drive which started off with a bang Oct. 24 is far from attaining its goal, county chairman Robert Bridge announced today. "With the city of Charlevoix behind in its quota by $800 and the county lagging by $3,000, an extension of the drive will be needed to obtain the quota," the chairman said. Nov. 16 has been set as the final date in the drive. Mr. Bridge urged all those who have not been contacted to date, to call at either bank where your contribution will be cheerfully accepted. "This is a most worthy cause," the chairman said, "and Charlevoix will come through with flying colors if all unite and give your donation for the needy."

Deer Hunters to Have Better Ferry Service Across Straits

Small Army Expected to Cross This Year, But Highway Dept. Is Ready

Special ferry service for deer hunters across the Straits of Mackinac will be provided again this year and the highway department has arranged for restaurants at Mackinaw City to serve lunches to hunters in their cars when they are required to wait for passage across the Straits, Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler announced.

Last year the Highway Department estimates about 14,500 hunters crossed the Straits, only a slight decrease from 1941, last pre-war year, when an estimated 15,000 crossed. It is expected this year will bring the hunter traffic back to the pre-war figure.

Four Highway Dept. ferry boats will be available for service when the rush of hunters hits the area of the Straits, and will operate 24 hours a day as often as needed. The four ships will be able to provide departures approximately every 35 minutes. A fifth vessel, the car ferry Chief Wawatani, will be called into service during the daytime if conditions warrant, the Commissioner said.

Last year, the longest wait during the peak of the hunters' rush was 3 1/2 hours which is the best record the Highway Department ferries have made during hunting seasons in the past. The Department hopes this year to do as well or better.

If the hunters will leave a little early this year and get across the Straits well in advance of the opening of the deer season, we may avoid the usual peak rush and spread out the hunter traffic so that waits at the Mackinaw City dock may be reduced even below last year, the Commissioner added.

Charlevoix will be well represented with a large number of old time deer hunters "hitting the trail" soon.

Trapper Will Aid Farmers

Rebman Will Receive Complaints on Damage

The Department of Conservation's Preliminary Animal control program, made possible by appropriation of monies by the last legislature, is progressing satisfactorily.

Under this program the Department has employed nine trapper-instructors whose main function is to investigate complaints of damage caused by fox, coyote, bobcat or other predatory animals and to teach those who suffer such damage the technique of trapping. (This will enable those who have received such instruction to take immediate action on future damage). Three trapper-instructors are assigned in the Upper Peninsula, three in the North one-half of the Lower Peninsula and three in the Southern one-half of the Lower Peninsula.

Mr. Ralph Fisk, West Branch, trapper-instructor has charge of the work in this area. County Agricultural Agent Ed. Rebman, Boyne City, is cooperating in the program and will accept complaints of damage and forward them to Mr. Fisk. Those who suffer damage from predatory animals and desire relief should make complaint to Conservation Officer Edward Starbuck, Boyne City or to the County Agricultural Agent Rebman.

Complaints of damage are also accepted at any District Conservation Headquarters or the Roscommon Regional Conservation Office.

Although the program has been in effect in this area since Aug. 1, trapper instructor Fisk is pleased to report that quite a good number of farmers and others have availed themselves of this service and are obtaining remarkable results.

In addition to teaching the technique of trapping to those who suffer damage, Mr. Fisk will be pleased to meet with any group such as sportsman's clubs, 4-H groups, or any other group who may be interested in predatory animal control either by trapping or hunting.

By DAVID HAMILTON

By virtue of winning the final game of the 1945 football season, the Charlevoix High School Rayders are now undefeated champions. They defeated Pellston last Friday by the score of 58-0.

The first score came within five plays after the opening whistle. B. Zietler to R. Hardy for the first one, then R. Carey to R. Hardy for the extra point.

Pellston was completely stopped and lost the ball on downs. CHS took over on their own 48. F. Martin, fumbling a snap from center, picked it up three times. He almost dribbled down the field for the second score. Pass for extra point was incomplete.

L. King's kick went to the 5. Pellston was stopped there. B. Zietler took the punt on the 50 yard line.

King's kick went to the 15. Pellston was stopped dead. A punt went to the 30. Zietler and Martin brought the ball up to the 16. R. Zietler to R. Carey who was in the clear to make the tally 37-0. D. Brown's smash for extra point was nullified by a penalty but the boys put Martin over. Score 38-0.

King's kick went down to the 20 and Pellston lost ground instead of making headway. Zietler took the punt to Pellston 40. After getting down to the 20, the local right end pushed seven would-be tacklers out of the way and Martin made the score 44-0. B. Zietler to R. Carey for 45.

Pellston was stopped on the 20. F. Martin grabbed the punt. The local "11" smashed down to the 15 and Martin went over again to set the score at 51-0. B. Zietler to R. Hardy made it 52-0.

The last quarter the second team brought the ball into scoring position and a pass from W. Carey to V. Olch gave Olch his first touchdown and Charlevoix her last, the score now stood at 58-0.

Pellston was held on the 39 and Billy Carey intercepted a pass on the 40. But the ball was fumbled and Pellston recovered. They drove down to the 22 yard line; the nearest they came during the entire game. The first team went in to stop them and finished out the game.

F. Martin has made a total of 96 points this season. R. Hardy and B. Zietler each 30; D. Brown 18, W. Carey 12, and R. Carey and V. Olch each 6.

Charlevoix high school made 229 points this season, or an average of 29 points a game, or a little more than one-half point a minute all season. That's good.

How to pay for checking account convenience

INDIRECT PAYMENT: Some depositors prefer to carry a balance large enough for us to earn interest that will cover the checking service used.

ADJUSTED PAYMENT: Other depositors would rather carry smaller balances and pay monthly service charges to make up the difference.

DIRECT PAYMENT: Still other customers prefer to have a pay-as-you-go account, maintaining a balance merely to meet their checks and paying for service as it is rendered.

Whichever method you use, you'll find the convenience of a checking account well worth its small cost.

Factory versus Farm: A Draw

Mel Bates and Jud Polk were arguing the other day about the factory versus the farm. Jud has a job in the tool works and Mel grows the best corn in the county.

"Where would you farmers be," Jud says, "if it weren't for the factories that make your plows and tractors?"

"And where would you factory workers be," says Mel, "unless we farmers grew the food that keeps you going?"

Well, they called it a draw, and made peace over a glass of beer, "brewed from golden farmer's grain," allows Jud, "... and bottled and kept wholesome by the ingenuity of industry." Mel adds politely.

From where I sit, we may have different occupations, different standards, different opinions... but we're all necessary to one another. And the more we skip the differences, and stress the bigger issues of co-operation, tolerance, and understanding... the closer we are to a better world.

FRONT VIEW OF 1946 HUDSON SUPER-SIX

The new 1946 Hudson Super-Six, graphically illustrating the completely new front end design, and postwar smartness resulting from creation of a more massive appearance. New lines give the entire car that low-longer appearance. At center, head-lamp level, is the newly designed adaptation of the Hudson triangle emblem, mounted on a heavy cross bar topping the grill, and indirectly lighted from the rear. Bumpers are heavy, wide and very long, and the sealed-beam head-lamps are of oval design, each carrying the well-known Hudson emblem at the bottom. The factory is now shipping cars.

Robert Goss, who served in the Pacific with the 3rd Marine Amphibious Corps, has been discharged from the service with 87 points and arrived home Saturday to make an indefinite stay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goss. Enlisting in the Marines in June, 1942, Bob went overseas in February, 1943. He wears the Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with four combat stars and the Naval Unit Commendation and has a personal letter of commendation. He was a private, first class, at the time of discharge.

Lt. Lorin M. Matchett, of the Army Nurses Corps, who returned recently from overseas duty, has arrived here on terminal leave to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Matchett. She will receive her discharge on January 1. Enlisting in the service after graduating from Butterworth hospital school of nursing, Grand Rapids, in September, 1942, she went overseas in December of the same year. She served in Iran until the spring of this year when she was transferred to France. She returned home from there.

Alvie Alexander, formerly private first class with the Red Arrow division in New Guinea and the Philippines, was discharged from the service Tuesday at Port Sheridan, Ill., and has arrived to make an indefinite stay with his brother, Charles Alexander. He served overseas for 17 months and has the Asiatic-Pacific and Philippine Liberation ribbons with five combat stars, the Purple Heart medal for wounds received in March, 1945, and the Bronze Star. He served on Leyte and Luzon in the Philippines.

G. William Lusk, who served with a Marine Corps detachment aboard the cruiser, USS Louisville, in the Pacific and later on Okinawa, was discharged from the service Oct. 30, at Norfolk, Va., and has arrived to make an indefinite stay with his mother, Mrs. George Lusk. With 45 months' service to his credit, Jack first spent some time in the 32nd Division in Louisiana and served for two months with Army Air Forces under selective service, prior to this country's entry into the war.

After being a civilian for nearly a year, he enlisted in the Navy and was on convoy escort duty in the Atlantic for 1½ years. For the past year he has served in the Pacific and was at Shanghai, China, when he was returned to this country for discharge with 51 points.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY

Question—Will you give some references on the subject of anti-christ?

Answer—Daniel 7:25; II Thessalonians 2:3-8; Revelation 13:5-8.

Q.—Have not the martyrs of the old days gone to their reward?

A.—And these will, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect. Hebrews 11:39, 40.

Q.—Why did Jesus die for us?

A.—He died for our sins (I Corinthians 15:3); and "the wages of sin is death." Romans 6:23.

Q.—If we have faith, do we need doctrine?

A.—"Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee." I Timothy 4:16.

Q.—Where is the text that says a man breaks all the commandments if he breaks one?

A.—James 2:10: "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all."

Q.—The Bible speaks of Ithaca in Palestine, but there are none there. How about it?

A.—They are not there now; but they were there anciently, when the country was largely wooded. I Samuel 17:34; Jeremiah 5:6; 12:8; Nahum 2:12; and many other references.

Q.—Someone told me that Moses could not have written any books of the Bible because writing was unknown in his day.

A.—Your informant is fifty years behind the times. Actual letters, inscriptions, and even whole libraries from Moses' time, and long before, have been discovered. See any good up-to-date book on Biblical archaeology or any modern encyclopedia. Christ said that Moses wrote. (See John 8:46.)

Q.—Does the Bible teach an actual bodily resurrection of the dead?

A.—It does. Isaiah 26:19: "The dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise." Ezekiel 37:12: "I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves." John 5:28, 29: "All that are in the graves shall hear His voice, and shall come forth." Acts 24:15: "And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust."

Ed. Note: Address your queries to the BIBLE QUESTION COLUMN, The Voice of Prophecy, Box 55, Los Angeles 53, Calif. Bible questions of general interest will be answered in this column as space permits.

Men and Women of Charlevoix

Lives of Great Men all remind us,
We too, can make our lives sublime,
And departing, leave behind us,
Footprints in the sands of time.

Footprints, that perhaps another Sailing over life's turbulent sea,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.

Unconscious Mental Life is regulated entirely by what the psychiatrists call "the Pleasure Principle." That is, unconscious mental life is concerned exclusively with the attainment of pleasure and the avoidance of pain. When the unconscious mental life can not obtain a real gratification, it creates an imaginary one. The Pleasure Principle can be seen operating most distinctly in the life of an infant, where it forms the basic motive of every action. The Pleasure Principle comes to life also in adults and is responsible for their refusal to accept unpleasant truths.

Psychiatrists claim, side by side with the pleasure principle, operates the "Reality Principle," the function of which is to adapt the human organism to reality, by subjugating the instinctive needs to rational ends. The Reality Principle, is molded by ethical, social and other environmental influences, which are ignored by the Pleasure Principle. The Reality Principle, or mentpue joquuo ues 'osuoq ju guide the Pleasure Principle, but can not destroy its influence.

It is claimed that the repressed tendencies retain all their power of activity, and continually exercise it, even when the repressed tendencies are buried in the unconscious. The energy of these repressed tendencies may be diverted into other channels, and serves the purpose of socially useful activities. This is known as Sublimation (of Character).

Now Folks - - -

In the foregoing paragraphs, you have been given the reasons why Charlevoix County has lost one-third of its population. The city of Charlevoix also is growing smaller!

For - - -

All too many of our folks have frittered away their substance and irreplaceable time on pleasure, as Bingo, Cards, Gambling, Movies, Intoxicants, and just plain too well fed. All of these are but merely satisfying childish instincts, for pleasure. Others, advancing in years, are entering into their second childhood, with its pleasures, and, all pleasure-lovers are unwilling to face the realities of life and the ending of their life.

Far too few of our people have been willing to subjugate pleasure to reality. These few leaders have realized the need of industry in Charlevoix, if Charlevoix is to survive; and these few, pioneering, have put themselves into business, creating wealth and opportunities as Boat Builders, Commercial Fishermen, Float Manufacturers, Poultry Raisers, etc.

One of the purposes for which this Foundation was created will be achieved when more of our own people learn to repress the pleasure principle, learn to be governed by the reality principle, learn to divert the repressed pleasure principle tendencies into socially useful activities; when more characters sublime are born again, become substantial citizenry, to whom reality is what counts, and to whom "WORK" becomes "PLEASURE"; and constructive achievement becomes joy infinite.

Only the pioneering few are going to leave "Footprints in the Sands of Time." Footprints making the path to opportunity for your sons and daughters future.

Let us then be up and doing
With a heart for any fate,
Still achieving, still pursuing
Learn to labor and to wait!

Trust no future, however pleasant,
Let the dead past bury its dead;
Act, act in the living present
Heart within, and God overhead!

NOV. 21, 1945

AN IMPORTANT DATE FOR THOUSANDS OF ARMY VETERANS
NOW IN CIVILIAN LIFE

Between now and November 21, thousands of Army veterans will reenlist in Uncle Sam's new volunteer peacetime Army. Because—men who have been discharged between May 12 and November 1 of this year and reenlist on or before November 21 will be able to return to the Army with the same grade as they held when discharged.

Men with six months of satisfactory service discharged as privates will, on reenlistment before November 21, be given the grade of private first class.

Men now in the Army who apply for discharge after NOVEMBER 1 for the purpose of reenlisting in the Regular Army will also retain their present grades, if they enlist within 20 days after discharge and before FEBRUARY 1, 1946.

"BEST JOB IN THE WORLD"

These special privileges are typical of the new law recently passed by Congress. Few opportunities for a lifetime career offer as many attractive advantages.

Can you think of any other job that would give you good pay, your food, clothing, quarters, free medical and dental care, world-wide travel, 30 days furlough every year, education and training in any of nearly 200 skills or trades, and enable you to retire with a life income anytime after 20 years' service?

There isn't any! That's why a job in the Regular Army has been called "The Best Job in the World."

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE NEW ENLISTMENT PROGRAM

1. Enlistments for 1½, 2 or 3 years. (1-year enlistments permitted for men with 6 months' service.)
2. Men reenlisting retain their present grades, if they enlist within 20 days after discharge and before Feb. 1, 1946. The same applies to men discharged between May 12 and Nov. 1, 1945, who reenlist before Nov. 21, 1945.
3. An increase in the reenlistment bonus to $50 for each year of active service since the bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service.
4. 20% extra pay when overseas.
5. Paid furlough, up to 90 days, depending on length of service, with furlough travel paid to home and return, for men now in the Army who enlist.
6. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to reenlist.
7. Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service—or three-quarters pay after 30 years. (Retirement income in grade of Master or First Sergeant up to $155.25 per month for life.) All previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.
8. Benefits of GI Bill of Rights.
9. Family allowances for the term of enlistment for dependents of men who enlist or reenlist before July 1, 1946.
10. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater in Air, Ground or Service Forces on 3-year enlistments.

"Thought I would get my two cents worth in and say hello to the folks back home at the same time. Though I haven't gotten any mail since early in September when we left the states, I expect to get some, including the Courier, when we get to Okinawa. From there we will go to the China coast, so if any of you fellows see a confused Liberty ship lettered G-77, come aboard and look me up in the Ordnance Repair Division.

Since I left home a year ago I have spent all my time in San Diego at school and then training on repair of ordnance equipment while waiting for this ship. We left the States on September 2, and we should cross the International Date Line tomorrow. This makes my fifth crossing, twice while at Attu and twice in the South Pacific. The third time I crossed at 0° longitude, 0° latitude at 0° hour.

DANGER POINT

The old fable of the last straw that broke the camel's back is too familiar to need repeating.

But it's worth remembering in connection with your Telephone Company. Some people may say: "Michigan Bell's doing a lot of business—taking in a lot of money. Let's tax 'em—cut their rates."

Michigan Bell is handling the biggest volume of business in history, is taking in more money than ever before. But costs have gone up faster than income. Higher wages, higher taxes, higher material costs—and rate reductions—have cut net earnings far below the pre-war rate, far below the average of other industries.

When earnings become insufficient, you don't notice any immediate effect on your telephone service. But, like the camel's back, there is a danger point—a point beyond which earnings that are too low will jeopardize the quality of service.

Michigan Bell customers want good service. The telephone bill is so small an item in their regular expenditures that customers want really good service even though it might cost a trifle more than they would need to pay for inferior service.

To again provide telephone service when it is wanted and where it is wanted, to give the quality of service you want in the future, Michigan Bell is undertaking a post-war construction program costing $120,000,000 in the next five years. Money to finance that program must come from the savings of thrifty people who are willing to invest in Bell System securities. But, if prospects for future Telephone Company earnings are unattractive compared with those of other companies, people will place their savings elsewhere.

The future quality of your telephone service depends on telephone rates sufficient to produce earnings attractive to investors. Too long a continuation of inadequate earnings would weaken our ability to meet expected post-war telephone needs.

Special Service at Christian Science Church

The Golden Text Taken From I Thessalonians Will Be Appropriate

As is customary in all Christian Science churches, a special Thanksgiving service will be held on Thanksgiving Day in the Christian Science church, 205 Clinton street, at 10:45 a. m.

Following the usual order of service there will be a brief period in which members of the congregation may express their gratitude for healings and other help which they have received during the past year.

The Golden Text from I Thessalonians (5:16-18), will be very appropriate for the occasion and reads: "Rejoice evermore. Pray without ceasing. In every thing give thanks."

The Bible citations include: "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High; For Thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands." (Psalm 92:1,4).

Among the citations from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, will be the following: "Are we really grateful for the good already received? Then we shall avail ourselves of the blessings we have and thus be fitted to receive more. Gratitude is much more than a verbal expression of thanks. Action expresses more gratitude than speech." (p. 3).

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole will leave tomorrow (Thursday) to spend the winter months at Miami, Fla.

Eastern Star Installation Thursday

Mrs. Harry Ladd, Newly Installed Worthy Matron; Nautical Motif Used

Using the nautical motif of "Harbor Lights" and likening the newly elected and appointed officers of the Order of the Eastern Star to a fleet of ships, entering the harbor, Mrs. Harry Walstad closed her year as Worthy Matron at the installation ceremony for officers at the Masonic Hall, Nov. 8. More than 100 persons were present, including members from Boyne City, East Jordan, and Petoskey.

Mrs. Clara S. Webster was the narrator and Mrs. Joseph Smith the pianist as the officers to be installed took their places.

Installing officers were: Mrs. Sylvia Grossman and Mrs. L. Vern Barnes, Past Matrons of Beulah Chapter, Petoskey, together with Mrs. Leo Carey, Past Matron, and Mrs. Joseph Smith of the local chapter.

Mrs. Harry W. Ladd, the newly installed Worthy Matron, was escorted to the East by her husband and son, James. Girl Scouts from Mrs. Ladd's troop formed a column through which she walked. They presented her with flowers after she reached the station.

Officers installed were: Worthy Matron, May Ladd; Worthy Patron, F. E. McMillan; Associate Matron, Marjorie Jean Coleman; Associate Patron, Horace Fowler; Secretary, Mary Feindt; Treasurer, Florence Fox; Conductress, Arline Bedford; Associate Conductress, Lyla Arvill; Chaplain, Gertrude Curtis; Marshal, Alice Gebauer.

Organist, Alice Bellinger; Ad. Alt., Helen Belding; Ruth, Linda Cross; Esther, Matilda Ikens; Martha, Ruth Ann Curtis; Elsie, Jennette Abfalter; Warder, Caroline Sorenson; Sentinel, J. Lawrence Feindt.

Refreshments were served from a long table decorated with autumn fruits and foliage. The committee consisted of Mrs. Archie Livingston, Mrs. Meyer Levinson, Mrs. Harold Withers, Mrs. Thomas Carey, Mrs. H. Sternberg, Mrs. John Shroeder and Mrs. F. F. McMillan.

Charlevoix County Turkey Raisers Preparing Choice Birds for Thanksgiving Dinners

Many Flocks Already Sold to Buyers

Turkey raisers of Charlevoix County will not be at fault this year if a single person in the county and vicinity fail to have turkey on the menu this Thanksgiving Day. Thousands of turkeys—all fine birds—are being made ready for local consumption.

Making a general survey of the 1945 turkey crop, Arlo Wickersham and the writer recently visited farmers nearby and viewed many flocks of fine birds. Ranging in size from a couple of hundred or less, the flocks varied to five and six thousand potential Thanksgiving dinners.

A gorgeous sight, those birds, in the afternoon sun, and rolling hillsides.

We were able to visit most of the turkey raisers in this area, and found that Rudy Korh's flock would total about 2,000; Guy Stutzman also had a flock of 2,000; John L. Ross, 1,000; Hiram Potter, 1,500; John and William Potter, 5,000; Dick Potter, 3,200; Harry Brock, of Atwood, 2,500; Ed Bass, 600; Frank Matchett, also 600.

Robert Matchett is probably the oldest turkey raiser in this area. Son Sanford carries on now with a fine flock of 2,100; Martin Bottsma, 2,500; Frank Bird, 3,500 and William Supernaw and William Wallace, 1,000 birds.

Daughter Anna escorted us to her father's flock over "yonder hill" when we called on Ed Potter. We estimated 2,300 birds in that beautiful flock. (Guessed pretty close, too, to that 425-lb. hog Ed & Son were dressing out).

Over at Ludwig Greiner's farm in Marion Center, we found 500 in a group, ready for the market. Charles Withers; Charles Celler, Jay Adams each have about 500, while Sam Straw's flock numbered about 1,000.

In the Ironton vicinity, Robert Russell has 500; Aaron Brock, 2,000; August Collier, 500; Albert Carlson, 700; Ole Nielsen, 500; the Lochs have, managed by Art Giver, has 700. Eldon Jones has 1,000 and Wickersham, 6,000.

Here are a few astounding facts on feed for a flock of turkeys:

It requires about 80 pounds of feed for each turkey (average 26 weeks). The turkey will average about 19 pounds. A 15 to 17 per cent normal loss results in the process of rearing the bird from the egg to the Thanksgiving Day dinner table.

The turkey population in Michigan this year totals $26,000 or 35 per cent above last year and 78 per cent above pre-war average. National population is 44, 150,000 or 22 per cent above last year and 44 per cent above pre-war average.

National Book Week Nov. 11-17

Library Books This Year Favor Children

National Book week is Nov. 11-17. Miss Florence Milner, librarian at the Charlevoix public library, has announced. The theme of this year's book week, "United Through Books," is reflected in the great number of books on other peoples and other countries. Sponsors believe that making more children today is one of the best ways of insuring an open-minded, thinking citizenry tomorrow.

Perhaps it is fitting that National Education week and Book week are the same dates. "Enlightened citizens for tomorrow" is the aim of modern education, and surely the school and the library have a vital part to play.

Parents, teachers and youth leaders who see the display in the Charlevoix junior library will notice that the selections this year favors young children.

"We, as librarians, believe that if more thought be given to small children, we need not worry about our reading public of the future," said Miss Milner.

Mrs. Leo Carey Entertains Blue Star Mothers

The Charlevoix chapter of the Blue Star Mothers met with Mrs. Leo Carey Thursday afternoon.

The main feature of the meeting was the report on the State convention of the organization, held at Port Huron Oct. 29-31.

P. R. Ross, delegate to the convention, gave the report. In speaking of the work done by the Blue Star Mothers, Mrs. Ross said "Charlevoix would be 100% Blue Star Mothers if we could visit an army hospital. We know what we could do, but when I hear what other chapters are doing in regards to rehabilitation, I feel that our small chapter can accomplish much."

The Blue Star Mothers have purchased a piece of property on Indian Lake, between Orion and Oxford to be used as a home for boys who want to find themselves, at no cost to them. It did me a lot of good to see how chapters responded to the request for funds.

"I visited Fletcher General Hospital at Cambridge, O., where my son, Cpl. Lyle Ross, is a patient. It was hard to pass through ward after ward and see boys who will never be back with their families again, or ever mingle in society. Can we ever do enough for these boys? Everything is done for them but a hospital is not home and everyone of them is anxious to get home."

"The Blue Star Mothers of Michigan have done wonderful work. A few of their projects include the following donations: $3,400 for Walk-a-Chair; $14,650 for Christmas and birthday gifts for the wounded; $13,000 for plastic hands; $2,100, miscellaneous; and $2,394 for Selfridge Field Fund."

Mrs. Ross urged every mother to watch for an article in next week's Courier, and then join 100%.

"Any mother is eligible to join," she concluded.

BOAT LEAVES EARLIER

ARLO WICKERSHAM Proudly Holds "Big Tom"

Roll Call Luncheon Is Held

W. C. T. U. Members Met At Baptist Church Last Friday P. M.

The annual Roll Call luncheon of the WCTU was held at the Baptist church at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon, Nov. 9.

President, Mrs. Guy Smith, presided over the afternoon session. Devotions were read by the Rev. W. D. Wood. The program included a solo, "Alone," by Mrs. Fern Todd and the hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross," by Rev. Wood. A reading, "Mr. Neeley Takes Stock," was presented by Mrs. Eva Ferris.

Mrs. Rose Norton spoke on the topic "The Importance of the Work of the Various Branches of the Organization." She stressed the fact that members should not forget their motto: For God and Home and Every Land.

At this meeting dues were paid for the year and the new membership contest was started. Leaders chosen were Mrs. Ethel Hamlin for Groups 1 and 2, and Mrs. Lucy Molet for Groups 3 and 4. At the close of the contest next spring, the losing side will serve the annual May breakfast.

One of the projects this year will be to send boxes of food to the young members of the organization who are attending college.

Woods Succeed Fisher at Local Lifeboat Station

Chief Boatswain's Mate William P. Woods, a native of this city, has been named officer in charge of the Charlevoix Coast Guard area to succeed Warrant Officer William Fisher who will retire after 33 years' service. Mr. Woods will also be in charge of the local lifeboat station. Robert Ashdon, Boatswain's mate, first class, will remain here as second in command.

CBM Woods enlisted in the Coast Guard in April, 1923, and was stationed in Charlevoix until 1938. Since then he has served at Three Rivers, Wis., Norfolk, Va., and Chienko. In 1942 he went to Grand Haven to open the Coast Guard training camp where more than 5,000 recruits were trained for war service. On Feb. 28, 1943, he became officer-in-charge of the lifeboat station there. When he was transferred here he was succeeded at the latter station by Henry Marsh, CBM, another native of Charlevoix, and son of Capt. Fred Marsh, who at one time was stationed here.

Mrs. Woods and family will join him here in the near future. Mr. Woods is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Woods, well-known residents of Charlevoix.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Alkema and son, Paul, of Chicago, visited Saturday with Mrs. Alkema's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Timmer.

Thanksgiving Dinners?

Michigan Fish Producers Elect Cross, LaBlance

Local Officials Will Serve as President and Sec'y-Treas., Respectively

The Michigan Fish Producers Inc., of district No. 2, met at Traverse City on Thursday evening. At the annual election of officers Willis J. Cross, Sr., of Charlevoix, was named president. George LaBlance, Jr., also of this city, was elected secretary-treasurer and Roy Buckler, of Leland, state councillor.

Claude VerDuin, of Grand Haven, state secretary, was the principal speaker and spoke on the proposed International Fish commission for the United States and Canada to be made up of three appointees from each country. The group later discussed the problems which would arise from such a commission. They went on record as opposing such an organization, because the commission would control fishing in the Great Lakes; the board would be answerable to no one and, since 85% of the fresh fish is furnished by the U. S., they feel that, should such a commission be organized, this country should have a larger representation. The commission would also place regulations on commercial fishermen who would have no voice in the matter. There is also the possibility, they feel, that duty would be removed from Canadian fish and that Great Lakes fishermen would have to compete with them.

Among those who attended from Charlevoix were Mr. Cross, Sr., Mr. LaBlance, Jr., Willis Cross, Jr., Allen Campbell, William Brodin, William McCash, Emerald LaBlance and John Cross.

Regional Convention at Traverse

Episcopal Missionary Who Served in Japan Was Principal Speaker

The annual regional convention of the Episcopal church was held at Traverse City last Tuesday. The Rt. Rev. Lewis Bliss Whittemore, bishop of the Western Michigan Diocese of the Episcopal was present and the Rev. Francis Campbell Gray, missionary, who was introduced by the Japs in the Philippines and Miss Bernice Jensen, of Orangeville, who has been a missionary to Japan, were among the principal speakers.

Those who attended from Charlevoix were Mrs. John Gear, Mrs. Don Swinton, Mrs. August Leitch, Mrs. Leo Carey, Mrs. A. B. Cooper and Mrs. Fred Tyler. The Rev. Arthur G. T. Corteau, of Petoskey, rector-in-charge of the Charlevoix Episcopal church here, and Mrs. Corteau, also attended.

Deer Hunters Off to Favorite Hunting Grounds

Most of Them Will Trek Northward; Few Will Hunt Eastward

With a final check on camping equipment, and a quick glance at the barometer, local nimrods were off to the north woods in quest of the wary "buck." The important and long-awaited date, November 15, will see a small army of hunters invade every good hunting "spot" this season.

Among those leaving from this city and vicinity, we observed Sheriff Floyd Ikens, Percy Edwards and Harry Gregory leaving for their camp in Ontonagon county. They were joined Tuesday by Fred Bergmann and his sons, George and Richard. "Big" is hunting for the first time since 1941.

Milton Block, "Mac" McCarthy, Capt. Alfred Biow, Myke Hamlin, Luce Neff and his son-in-law, Basil Kennedy, of Traverse City, also left Saturday to "set up camp" on the Sage River just outside Newberry.

Martin Pederson and son, Marvin; his son-in-law, Marvin Dixon, and Douglas Livingston were off to the upper peninsula on Sunday for their favorite camp, near Ralph. The three boys were discharged from the service in the past six weeks and are looking forward to a wonderful vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Seatt, Mr. and Mrs. Norm Houck, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Wilson, Mrs. Lois Brown and Miss Clara Gregory left on Sunday for that "special" camp near Ishpish, in Dickinson county. The Glenn Rosses aren't joining the party this year.

Saturday, Bonnie Nickerson, Glenroy Ikens, Clair Staley, Gordon Dennis, Bert Staley, Keith Nickerson left for Ontonagon. They tell us that, now since gas rationing is off, this party won't have any necessity for taking back roads to reach their hunting lodge.

W. E. Goss and son, Boh, who was discharged from the Marines recently; Ed McLaughlan and Jim Fox, Sr., left for their camp near Watersmeet in Ontonagon county.

That party of Dutchmen, Charley, Clarence and Ed Heise along with "Pete" Withers and Clarence Meggison, left Sunday for their camp at Trout Lake.

To their hunting lodge on the Two Heart river, near Newberry, went Frank Courier, Floyd Brown, Ted Cohlent, Kit Carson, Frank Bird, Lewis Brown, H. G. Bird, of Traverse City, and Earl Publow. They made the trip Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Shores, Cass Shores and Timmy Shores left Sunday for their favorite spot east of this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Willis and Mrs. Henry Mason left Monday for Trout Lake.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh.

Only one side to our railroad tracks

Folks who are better off in our town live on the west side of the railroad tracks. We've got a lake there, and the local park, and some real nice land.

There used to be a phrase "from the wrong side of the tracks." It meant what you think... but you don't hear it any more. Not since Charlie Jenkins came home with the Purple Heart, and Willie Wells got the Silver Star. There isn't any "wrong side" of the railroad tracks now!

And that change is going on all over America... where our heroes have come from obscure homes... and greatness has overshadowed wealth and shallow social definitions.

From where I sit, it all comes down to tolerance... tolerance for what a man is and does... tolerance for his freedom and opinions, whether he's rich or poor, likes beer or cider, Shakespear or the comic section. It's a great thing—tolerance!

IT PAYS TO BE A GOOD RURAL LINE NEIGHBOR

If you're considerate of others in the use of your telephone, they'll be more apt to be considerate of you. And today, when there are more telephones per line than before the war, it's especially important that everyone co-operates.

We intend to proceed with the job of adding more rural lines and more central office equipment just as fast as conditions permit. This will enable us to fill the orders of those who are waiting for telephones and reduce the number of telephones per line.

Meanwhile, here are three simple ways you can show friendly consideration of those who share your telephone line:

1. Keep all calls short.
2. Avoid interrupting when the line is in use.
3. Hang up your receiver carefully. One receiver off the hook can tie up a whole line.

Citizens Unite With Teachers

Get Better Acquainted At Fellowship Meet

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 6, a large crowd of public-spirited and cooperative citizens of Charlevoix gathered in the high school gym for the purpose of getting better acquainted with our school faculty and fellowshipping together.

The event was sponsored by the several churches, under the leadership of their respective pastors. Rev. W. D. Wood, president of the Ministerial Union, ably presided.

Mrs. Walker Miles acted as chairman of the refreshment committee. Director Fred Frank presented his band and glee club in several pleasing numbers. Principal Harry Bingham presented the members of the high school faculty, and Miss Milner, principal of the elementary department, presented the members of the faculty under her supervision.

President Wood then presented the several pastors of the supporting churches.

At the close of the program, dainty and appetizing refreshments were served by the pastors' wives, under the supervision of Mrs. Miles.

A very profitable evening was enjoyed which was an added contribution to the welfare of our homes, churches and schools.

There is an urgent need for similar gatherings in which the understanding and interest of the patrons can be nurtured and increased.

American Flag Presented VFW

Local Post No. 1153 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, last week received two distinctive flags. The first was presented at the regular bi-monthly meeting, November 8, by Mrs. Mae Bugbee, president of the U. A. R. Baxter Relief Corps, No. 173. The flag is well over 50 years old.

Another flag was presented by Bud Heise. It too, was distinctive, but less honorable. The flag is a German Swastika and "Hud" explained that it was taken from the German liner "Europa" when that ship was taken over by the Americans at Bremerhaven, Commander Sam King received the flag in behalf of the local post by appropriately spitting and wiping his feet thereon, much to the satisfaction of members present. The local post decided to keep the flag as a war trophy.

The American flag has "soldiers and sailors flag" printed upon it and was originally the flag of the G. A. R. Baxter Post, No. 119. The flag has draped the coffin of each Civil War veteran who has been buried in Charlevoix and was carried in the annual Memorial Day services by the Baxter Relief Corps until the Corps was disbanded. The local VFW Post accepted the flag and adopted a resolution whereby the memorable and honorable flag will again be carried in each Memorial Day service by the local VFW Post.

Because Thanksgiving Day falls on the post's next regularly scheduled meeting date, there will be no meeting until Dec. 13. At that time a business meeting will be followed by a dinner served by the Women's Auxiliary of the post. All members, new and old, and prospective new members of the local post, are invited to attend the affair.

71 Delegates Attend Convention Here

50 Local Unions Were Represented at Meeting

The 12th annual convention of the Michigan Farmers Union was held at the Charlevoix high school gymnasium on Thursday and Friday, S. P. Martin, of Stanton, state president, was named chairman of the convention and John Ball, of Cedar Springs, secretary. Seventy-one delegates and alternates from 50 local unions were present.

In his opening speech, Martin told the delegates that "The common people, who work in shops, offices and on the farms, can protect their interests only by organizing. They can gain their objectives first by forming unions and then by co-operation through the unions in a common economic and political front."

Price stability is one of the leading problems facing the farmer today, Martin added. The question as to whether the price to the farmer can be maintained in the post-war period is top in any program for the farmer.

"We also need full recognition of the principle of taxation, according to the ability to pay," Martin said.

He also stated that "The Michigan Farmers Union recognizes the necessity to build co-operatives as the answer of free men in building economic democracy."

David Leep, of Shelbyville, secretary of the state organization, in addressing the delegates charged that never has the family type farmer needed so desperately a strong and active farmers union than it does now.

"The lag landowning aristocracy, which constitutes 12% of our farmers and who are receiving 85% of our national farm income, and the manufacturers are opposed to a program of abundance through full employment, full production and full development of all our resources. They insist upon a program of scarcity, controlled production and plentiful, cheap labor available at all times. They have no concrete proposal for strengthening the farm price support program," Leep asserted.

At the business session on Friday, S. P. Martin was re-elected president of the organization.

C. A. Graham, of Belmont, was re-elected vice-president and David Leep was named secretary-treasurer for a second term. Mr. Martin was elected delegate to the national convention and Carl Witte, of Ludington, was named alternate.

Devere Bordine, of Waltz, Omer Hacterman, of Hermansville, and Rex Stuart, of Grant, were re-elected to the board of directors. Peter Pyle, of Holland, was the only new member elected to the board.

Resolutions passed in Friday's sessions were:

1. The Union officially protested the termination of dairy subsidies until there are definite prices at 100% parity determined by cost of production.

2. They oppose compulsory peacetime military conscription including compulsory training in high school.

3. They advocate priority for ex-servicemen in buying surplus army goods and equipment and that they not be restricted by red tape nor should they be charged exorbitant prices.

4. They request public announcement of floor and ceiling prices for farm products far enough in advance of harvest to aid farmers in sale of products.

5. They demand transportation of all pupils in grades not being taught in their own schools be paid by state.

Whereas the success of this convention has been due in large measure to the use of the fine facilities of the Charlevoix High School, to the fine music furnished by the orchestra and choir of the Charlevoix High School, to the courteous and efficient provision of housing facilities by the Charlevoix Board of Commerce, to the untiring work of the Farmers Union Convention Committee of Charlevoix county.

Be it therefore resolved that this convention officially and gratefully thank the Board of Education of Charlevoix, the Charlevoix Board of Commerce, Mayor Robert Bridge, Fr. A. V. Ulanowicz, Rev. W. D. Wood, Mr. Joseph Stutzman, Mr. Elmer Lyons, and other Farmers Union members and officers who worked to make this convention a success.

They deplore the trend to appoint boards to transact public boards and commissions, opposing such tendencies as undemocratic.

They feel that state commissioner of agriculture should be responsible for action on farm policies instead of state board of agriculture. Such a policy would eliminate "passing the buck" from one committee member to another, making it possible to place responsibility or blame on one individual rather than a committee.

They oppose extension employees (county agents) taking part in organizing farm bureaus, as they are paid by taxpayers and should not take part in organizing.

They oppose the sale of REA co-operatives.

They favor an agricultural relations act enabling representatives chosen by farmers to collectively bargain with representatives of buyers and processors once each marketing season, or, oftener if necessary, as to prices and grades.

They want the repeal of the uniform tax clause in Michigan state constitution.

They are in favor of maintaining rural elementary school systems.

Dallas Henry First to Report Shooting Buck

With only a partial report from local hunters, who are hunting deer in the Northwoods, indications are that a record number will fall this season.

Frank Olesky got a 6-pointer the first day of the season at Mott. Ray Shearer, hunting near Grayling, reports a 6-point buck. Charlie Humlin got a nice one near Oyster Bay Saturday.

Ben Drost, hunting near Wolverine, shot a big 11-pointer. Ed Lakies and Hal Davy, in the same hunting party, near Vanderbilt, each got a nice buck.

"Dad" Henry is the first hunter from Charlevoix to report a buck. Art Staley, who is with a party in the upper peninsula, reports a kill. Pete Withers and Ed Heise, in the same party at Trout Lake, each have a buck. We understand this is Pete's first buck.

Ted Colditz, hunting in the Two Hearted river area, has a buck bear. There's no report on the size or weight. This is Ted's second bear in the last few years.

Karl Kohler killed an 8-pointer over the week-end at a camp near Seney.

Archie Balch got his buck the first day of the season, near Charlevoix. John Fratrik and Gordon Neff, hunting near town, were also among the lucky hunters to bring home a buck piece.

Other hunters who have taken to the woods for the deer hunting season, are Hal Davy, Ed Lakies, Harold Pearl and Earl Smith, who are at Wolverine.

Harry Waldstad is at the Hiawatha Club in Mackinac county. Mrs. Waldstad plans to get a few days of hunting in when she goes after him next week. Franklin Austin, of Lainsburg, former resident, is also at the club.

Ray Shomer and J. C. Marshall have joined a party of hunters from southern Michigan, near Grayling.

C. A. Leslie joined a party of friends from Battle Creek at their camp near Mancelona.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Maxson are spending some time at their favorite hunting grounds near Mancelona.

Arnold Copeland and son, Graydon, are hunting "over East". R. T. Davis and his brother-in-law, Harold Taylor, of Harbor Springs and George Wood of Pontiac, a former resident, joined a party east of Atlanta.

William Higgins is with a party from Boyne City on the Black River in Maitland county.

Louis Mosier is hunting near Mott in the upper peninsula. Mr. and Mrs. Anne O'Neill and their sons-in-law, Glen Penherton and Ken Balch, are hunting near Trout Lake. Mrs. Penherton and Mrs. Balch will join them on Thursday.

Local Masons Treat Ladies to Turkey Dinner

Charlevoix Masons and wives enjoyed a pre-Thanksgiving dinner at the Masonic hall Friday night, Nov. 16.

Roast turkey with all the trimmings was served to the 120 persons in attendance. Games were enjoyed after the delicious meal.

From last reports many are still suffering from Turkeyitis.

Wives of Masons had a turnout at this affair—the husbands prepared and served the meal and otherwise made the fair sex happy and contented.

Teachers Enjoy Short Vacation Over Holidays

With the closing of the schools for the Thanksgiving holiday week-end, several members of the faculty will be leaving Charlevoix for a short vacation. Thanksgiving Day - - - 1945

Let us be thankful that we attained a decisive Victory—that freedom and decency still live—that America was untouched by destruction—that we had a united will to carry on—that we had leaders of great vision—that we had men and women of courage! This Thanksgiving Day, above all others, let us remember that we have much to be thankful for.

New Ownership For Bob's Place

Ray Seymour and Lyle Wiggin are the new owners of the Arcade Cigar Store, formerly Bob's Place. The new owners took over Nov. 13.

Both men were formerly with Buick Motor company, in Flint, until recently. They will maintain the best possible service to patrons, and plan to enlarge the business by adding ice cream in the near future.

Bob Sarasin, who operated the business for the past year, has no immediate plans for the future—at least until after next season. The former owner is now in the upper peninsula where he will remain for the duration of the hunt.

News Bits Gathered in the Lighter Vein By THE EDITOR

Don't get yourself all carried up by Thanksgiving. Take it easy on the highways.

We told the youngster one evening that he ate like a little pig. It didn't help matters any when he told us later that a pig is a hog's little boy.

Much interest has been manifested regarding the matinee theatre program Saturdays, but more is needed to "put it over."

And here's one for Ripley—It rained turkeys along the avenue Tuesday afternoon. Percy Durance will testify to the authenticity of the above statement, for he gathered in a fine 14-lb. bird, which "just came down from the sky." The bird, by the way, is gracing the dining room table of the Durance family—we hope!

It takes five years for a tree to produce nuts, according to an article. This, however, isn't true of family trees.

The war department has announced the release, as surplus, of 80,000,000 pounds of butter—about 10 pounds to every man, woman and child in the nation. Whether the butter is fit to eat remains to be determined, but it will reach consumers around the Christmas holidays.

A gent-out west, who called his wife "my little sugar," has just wound up paying her a lump sum.

"Higher Wages Only Road to Nationwide Prosperity," says a news item. If paying the neighbor boy 75c an hour to mow the lawn is an example, we're on the right road.

If you didn't get a book of matches with your last purchase of cigarettes, go ahead and ask for them. The OPA, bless 'em, has reminded retailers that if they are holding out on customers they are violating one of its regulations.

War Manpower Commissioner McNutt claims women won't return to kitchens now that they have acquired skills from war jobs. Women have learned that those three sweet words, "I love you," can't hold a candle to "Enclosed find check."

Advertising is news, too—the best news for bargain hunters!

"Labor should have a 7-hour day," says a writer. Many a farmer would like to have a 7-hour night.

A glance at the new cars now on display indicate no great change over the last models. And judging by the number of accidents on the highways, the same is true of the drivers.

Radio comedians are fellows who get paid for something they ought to be shot for.

While deer hunting one day last week, we stopped off to see Fred Conn and the Missus, and their beautiful lodge in the Northwoods near Indian River. Genial Fred showed us around, and then escorted us to a secluded spot, deep in his private section, where we saw thousands of speckled trout playing in the end waters of the brook—many of them would test to the limit an average fly rod! And hospitality—well, you city fellows can have your "Southern Hospitality", but for me, well I'll take the Northern.

DO YOU WISH TO SEND GREETINGS TO BOYS AND GIRLS IN SERVICE OVERSEAS?

Any citizen or merchant who has not already designated his willingness to send a greeting to our boys and girls in the armed services may do so by calling the Courier, phone 2, and ask for Mr. Forbes.

Henley Gives 1946 AAA Program

Walter H. Henley, chairman of the AAA farm program here, tells of new plans to help farmers. He said:

"The end of the war with its urgent demands for all-out farm production sounds a note of caution for farmers to take inventory of their most important capital asset—their land. Unless we conserve the productivity of our farms, we will jeopardize the bedrock foundation for lasting post-war prosperity. The 1946 program has been planned to provide this assistance.

"Special emphasis will be placed on the application of fertilizer and lime. Much of the nation's soils have been leached of their calcium and phosphorus. Farmers in Michigan increased their use of lime by six times and of phosphate by nine times, since assistance for these practices was first offered in 1936. Using these and other program practices, farmers are improving their soils, getting better crop yields, and slowing erosion. There is also need for the planting of more legumes, green manure, and winter cover crops on many acres of land which were plowed up during the war. This land must be brought into a system of cropping which will protect it against the dangers of water and wind erosion. The 1946 AAA, like previous programs, is flexible to meet specific needs of farmers in all parts of the state. The program will vary by counties according to climate, topography, type of farming and conservation needs.

"During the first week of December, Charlevoix county farmers will elect community and county AAA committees who will assist in the administration of this new 1946 program. The time and places for holding these meetings will be announced next week. Every farmer is urged to attend the meeting held in his township."

Report on Red Cross Activities

The annual meeting of the Charlevoix County Chapter of the American Red Cross, which was held recently at the city hall here, was attended by 17 directors and members. Following is the report of the meeting:

Minutes were read, after which the treasurer's report, given by Miss Ethel Crowell, showed a balance on hand of $4,389.93.

Report of First Aid Chairman George Hemingway was given. Attempts to start first aid classes were unsuccessful, but accident prevention classes will be given in the county. George Peres, who represented Charlevoix county, gave a report on his trip to Camp Mitiga, Iowa.

Mrs. Elsiebeth Robertson, home nursing chairman, reported cancellation of plans for home nursing classes due to difficulty of sending teacher to required training class, and of organizing classes here.

Mrs. Alton Campbell, production chairman, reported that 182 garments consisting mainly of soldier knitted articles were shipped in May. Materials for 288 kit bags were ordered but never arrived. Only production materials now on hand are 75 pounds of army yarn, and material for quilt tops and gingham for blouses. No surgical dressings have been made since December, 1944.

Mrs. Helen Rothenberger, junior Red Cross chairman, reported collections of $350 among junior members. Juniors' activities have included making cotton washcloths and recreation materials such as cribbage boards, making holiday decorations for use at the coast guard stations at Charlevoix and Beaver Island, and the girls entertained last Christmas at the county farm and gave gifts to the inmates. Charlevoix summer children raised $60 from two entertainments given this year. A contribution will be made to the National Children's Fund.

Great increase in home service work was reported by Miss Ethel Crowell, who stated that cases now average 150-250 per month as compared to 50 per month a year ago. Furlough extensions and requests for discharges are a major part of cases. Loans to servicemen and families also is a major item in home service work.

Officers nominated and elected were: Chairman, Mrs. Wilbur Robertson, East Jordan; 1st vice chairman, Mrs. John Porter, East Jordan; 2nd vice chairman, Mrs. Claude Knight, Boyne City; 3rd vice chairman, Mrs. E. J. Edwards, Charlevoix; treasurer, Ethel Crowell, East Jordan; Directors, Mrs. Guy Watson, East Jordan; Mrs. Ed. Starbeck, Boyne City; Mrs. Ralph Price, Ironton.

Mrs. Kreighoff resigned as chairman after three years service and will be home service chairman and field worker for the county.

Couple Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Smith will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Friday at their farm home four miles west of Ellsworth with open house from 2 to 5. They were married Nov. 23, 1895, at Ellsworth by the Rev. A. A. Wall, and have lived in this vicinity since then.

Mr. Smith, who will be 63 on Dec. 7, was born at Kemp, O., the son of William and Mary. Farnham Smith and came to Antrim county at the age of 14. In addition to operating his farm, he formerly served 15 years as Banks township road commissioner.

Mrs. Smith, who will be 68 on Dec. 5, was born Rachel Rogers at Memphis, O., the daughter of Hiram and Eliza Hinkins Rogers, and came to Antrim county at the age of 5 with her parents. The couple have three daughters, Mrs. Isabelle Vandenberg of Detroit; and Mrs. Merion Best and Mrs. William Petter of Ellsworth; 17 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The Charlevoix United War Fund campaign, in this city, is approximately $2,000 short of its goal. East Jordan and Boyne City, however, have exceeded their quotas. Many of the townships have not reported and it is hoped that a much more vigorous effort will be made in this area to reach the assigned quotas.

The organization is handicapped by the fact that many areas have not yet turned in reports. All town and township chairmen are urged to turn in their money at the nearest bank in East Jordan, Boyne City or Charlevoix, at frequent intervals, so that progress on the campaign can be checked. It is not necessary to wait until the job is completed before making the report.

It is noted that 80 per cent of Charlevoix County boys are still in service. Let's finish the job—bring them back sooner.

Dorothy McCann Presents Program

Last Friday evening, Miss Dorothy McCann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland McCann, of Beaver Island, presented the following program at the home of her teacher, Mrs. Russell Palmer.

"Jennie with the Light Brown Hair," vocal by S. Foster. "Carmina," song, tone picture. "Rose Petals," piano by Paul Lawson. "Skyrockets," piano by Edna Mae Burnham. "Finding Fairies," piano by Sidney Forrest. "Some Day My Prince Will Come," song by S. Churchill. "Dancing with My Shadow," song by Harry Woods. "Dark Eyes," piano arrangement by B. Wagner. "A May Day Strid," piano by T. Lieurance. "The First Violin," piano by T. Lieurance. "A Winding Road," song by Louise E. Stahs. "Times Roses," song by K. Barry. "Dance of the Rosebuds," piano by F. Keats. "The Star Spangled Banner," piano arrangement by Boris Berlin.

Mrs. Palmer gave Dorothy a bouquet of yellow mums presented by tiny Kay Wilmut.

The guests were Dr. Litzemburger, Dr. Regnolds, Dr. Palmer, Mrs. Nova Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Spaulding, Mrs. Gust Melike, and Huntis, Mrs. Grace McCann, Mrs. Ann McCann, Mrs. B. Allen and daughter, Louise. Mrs. Arthur Miller, Mrs. M. Cull, Mrs. Bert McDonough, Mrs. James Gallagher Jr., Mrs. Jones Gallagher Sr., and daughter, Mrs. Burnham, Jimmie Gibson, Victor Gibson, members of Mozart and Melody Club.

As a prelude to the recital, Mrs. Spaulding played violin selections. Refreshments were served.

Red Cross Director Speaks to Students

Charlevoix East Jordan, and Boyne City schools were honored in having Miss Zelma Burks, director of Michigan's Junior Red Cross, speak to students Friday of last week.

Miss Burks, who is an authority on Junior Red Cross organization and activity, told students of the extensive program carried out during the war and emphasized the importance of an even greater production schedule this year and next. Miss Burks explained that the request from the Army for comfort articles, holiday favors, recreational items, etc., to be enjoyed by servicemen in hospitals, is far greater than in past years.

Youngsters of grade school and students of junior high were especially enthusiastic about the coming program for Charlevoix county.

It is anticipated that the quota of production accepted by this county will not only reach the goal but go far beyond it.

Articles in woodwork, a large request from the Army, will be made by students of manual training classes, i. e., cribbage boards, writing boards, lip boards, etc. Sewing classes will make bath cloths, utility bags, bedroom slippers, and many other useful articles for patients. Youngster Red Cross members will decorate paper napkins in holiday designs, make nut cups, and a variety of other favors to be used at holiday time.

Needed: $1,000,000 worth of equipment in every farm county! Jobs!

Big demand for one-man combines will make factory jobs.

Many farmers will buy one-man hay balers. More jobs!

One-man ensilage harvesters will add to jobs in factories.

Making Postwar Jobs—With Farm Equipment

How many jobs will there be for men and women released from military service—and from war industry? No one can say, exactly. But this much we know:

Business management, in scores of industries, has long since laid plans to meet quickly the tremendous, pent-up demand for goods of all kinds—and to introduce new products and services that will make jobs by the thousands by creating new demands.

Take the farm-equipment industry. Right now, there is a critical demand for standard farm implements of all kinds. Nearly a million dollars' worth of equipment is needed in every farm county! Making this equipment will make jobs for thousands, in mines, mills, and factories.

And a great new force for job-making is in the new developments by farm-equipment manufacturers. Among these developments are new ensilage harvesters that cut standing corn and make it ready for ensiling in one simple operation. New combines that harvest and thresh wheat without backbreaking toil. New machines that pick corn, pick up and bale hay, dig and pick up sugar beets. Machines that not only mean easier, better, more diversified, more productive farming—but also new jobs in industry.

The farm-implement industry is but one of many along the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Nickel Plate, and Pere Marquette, that are going full speed ahead putting their plans into operation, now that Victory has been won.

Opportunities In Charlevoix For Those Willing

Many have asked us to make for them, jobs, opportunities, etc.

To our way of thinking, the opportunities are here, the jobs can be created, but, you must help yourself.

Our Creator has endowed this region with excellent natural advantages. Fresh pure air, an abundance of pure cool fresh water; all around you are undeveloped opportunities in trade, industry, transportation, jobs for millions. Underfoot is an unexplored, undeveloped source of mineral wealth.

All too many are looking to the other fellow to do something about it. Yet your future is determined, often, by your actions.

In the past, Charlevoix's God given advantages, have been used only as Sucker Bait, to lure Kleister Marks to town for a trimming.

Yet geologists claim under your feet is the same salt bed that has made Midland (Dow Bros.); and Wyandotte, (J. B. Johns) and others famous. You have the same Limestone that made Petoskey Cement. Your clay makes durable bricks and tile, equal in quality to Grand Ledge products. Your Marl and Clay make a natural cement, equal in quality to the best.

Your worthless blow sand can become glass-ware, your undeveloped iron may prove workable. Your gravel and cement makes concrete building blocks and sewer tile. The trunks and treetops from your cutover land becomes charcoal, acetic acid, and creosote. Your limestone can be made into lime, fertilizer, building aggregate, rock-wool heat insulation. The oxygen of your air can be bottled and is saleable. The nitrogen can be fixed into fertilizer. Thru the aid of your locally made fertilizer, your run down farms could again become prosperous. Your pure water can be bottled and sold in distant places. Even the cold of winter and the heat of summer are assets, if you will but use them as such.

On the lakes and overhead, thru the air, are opportunities in travel. Thru the vast void of interstellar space are opportunities, jobs of the future in transportation, trade and industry, and these opportunities can be made to start from Charlevoix.

Your community needs a Greenhouse to raise fresh vegetables all year around. Cheaper coal is needed, and can be supplied when one of you buy a "Junker" government boat and bring the coal by boat, via lake and river, from mine to Charlevoix's needed coal dock. That engine under your auto hood is wasting 85% of the fuel (gasoline) you feed to it. Your local power plant diesel engines are wasting fully 65% of the heat energy (fuel) your engines put into them. This can be improved.

Your playboy sportsman would like amphibian automobiles. A lot of customers would like the local merchants to get some clothing in town for sale. Why not some of you put in knitting mills, and suit and dress manufacturing plants? Your local saw mill wastes as firewood and sawdust can become newspaper paper, wrapping paper and Bangs and blotting paper, envelopes, etc.

There are many other opportunities besides these. Every opportunity makes jobs, homes and business for the merchants and tradesmen; and lightens your tax burden. A growing community creates opportunities for builders, contractors, skilled tradesmen.

In all of this future there is only one missing element. That missing element is the role you will play. Will you become just another stiff out at Brookside, or will you become a pioneer, a leader, an industrialist leaving footprints in the sand of time, and setting the example for others to follow?

"I do, however, miss the Courier very much and because of my extensive traveling I haven't seen one in the past six weeks. I have finally settled down in the steady routine of my occupation duties. At present I'm working in the operating room as a surgical technician in this hospital, and am grateful to the army for the opportunity they afford me in gaining such knowledge in the field of medicine and surgery.

"But enough about me now. Here is my new address and I would appreciate it if you would send the Courier to me here. Sgt. Irving L. The patriotic buyers not only helped celebrate our total victory but also received Adam Hat Gift Certificates with each bond purchase.

ROY VICTORY SONGS

It's Big-It's Beautiful-It's BUICK

THIS, we reasoned, is no time to offer folks a car that stops with artful face-lifting.

It has been nearly four years since our last new Buick was built — it wouldn't be shooting square now to give you less than our honor-bright best.

So we overhauled our whole factory to advantage it with the latest in war-developed machines and processes.

We scoured the country for the stoutest metals anyone can buy today.

We set ourselves precisions that in some cases exceed those of aircraft engine production.

And we eagle-eyed every one of this Buick's 12,000 parts to see if it could be bettered in any way, big or little.

The result is that through every stunning inch of this bright new honey runs solid, dependable Buick character, honest and uncompromised.

It's in swift clean lines. In seats that are three-persons wide. In stout, time-defying frames and underpinning. Above all — in the lift and life of a Fireball straight-eight that's even livelier than in 1942.

The cars your Buick dealer will have are big. They're beautiful. They're Buicks.

Christmas Seal Sale Begins

Michigan's 39th annual tuberculosis Christmas Seal sale was opened today with the first sale made to Governor Harry F. Kelly. In purchasing the first seals, which are distributed by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association and its affiliates, Governor Kelly declared, "These seals are helping the people of Michigan to conquer a deadly disease, tuberculosis. Last year there were 1,748 deaths from this disease alone in our state. These deaths were needless. If the disease had been discovered in time, those lives could have been saved."

"The money raised by the sale of tuberculosis Christmas Seals is used by the Michigan Association to work with existing agencies and to augment work which is not provided for by public funds. Over the years the death rate from tuberculosis has declined. The remaining reduction will be the hardest to achieve and will call for the greatest cooperation between the State Department of Health and voluntary agencies such as the Michigan Tuberculosis Association."

"To carry out its part of the program, the Association needs all possible support. Since Christmas Seals are its only source of revenue, I hope that the people of Michigan will give the fullest possible help to this 39th annual campaign."

Money raised by the sale of Christmas Seals is used to finance a state-wide program of education, research, case-finding and rehabilitation. This year's seal was designed by Park Phipps, Professor at the Art Institute, Chicago. It is symbolic of youth, featuring a wholesome American lad carrying home a Christmas wreath. In the background is a yellow house with a tall picket fence, and in the right-hand corner of each seal is a red double-barred cross, emblem of the crusade for health.

CO-ED IN STYLE SHOW

Recruiting Office Opens at Petoskey

Capt. Francis A. Sadowski, recruiting officer for this district, advised the Courier today that a permanent Army Recruiting Station has been established in the AAA office, 214 Howard street, Petoskey. The office will be open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Monday through Friday for the convenience of those men, 17 to 35 years old, who are interested in enlisting in the regular army.

Periods for which a man may enlist are 18 months, two years and three years. If the three-year period is selected, one may choose any of 16 branches of service and any of five overseas theaters.

Special emphasis is placed on the educational benefits offered to young men in the G. I. Bill of Rights. Dependency allowances and other benefits are also extended for the period of enlistment.

Draft eligible men are acceptable for enlistment in the regular army until they receive their order to report for induction, even though they have had their pre-induction physical examination.

Ministerial Ass'n Met at Claypooles

The Charlevoix Ministerial Association met last Monday night with the Claypooles at the Baptist manse. The early part of the evening saw friendly conversations, during which time relating of experiences on the part of the various pastors on weddings and the handling of them (or being handled by the par-handlers of the 'round').

Interesting, indeed, was the discussion. In the temporary absence of President Wood, who was detained by his special meetings, but who was present later, the business session was presided over by vice-president Howell.

In addition to the usual matters pertaining to a business meeting, the report of the recent Union Thanksgiving service was read and other matters, looking to the future activity of this dynamic group of our community.

The next meeting will be held with Rev. and Mrs. Wood at their parsonage, on Dec. 17.

The group consisted of Rev. and Mrs. Henry C. Hammond, Rev. and Mrs. Gaylord Howell, Rev. and Mrs. Ellsworth Dykstra, Rev. W. D. Wood and the Claypooles. Apple pie and ice cream was served by the hostess at the close of the business meeting.

Mrs. Anna Loeb of 5017 Ellis ave., Chicago, writes the following regarding a recent article in the Courier:

An Armful

MRS. CARL C. SMITH

Bell Telephone Increases Pay

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company announced that, in recognition of experience in the armed forces, it will grant increased starting pay rates to returning veterans entering the company's service for the first time.

George M. Welch, president of the company, said the extent of the increase will depend upon the experience of veterans while in the armed forces. He emphasized, however, that the practice will not eliminate the element of judgement in the individual hiring of new employees.

"The new practice simply grants recognition to the fact that the veteran has undergone a measure of development useful in the telephone business while in the armed forces," Welch said. "For such purposes, veterans are placed into two general classifications: 1. Those with no communications experience but in whom military service has developed maturity and certain other abilities. 2. Those with communications experience related to telephone occupations, or have had specialized training courses while in the service."

For those without communications experience, the starting pay rates will be advanced up to a maximum of eight months on the wage-progression schedules, depending on the length of their military service. Starting pay of those with a year or more of communications experience will be advanced an additional four months on the schedules. Thus, if a veteran were in the armed forces 32 months, including a year of telephone training, a maximum credit of one year could be allowed.

The company expects to employ about 2,000 new telephone workers, many of whom will come from the ranks of returning veterans, when its $120,000,000 postwar construction program is well under way. Those in the armed forces, originally numbering more than 3,000 who will return to their jobs. Michigan Bell now has about 2,480 employees in the service, 468 back on the job from the armed forces, and 53 on the Gold Star Honor Roll.

All applications must be passed by the local board members before being forwarded to Petoskey for issuance.

Price questions from this area should also be mailed to the Petoskey office.

What Really Happened to Hitler!

W. K. Chew sends the following contribution to the "Avenue" editor:

"One more question, duddy. What finally became of this terrible Hitler?" "For a long time, my child, nobody knew. There were stories. He was dead. He was hiding in Spain, Japan, Argentina, Eire. You took your choice. Then, in 1960, a rug collector named Donnerblitz died of indigestion in Chicago. That was Hitler. He had been living there 15 years."

"But didn't anyone guess, dady?"

"No, you see, except for changing his name and shaving off his moustache, he just went on being himself, damming Russia, England, democracy, the government at Washington, and the world in general. So the neighbors took him for just an ordinary American and never gave him a second thought."

Items intended for publication must be in our office by 5 o'clock Monday night each week. Honorably discharged Michigan war veterans will be provided with hospitalization and sanatorium care for tuberculosis at the expense of the State of Michigan in the sanatorium nearest their homes, Gilbert M. Lindsay, Veterans Counselor, stated today.

"Persons honorably discharged from the military service," he said "and not otherwise hospitalized, are deemed to be residents of the state at large and the expense of their treatment and hospitalization, with the approval of the Commissioner of Health, shall be paid by the state, according to an Act of the 1945 Michigan legislature which became effective Sept. 5."

"Proper equipment for dental examination and treatment and service by a dentist shall also be provided by the hospital or sanatorium," Mr. Lindsay stated.

"Facilities for roentgenography and fluoroscopy, adequate for thoracic visualization shall also be provided, and the act further provides for proper facilities for collapse therapy, including thoracic surgery, for patients needing this treatment. Complete clinical records are kept which include results of all examination, laboratory findings and treatments given."

"Official application form K-64 must be submitted and in the case of veterans, the portion pertaining to residents of the state at large should be given particular attention. These applications are available from the Michigan Department of Health, the Office of Veterans' Affairs and at all the Counseling centers," Mr. Lindsay concluded.

Offers Prize For Name

Beginning Dec. 1, and ending on Memorial day, 1946, the Charlevoix Service Organization will conduct a contest of ideas.

At the conclusion of World War I, many and varied were the memorials erected to honor those boys who had given their lives in the struggle. To many people these were not considered fitting for the occasion.

Suggestions have been made that a living memorial should be maintained, such as a park, or others, a bronze tablet or statue, or pillar; still others suggested a new hospital, or Children's Recreation Center.

This contest is to invite suggestions from the public at large, so that many ideas may be integrated and a fitting memorial thereby selected for the majority.

A committee consisting of the Charlevoix Service Organization, Board of Commerce and City Council will pass on the ideas.

Entrants in the contest will be guided by the size of the community, and their ideas should conform to a memorial that will be within the reach of its citizens.

The graduating class of '42 has entrusted to the CSO a fund of $50, which was to form the nucleus of a Memorial Fund for the boys who gave their lives in World War II.

There are no restrictions as to the number of entries. However, they must originate from a citizen of this community by birth or adoption, and the suggestions of those who have been in the service, or are now in the service are especially solicited.

The prize to be awarded will be a $25 Victory Bond and will be presented by the CSO.

Suggestions for the name of a Memorial will be judged for originality, and an explanation in 50 words or less on "Why I Selected this Suggestion."

All entries must be postmarked on or before May 30, 1946.

All entries become the property of the judging committee.

Submission of an entry in the contest shall constitute an agreement on the part of the contestant to abide by these contest rules and regulations. It shall be further understood by the contestant that the decision of the committee is final and that neither the CSO, Board of Commerce, or City Council shall undertake to engage in any dispute regarding the decision.

Contest opens Dec. 1, 1945 and closes May 30, 1946. All entries must be addressed to the Charlevoix Service Organization, Charlevoix, Michigan.

Fixing Up the Farm by BURTON WILLIAMS

Roadside Milk Stand
THE character of a farm is determined largely by the appearance of its entrance. Neat fencing, a well-braced gate and a neat driveway represent industry, orderliness and pride in the community. Even such seemingly little things as a well-built roadside stand for milk cans helps to make the farm attractive.
Throughout the nation thousands of dairy farmers are depending on trucks to pick up milk. Many roadside platforms are crude, old and broken down or in poor repair and provide no protection for the milk.

A neatly constructed platform which will provide shelter for the milk and on which the farm name can be printed has practical advertising value to the farmer and certainly an esthetic value to the countryside.
Such a platform can be made easily with a few pieces of lumber for framework and floor and a few pieces of large weather-proof asbestos cement board for the two ends, back and cover. The structure can be made any length. A good height for the legs is 30 inches. Suggested measurements for the shelter are a height of three feet from the floor to the tip of the front eave, and a depth of two and one-half feet, plus a six-inch overhang for the floor.

Poultry Sanitation
POULTRYMEN are striving continuously for ways and means of making their laying houses and brooder houses sanitary. They find that it pays off in more and healthier hens and in more and cleaner eggs.
Sanitary practices must be carried out in every step of poultry production, so serious is the disease problem. Once healthy hens are placed in the laying house, they must be provided with clean, warm quarters. Runways, floor, walls and ceiling, nests, dropping boards, feed racks and other equipment must be kept clean. Poultrymen have found that asbestos cement board interiors can play a very important part in maintaining sanitation because the surface is so easy to scrape and wash.
To further guard against disease, feed pans should not be placed on the floor where chickens can contaminate them. Instead, they should be held off the floor by a ring of three-eighths inch iron. The ring is welded to a short piece of one-inch by one-quarter-inch iron, so it can be fastened to the wall about 12 inches above the floor.

I have been in Tokyo Bay for a little more than two months. Before that I was at Okinawa. Four days before Okinawa was invaded from there called Kerama Retto. There I saw a few Jap suicide planes dive into some of our ships that were near us. Maybe you have heard of the Seadrome, or airfield on water. The Hanlin was one of the ships to help set it up, and now we have one here on Tokyo Bay.
I hope to be home by Christmas and expect to see Charlevoix about the first of the year. You can stop sending the paper for I

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCAST

Question—Please explain the "fig tree" in Matthew 24:32.
Answer—Let us read it: "Now learn a parable of the fig tree: When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh." la Luke 21:29 It is written: "And He spake to them a parable, Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;" The green leaves on the fig tree and all the trees are a sign of summer. So the signs which Christ has given are evidences of the coming kingdom of God.
Q.—What is the meaning of Jehovah-nissi, and where is it found in the Bible?
A.—It is in Exodus 17:15 and means "the Lord is my banner." This name was given by Moses to the altar built in commemoration of the victory over the Amalekites. Exodus 17:15.
Q.—How could Moses write laws when, according to authorities, men were not yet civilized enough to write, much less make laws?
A.—What authorities? Such an idea might have been published one hundred years ago, but modern archaeology has proved a state of high civilization in the days of Moses. In 1901 De Morgan discovered carved on a great obelisk the famous code of laws of Hammurabi, a king who lived hundreds of years before Moses. So modern discoveries prove the Bible true.
Q.—What was the mark put upon Cain?
A.—Read Genesis 4:14, 15. The original words, literally rendered, are, "The Lord gave a sign, a token, a pledge, to Cain, that no one who found him should kill him." That is, God assured him of his personal safety. Just what that sign or token was, we are not told.
Q.—All do not have the same environment and heritage, so how can God hold them equally responsible in the judgment?
A.—In God's record of a man's life, his birthplace, etc., are taken into consideration. Psalm 87:4-6: "I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to them that know Me: behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia: this man was born there. And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her; and the Highest Himself shall establish her. The Lord shall count, when He writeth up the people, that this man was born there."

Liberalism

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Secretary, Arkansas

BACK in America's colonial days before the Revolutionary war was everybody was a free man. There were only three freedoms. Everybody had a right to work hard, save as much as he could of his earnings and use his head as profitably as possible in business. If you have a taste for long words, you might call the three freedoms industry, frugality and ingenuity.

Government in those days was the English king, of course, and people who thought he ought to show more liberality called themselves liberals. The king taxed them plenty and his subsidized buying concern paid little enough for what they produced. A liberal then, was a man who wanted government to loosen up a bit in favor of the individual.

Love of AFFAIRS of the people Liberty were not changed very much by the Revolution. Colonies changed into states and new issues arose but still there was an over-all government. In this over-all government were people who had power, lust, or else feared to trust the common people with vital decisions. Opposed to these power-hungry folk were the liberals, still plugging for personal liberty.

The liberals were right. Time has proved beyond a doubt that people act better and live better and make more progress materially and spiritually when they have more freedom. The United States became a first-class power in record time — the world's wealthiest and happiest people, so the word "liberal" is popular here. To us, a liberal is one who wants the individual to be free. Switch THROUGH the same Labels historic periods America has had reactionaries. These were people, in colonial days, who wanted the king to reign. After the Revolution, the same element wanted an iron-fist rule. In Washington, something like a dictator. Small wonder our reactionaries have always been unpopular; people who oppose progress and try to grab power for themselves.

Reactionaries in America today are smart. They have learned one lesson well. They are very sure of one thing: They have a bad name. They know also that the word "liberal" is an asset. Accordingly they have adopted the term "liberalism" and call themselves liberals. This is the same political group that supports more government rule and less liberty for individuals.

Now this element has begun to call people reactionaries who hold precisely to the liberal teachings of Thomas Jefferson. But government control of everything, and the destruction of individual freedom and opportunity is not the liberalism that Americans think so highly of — not liberalism at all. It is a counterfeit road sign designed to misdirect American thinking away from the ways of freedom.

BOGART WRITES LETTER

Bill Bogart, CM3/c, of the Navy SeaBees, stationed on Guam, writes the following:

I want to take this opportunity to thank you, your staff, the citizens of Charlevoix and the members of the Charlevoix Service Organization for the many months of faithful service for which the Courier to me where ever I have been. It has been thoroughly enjoyed both by myself and others in my unit and by others from home as I have had the pleasure of seeing and being with several of the fellows from back there. Always in our visits we talked of articles in the Courier and it was a source of conversation for us and also a way of keeping track of where everyone

We have the good fortune of spending nearly every week end together. We both expect a change of address soon, "state-side", so last week it was voted that I write you a letter of thanks, and ask that our Courier be stopped. We both feel that we will have left or be leaving by the time that all the luck issues arrive. We both thank you all for your thoughtfulness and wonderful service.

News Of Our Servicemen

Alfred E. Bergman, AS, stationed at Camp Perry, Va., sends the following: Just a few lines to let you know that I am getting the Courier every week. The one I got this week looked as tho' it had been through the wringer but I could still read it. It sure was wonderful to read about the football team this year. I just hope they do as well in basketball.

I see by the paper where my brother, Bud, is at Okinawa. By the looks of things it won't be long before I'll be out there with him and the rest of the Bergmans. With three of us out there we should meet some place. I hope we'll all be meeting at our hunting camp next year at this time. I'm sure my dad would like it a lot and we would too.

I am working in the chow hall this week. We got to work in the morning at four and get through at nine at night. We just got through and everybody is hitting the sack so I guess I had better get in before the lights go out. I want to thank you and the hometown people for making it possible for me to receive the paper each week.

Looking Ahead

SEVERAL years ago a salesman representing a firm of efficiency experts induced a small manufacturer to engage the services of a systemizer who, he promised, would show the owner how to save a great deal more of his factory's earnings. At length came a polished gentleman of 40 with a chisel-shaped nose supporting a pair of conspicuous spectacles.

The owner of the plant and his hired adviser walked solemnly together through offices and shops. They were returning to the main office when the expert's eye fell upon an idle man—an old man, sitting at a desk looking out a window. As soon as they were out of ear-shot, the expert exclaimed: "That old fuddy-duddy is a net loss. Discharge him! He is just sitting there dreaming."

Loved—"DO YOU suppose he Action is dreaming?" inquired the owner of the factory. "Day-dreaming, to be sure," replied the expert. "Well, that's just fine," said the owner. "Now we won't be needing your help at all. Every so often that old chap has a day-dream, and the cheapest one he ever had brought us half a million dollars of new business. Don't disturb him as you go out."

search is necessary. Research is costly too, because it must be carried on by men who have special knowledge and special skills.

Thoughts "INVENTIONS" don't have life go into production until they are backed by research. When multiplied copies of an invention start coming off the assembly line, but mass production permits no guess-work. Countless laboratory tests and exhaustive practical experiments must pave every invention's road to market. Many a good idea has died unworked for lack of research—too costly.

In America are many factories—goose able to lay golden eggs, such as employment, prosperity and progress. The fertile 14-carat gem in the flock is Research. Without this motivating influence industry may start its post-war program and pursue a well-chorded course, efficiently amputating cost after cost until there's nothing left to cut off, but it's the road to ruin.

Not many weeks ago I read a scathing criticism of American business. In it the author boasted a red flag in warning against capitalism. He pointed to vast sums spent annually in industrial research by a few wealthy corporations. I have only this to say: I hope they spent all he said and more, because the brightest spot in the outlook is research.

Techmart—"Birthplace of the Future"

CHICAGO, ILL.—In future small business will have a meeting house to pool their problems. Port Little Ruth Kohtala looks at a model of Techmart, a $2,000,000 square block technological center here, to which small business can bring problems for industrial design and engineering advice and solution.

Stated for 1946 construction, Barnes & Reinecke's glass and steel structure will have 200,000 square feet of usable floor space and will eventually house 1,000 technical experts. With more than 85 per cent of America's payrolls originating in small industry rather than with giant corporations, it is critically necessary for the survival of small business that such technological resources be readily and economically made available.

Barnes & Reinecke today offer services of experts in electronics, chemical engineering, model making, product creation, plant design and engineering, food technology, package development, product design and special machine and tool design.

Want Fewer Parties on Your Rural Telephone Line?

There's good news for farmers and other rural residents in Michigan Bell's 5-year $13,500,000 rural expansion and improvement program. Here are some of the ways this program will give better service to more people:

- 1 Construction of more lines will mean fewer parties per line for many customers. That will make service better, faster and more pleasing for all concerned.
- 2 Important new devices and new construction methods will make telephone service available to more rural families than ever before.

3 Michigan Bell also plans to install dial telephone systems in many more rural sections — another big step forward in increasing the speed and accuracy of rural telephone service!

4 In accordance with the plan worked out with the Michigan Rural Communications Committee, a group of agricultural leaders, we will continue to provide a liberal amount of free line-construction, with small monthly payments in cases where construction charges are involved. This will mean more farm families with telephones — more people you can reach from your telephone!

Enjoy Luxury of Hot Bath!
A HOT bath at the end of a hard day is a luxury which few farmers enjoy. Yet it can be done easily with the installation of running water and a water heater. One popular idea is putting a shower stall down in the basement, near the door leading outside. Clothes lockers can then be put near the shower stall and when the men come in from work they can take off their dusty clothes, shower and then put on clean slacks suits or clean pants and shirt which will not leave the marks of the barn on upholstered furniture. Lockers and shower stall can be made of asbestos cement board. Neither water nor steam will cause this material to rust or rot.

When fixing up the farm kitchen and installing a bath, don't forget to make provision for lots of hot water. Automatic water heating is best, as it costs little and you'll never have to think about it. Gas is the most dependable and economical fuel for this purpose. Liquefied petroleum gas, sometimes known as "tank" or "bottled" gas, is available everywhere. A gas service man in a nearby town can furnish all the information you may want.

Vaccinating Trough

VACCINATION of hogs, so essential to disease control, decreased mortality and increased production, can be greatly simplified by constructing a vaccinating trough. Not only does such a trough make vaccinating more convenient, but it helps to prevent injury to the hogs. An injured hog usually brings a lower price on the market.

A sturdy trough can be constructed of lumber at low cost. A good size is four feet long and two feet high. The supports at either end are made of 2x4's braced at the bottom with 1x4's. The trough is made of one piece of 2x12 four feet long and one piece of 2x10 four feet long.

A fairly efficient hog oiler can be made cheaply by wrapping burlap around a post and binding the burlap with rope or heavy cord. If the post is grooved the burlap will absorb oil more readily. Best results are obtained by frequent applications of oil.

Miss Rae Ann Gravuer of Charlevoix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gravuer, of Philadelphia, Pa., became the bride of Mr. Robert Henry Kahrs, of New York City, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kahrs, at a four o'clock ceremony, Nov. 3, in St. Paul's Presbyterian church, Laurel Springs, N. J., with the Rev. Irwin T. Emmons, pastor of the church, officiating. Mrs. George Stiebel, of Harrington, played the wedding march and Miss Lois Hatter, of Trenton, Pa., sang prelude.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Bowman H. Gravuer, of Philadelphia. She wore a gown of traditional white satin, made with an illusion neckline, outlined by a bertha, and a long train. Her fingertip veil was arranged from a tulle of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white roses, with a white orchid at the center.

Mrs. Stephen Jagers, of Clementon, as matron of honor, appeared in a powder blue gown, combining a tulle bodice, designed with a sweetheart neckline and bracelet sleeves, and a full skirt of net. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Adolph Felsch, of Clementon, and Mrs. Walter C. Van Buren, of Detroit, Mich., wore similar models, but in shell pink. They wore small net hats the shades of their gowns and carried tallinn roses. Kathleen Jagers, of Clementon, was flower girl in a short white frock made with a tulle bodice and net skirt. She wore white pompon chrysanthemums in her hair and carried a nosegay of variegated pompon chrysanthemums.

Richard Kahrs, of Astoria, L. I., was best man for his brother, Bruce Wesceman, Mr. Jagers and Mr. Felsch, of Clementon, and Jeffrey Casey of New York City, ushered.

Miss Henrietta Gravuer, sister of the bride, who has just returned from 31 months' service in the Southwest Pacific with the American Red Cross, appeared in uniform. She wore a white orchid corsage. Miss Mary Weiss, aunt of the bridegroom, had chosen a royal blue print, with which she wore dark blue accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Following a reception at the Hotel Walt Whitman, Mr. Kahrs and his bride left for a wedding trip to Hot Springs, Va. On their return they will reside at 9014 24th street, Hollis, L. I., where they will be at home after Dec. 1.

The bride is manager of the Belvedere hotel here, and assistant manager of the Fort Harrison hotel, Clearwater, Fla. Mr. Kahrs attended Columbia University and is a graduate of the New York School of Interior Decoration.

Local Quintet Win Opener, Score 21-16

By DAVID HAMILTON

Charlevoix high school quintet started off the 1945-46 basketball season in real professional style last Friday evening, by defeating the Mancelona Five by a score of 21 to 16. The local five, led by Capt. R. Hardy, made a fine showing.

The first quarter started with a bang, and at the end of the first horn, the score stood 9 to 4 in our favor. In the second quarter the Mancelona boys held our lads and the Raylors made only five points while Mancelona made five to set the score at the half at 14 to 9.

The second half the boys kept Mancelona pretty well clear of the "bucket" and ran up tallies to make it 19 to 14. The last minutes of the game proved exciting and the game ended with Charlevoix out in front 21 to 16.

R. Carey led with seven points. Wm. Carey was next with six. Ward and Hardy had three apiece for their efforts; and B. Zietler, two points.

The reserve game was the most exciting. Two overtime periods were necessary to decide the winners. Capt. Lagerman and his boys were behind until the last minutes of the game, which finally ended in a tie at 18 all. The first overtime period saw each team tally one point, and the last period of overtime play was the deciding one, when the locals managed to tally once, making them victors.

Henrietta Gravuer Returns to Service After 40-Day Furlough

Miss Henrietta Gravuer, who managed the Belvedere Hotel for 11 years, returned home on October 27 to enjoy a furlough until December 6. Miss Gravuer has been Area Recreational Supervisor of the American Red Cross for 31 months, having served in every state where Red Cross Clubs were located in Australia and the Philippine Islands. She flew from Manila to California in 46½ flying hours, and is now visiting her sister in Clementon, New Jersey.

Miss Gravuer advises that although she and her staff had to work under severe handicaps many times, they were always able to overcome the obstacles and complete their jobs. Her first thought at all times was "service for the American boys"; this also applied to civilians, both Americans and the Allied Nationals who were in the prison camp for three years.

When civilians were liberated from the prison camps, Miss Gravuer and her staff provided comfort items and clothing for the unfortunate persons, as well as grants of money. She wants the people of our country to know that the American Red Cross gave grants of hundreds of thousands of dollars, as well as all other items, to these people who were deprived of them for so many years and who underwent untold hardship and torture in the prison camps. Miss Gravuer stated that it will be impossible for the citizens of our country to visualize the drastic physical condition of the people who had survived the internment because many of them lost between 25 and 100 pounds during the time they were in the camps. Too, a great many of them were suffering from serious diseases at the time they were released.

Miss Gravuer was Liaison Officer between the United States Army and the American Red Cross while taking care of the civilians on Leyte Island, and was

MISS HENRIETTA GRAVUER

Along the Avenue

By The Editor

In Long Island, N. Y., Mrs. Robert H. Kahrs (formerly Rae Ann Gravuer) has viewed her first snowfall in 14 years. One winter spent in Charlevoix could make up for the entire 14, Mrs. Kahrs, if you like the pretty white crystals.

We've put our welcome mat out; we've got our porch light on; we have even tied up the dog, but so far no one has left any venison on our porch.

In many parts of the country, the first snowfall found snow fences still rolled up. It caught highway workers with their fences down.

Courier Reader Wants to Know Market Price of Turkeys

Dear Editor of the Courier:
"As I have been a reader of the Courier for about 50 years, where the lamb lies down with the lion, I don't think it's any disgrace to say I enjoy reading every little item in it. While I have passed my 87th year, I am not ashamed to say I still have a lot of respect for decent respectable females. I have a lady friend in Illinois, to whom I send the Courier. In the November 21 issue you stated the amount of turkeys raised and marketed by Charlevoix farmers. Now if you found out how many turkeys each farmer had, you can find out what they brought per pound, a piece, or a fowl. Let's have it in the Courier so I can send it to my girl friend."

George Washington Dennis, Box 19, Route One, Charlevoix, Michigan.

Krueger Heads List of Seal Purchasers

First Ten Buyers Are Listed by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association

Leading the attack in the "war to save lives," Charlevoix's first 10 buyers of tuberculosis Christmas seals this year were Otto Krueger, James J. Rehr, Charles O. Roemer, Earl A. Young, George LaBlanc, Mrs. Nelle A. Hammond, Floyd A. Supp, Chas. Novak, M. A. Levinson and Co., and Dr. D. C. Nettleton, according to Harry D. Bennett, secretary-treasurer of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association.

"It is gratifying to find such whole-hearted support of the association's tuberculosis control program," declared Mr. Bennett. "Michigan is one of the states which most feared a rise in the mount of tuberculosis during the war years, because of her many war industries, the necessity for working long hours and general overcrowding in her war production areas. We were all happy to find that there was no appreciable increase either in the number of new cases or deaths from this disease. This was due to the unceasing efforts of our official and voluntary health agencies, such as the Michigan Tuberculosis Association.

"This is no time to relax our efforts, however. The germs which cause tuberculosis do not take any 'time out.' Neither can we. Money raised from the sale of Christmas seals will be used to finance a state-wide program of adult and child education, case-finding, research and rehabilitation of those who have the disease," Mr. Bennett explained.

County Agent Gives Helpful Farm Hints

County Agricultural Agent, Ed. Rehman, suggests that fruit growers or owners of fruit trees call at his office for a free copy of the bulletin, "Protecting Fruit Trees Against Mice and Rabbits."

The bulletin, prepared by T. A. Merrill, of the department of horticulture at Michigan State college, explains several ways to protect trees from these animals during the winter months. Among them is the suggestion that trash and rod be removed from around shrubs and the trunks of trees, and that poison bait be placed in the fresh run-ways of the mice.

Ways to make and apply tree trunk guards also are pointed out.

MRS. A. B. LAWTON

The following relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jensen came to make their home headquarters for the deer hunting season: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cox of Kalamazoo, sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Jensen, and their daughter, Mrs. Cox, also of Kalamazoo, and Mr. Kenneth Cox of Flint, nephew of Mrs. Jensen. So far Mr. DeKane is the only one to get a deer.

While here on his hunting vacation, Mr. DeKane is installing an automatic system for Lawrence Jensen.

Mr. Joe Whitfield is again reported on the sick list.

Some hunter with a peculiar idea of good sportsmanship seem to delight in shooting the insulators off the power line regardless of the trouble and expense to the company and the inconvenience to the patrons of the line who depend on it for light and power.

Mrs. Lawton and son, Jesse, spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lawton.

Mr. and Mrs. LeCroix called on Mr. and Mrs. L. Jensen a week ago Sunday.

Those would-be hunters again! Our maintenance men are certainly going to be happy once the 1945 deer hunting season is past history. We don't pretend to know all of the damage these childish-minded marksmen have done in the first 5 days of the season—but so far we do know we have had 16 cases of outage and found more than 50 main line insulators shot off, two of the large suspension porcelain insulators cracked up, and in one case the live wire and primary wire was shot through with the result that more than 600 feet of wire came down on the ground and was badly burned it all had to be replaced.

If you can tie any of this malicious damage to the guilty party, give us his name, and if we get a conviction, we will still make good on that original $25 reward proposition—and gladly! —Clipped from Nov. R. E. A. Bulletin.

Proclamation

Home is a word common to all languages. In all countries and among all peoples, the home is the basic unit of human living. The American home is the most important factor in determining the strength, welfare and happiness of the state and nation.

The family is the object of our deepest affection and concern. As we again set ourselves about the task of peace, and as the reunion of families, separated by war, happily becomes a daily occurrence, it is impressed upon us that the home should be a place of large spiritual dimension, truly a sanctuary of affection, harmony and contentment.

As there is no substitute for the home and family in the development of the character of our youth and a national morality of high ideals and a belief in God which is all-important to our state and nation;

Therefore, I, Harry F. Kelly, Governor of the State of Michigan, set aside the week of December 2 to 8, 1945, as Home and Family Week, and I call upon all our people to study and reflect upon the values and needs of home and family and ask that all unite their efforts for the preservation and improvement of home and family life.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, this Twenty-ninth day of November, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred Forty-Five, and of the Commonwealth the One Hundred Ninth.

Harry F. Kelly, Governor

News Of Our Servicemen

Pfc. Hubert Olach, who is stationed in Japan with the 25th Troop, Troop Mezz, writes of his experiences in that country: "I wish to thank you for the Courier. I have just received the Sept. 12 issue. It's rather late, but news is news out here. The reason I have not received other copies is because I've been moving."

"I left the Philippines the 24th of Sept. We boarded a ship and arrived off Wakayama, Honshu Province, Japan, where we were from Oct. 6 or 7 until Oct. 28 waiting for two things: the passing of a hurricane and the clearing of the harbor of Nagoya harbor of mines."

We, the 25th Troop, are in the Japanese barracks at the Nakamura Electric Co. The buildings and surroundings are in good shape. I can't say that for the rest of the area tho'. The Air Force did a good job here. When they said they pulverized the city, they weren't exaggerating one bit. Most of the city, including the plants and factories, look like a big dust pile. The Japs have done wonders cleaning up the rubble. It's unbelievable how fast they did it. Incidentally, the women here, as in the Philippines, do practically all the work.

Whoever said the sun always shines above Japan, or even on Japan was sure lying or trying to kid himself. Maybe it's just being moved from the tropics to a temperate climate that makes us think we're freezing to death. The weather is somewhat like home. The people here wear no stockings and just sandals. Some even work barefooted in the gardens. If we tried that right now, we'd get pneumonia and die.

Very few women wear dresses. They wear pantalets or pantaloons (which ever you prefer). Oh yes, they also use kimonos. But they aren't a bit like one imagines and there aren't as many as you'd expect there'd be. The greatest use for the kimono is to carry babies around on their backs.

"The people in general are friendly and want to help. One can't help but wonder how they can be so two-faced. Very few speak English and we have a rough time. We do have Jap phrase books and the good old sign language. Between the two, we get along. The Japs try to learn all the English they can from us. Cigarettes are the greatest thing in demand. They'll do most anything for a pack. Chocolate, gum and soap are also in demand. Black markets are fast coming into being."

Floyd H. Henley, F 1/c, writes from Guam: "I want to thank you for sending me the Courier. I have received every copy since being in the service, I believe, and enjoyed reading every one from start to finish. I am happy to inform you that you need not send any more copies to me out here as I expect to be on my way home before any more can reach me. So, until I can contact you at my home address, I want to thank you again and wish all the folks at home a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

Fixing Up the Farm by BURTON WILLIAMS

Aids to Production
IT'S just as important now as it was during the war to protect food supplies from leaky roofs and sidewalks and provide comfortable quarters for dairy cattle, hogs and poultry. Food in great quantities is urgently needed throughout the world and farm prices are still high. Protection of animals and their feed supplies is important in maintaining high production of farm products.

Repairs should be completed before winter. Where building covers have deteriorated to the extent that roofs and eaves need replacement, it's a good idea to use building materials that will insure full protection and long life.

Among materials that frequently are used for such jobs are asbestos cement shingles and shingles, which are well suited for practically every type of farm structure. Unless the old shingles are too badly worn, asbestos cement siding can be placed over them.

Asbestos cement products are fireproof and will stand up to the test of time and wind for the life of the building with practically no maintenance cost. Made in a variety of sizes and styles, the shingles and siding add greatly to the appearance of farm buildings. They are available at most building materials dealers.

INWOOD COMMUNITY FARM BUREAU

The Inwood Community Farm Bureau met with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Aer on Tuesday, November 20. There were 13 members present. The Roll Call question "What Post War Changes Do You Expect in Agriculture?" brought Some were: A national poultry raising system that all surplus will be taken care of; new electrical equipment for the farm home; good markets; lower cost production; new and better farm machinery; more frozen foods and bigger markets for foods that can be frozen; the farmers ought to be given a fair enough price so they can hire the help they need; and government control of everything unless we keep our eyes open and really do something to

A suggestion was made that Farm Bureau members should receive some special benefit for being a member of the Farm Bureau, such as a fund paid into by each member and given to the family of any member who dies. There was no decision reached at this time.

Basketeers Win Again; Score, 36-23

By David A. Hamilton

The second game of the 1945-46 basketball season proved to be the citizens of Charlevoix that their high school is also good in basketball as well as football.

The CIIS five monopolized both the floor and the baskets to win over the Petoskey five by the score of 36-23.

The game opened fast and furious with Charlevoix making the first point and holding Petoskey down. The locals ran up 8 points to the opposition's 2. The ball was in the air most of the time between the Red-Haystacks.

The second quarter Petoskey didn't do so well. Charlevoix ran up 10 more points and defended their basket so well that the visitors could make only 5 points.

The third quarter Charlevoix opened up and ran all over the visitors. The Petoskey five were kept busy trying to defend their basket. If Ward to B. Zietler to R. Hardy to W. Carey to R. Carey ran up 15 points for CIIS.

The last stanza Petoskey broke loose and did pretty well holding CIIS down to the two points made by Capt. Hardy, while running themselves 9 points. But that wasn't enough to overpower CIIS and the game ended in speed, second only to the first few minutes.

Center R. Carey led with 14 points to his credit, followed by Ward with 10, Hardy with 9 and Zietler with 3.

The Methodist parsonage was the scene of the wedding on Saturday morning, December 8, at 11 o'clock when Miss Clara Potter and Carl Edmond Bogart, both of Charlevoix, were united in marriage. Along the Avenue

By The Editor

Never have we witnessed a more glorious sunrise over Round Lake, than we had the pleasure of viewing last Friday morning. Author of "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning," hasn't seen anything comparable to Charlevoix weather and scenery, especially during the past week.

On display in the Kibbe Grocery window, on the corner of Antrim and State streets, is a 30-year-old Christmas cactus. Beautiful buds and flowers in profusion are everywhere on the large plant.

A Charlevoix soldier, who was given a ride from Kalamazoo to Grand Rapids, left a pair of gloves in the car. Will the party contact us, so that the driver may return them?

Mrs. S. called us Saturday morning to tell us that our lilac tree, in the back yard, had burst forth with a fresh group of buds.

Along with other things, the T. B. death rate keeps going up. Buy a gross of Christmas seals. It'll be the soundest investment you ever made.

During the past few weeks strikers have received more front page publicity than President Truman. Funny how popular some people can get without doing a speck of work.

Christmas vacation is the only time we know of that the kids hurry home from school.

With eggs at 67c a dozen, hens can make a lot of money by just laying around.

The only fellow who gives a continental about our town is our local merchant. Patronize him first.

Wouldn't this be a swell old world if all the friendliness and neighborliness so evident at Christmas time would continue throughout the entire year?

Oddity: Herb Wilson, local Oldsmobile dealer, was seen driving a Cadillac last Saturday evening.

Dal Henry makes the news again. This time (and folks you won't appreciate this until you see the award) he was awarded first prize in the "Buck-Moose" contest, order of T. D. B. F. E. O. A. P. R. B. H. K. C. M., for announcing the first buck shot.

Teed D. Birnkunt, as Master Nimrod attaches his name and seal to the coveted prize.

Beach Hotel Under New Management

Sale Consummated Dec. 5;

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kramer, Props.

The Beach, popular resort hotel, located on W. Dixon avenue, has been sold. The property was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kramer, of San Francisco and Los Angeles, Calif., from William E. Flynn, who has owned and managed the hotel since June 1, 1940. The sale, terms of which were not announced, was consummated Dec. 5.

Mr. Kramer, who comes from a family of hotel owners and managers, was associated with the Republic Hotel in Bay City prior to purchasing the Beach Hotel. He had been associated also with commercial hotels on the west coast for many years. This is his first venture in the hotel business in a resort area.

Mrs. Kramer is the former Irene Holeccheck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Holeccheck, of Norwalk. She is well known here, having been employed at the Charlevoix County State Bank before going to California in the early '20s.

"We plan to operate the hotel in the same high class manner as in the past. Only a few minor changes in the hotel personnel will be made, Mr. Kramer stated. He said that many repairs have already been made, and that he planned no drastic changes in the building.

The building, constructed in 1898, has 100 rooms, a large dining room overlooking Lake Michigan with a seating capacity of more than 200; a cocktail lounge is also a feature of this modern hotel. Up-to-date kitchens, and pantries afford guests fine, fresh food at all times.

The Duris cottage at 102 West Dixon avenue, and the Emery cottage at 104 West Dixon avenue, were sold with the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Kramer left today (Wednesday) to spend the winter months in California. They plan to return here in March. The hotel will be opened about July 1, 1946.

Mr. Flynn, who has been coming to this city for more than 30 years, will retire from the hotel business and make his home in Charlevoix. For many years he was associated with the Charlevoix Inn and has been at the Beach Hotel since 1940.

The following directors were elected for a term of two years each: Eldon Jones to succeed Ed McClanahan, who has served faithfully for six years; John Hyek and L. E. McGhan to succeed themselves.

The Board of Directors redeemed $10 per share which was issued by all Common and Preferred at the company prior to 1940, amounting to $4,160. They also paid dividends on outstanding stock amounting to $1,006.50.

A short program of songs were rendered by Joyce and Patricia Murray, Betty Warner and Nancy Totten, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Elmer Barber.

A luncheon of ice cream and cake was served by the ladies of the Marion Center Grange after which Stock certificates representing patronage dividends and dividend checks were distributed. More than 125 were present for the meeting. The local Co-op has a total of 450 stockholders.

35% more meat wanted! This means thousands of new jobs!

Jobs on the hoof! Raising more meat means more jobs!

Jobs in packing plants!—As demand for meat zooms!

Jobs in stores! More demand means more workers needed.

Making Postwar Jobs—Out of Meat!

HOW many jobs will there be as this country returns to peacetime production? Will there be enough jobs for veterans, for former war workers?

No one can say, exactly. But this much we know: Many industries along our routes offer amazing possibilities for jobs in the immediate future—thousands of new jobs that have never existed before! These jobs are going to grow out of the gigantic demand for goods and services that exists in this country—and from production that will satisfy that demand.

Consider the meat-packing industry. Meat suffered the greatest shortage and was misused more than any other food during the war. Moreover, meat has become a greater item in our diets—both military and civilian. And new knowledge of the health giving qualities of meat has made meat more in demand than ever.

Right now, leaders in the meat-packing industry are readying production facilities to take care of a tremendous increase in domestic consumption. They confidently expect a rise in demand of as much as 35%!

This will make meat a 4-billion-dollar enterprise, ranking with steel and automobiles in the number of people employed. It will mean myriads of new jobs on the country's 3,000,000 ranches and farms growing meat, in the 4,000 packing plants, and on the sales staffs serving these plants. It will mean more jobs in the country's 400,000 retail outlets selling meat—and it will mean new jobs in the factories and the service trades that supply or serve people connected with raising, packing and distributing meat!

Meat-packing is only one of many industries along the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Nickel Plate, and the Pere Marquette, that are going ahead with all possible speed, now that Victory has been won.

Poultry Culling Pen

THE importance of culling to increase profits, and the elementary principles of distinguishing between a good hen and a bad hen have been stressed so much in the last few years that nearly every poultry raiser, from the beginner on up, is giving the matter careful attention. It's expensive to feed valuable grain to hens that don't lay.

One of the first things many have learned is that trying to scratch up a hen among 50 or 100 others in a laying house gets on the nerves of both man and chicken. Feathers fly freely and the confusion is general.

A simple culling pen can be made which will solve the problem. It is constructed of two hinged panels, each about 6 feet long and 4 feet high, with a chicken wire covering. Only eight pieces of light lumber are needed. A small flock of hens can be driven into a corner of the laying house and held there while being culled. The peace and quiet of the laying house can be further preserved by culling at night with a flashlight.

Huge Job Ahead For Charlevoix

Home Owners In County Will Spend More Than $796,000

More than $796,000 is expected to be spent during the next five years by Charlevoix County home owners in remodeling and repair work.

The year 1946 promises to inaugurate one of the greatest eras in American history for home repairs and modernization, according to estimates released by the Title Council of America. Few developments will contribute more to employment and general prosperity in any community, according to R. E. Jordan, chairman of the Council's Residential Construction Committee.

Because of lack of materials and manpower during the war, majority of the county's 4,523 dwellings are in need of some kind of repair or remodeling work. Kitchen improvements and modernization of bathrooms, installation of tiled showers and in some homes addition of a second bathroom are the most wanted.

Home owners in Michigan will spend an estimated $268,125,900 and those of the nation more than $5,500,000,000 for major repairs dwelling units are in need of some kind of repair or remodeling work.

At low interest charges, are available for such work through completion of tiled showers and in some homes addition of a second bathroom are the most wanted.

Seals Help Combat TB

Many of this community's residents have received their quota of tuberculosis Christmas seals in the mail. This is the 39th year these seals have been distributed by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association.

Some people have bought seals for years simply because it is a good one. Some know from bitter first-hand experience about tuberculosis and buy seals in order to help protect others from this disease. Still others may be receiving Christmas seals for the first time this year; this will be their first opportunity to join with thousands of Michigan people who have for years been doing their share to combat one of the most disastrous diseases modern civilization knows.

Christmas seals are helping to bring better health to Michigan. Last year 1,748 Michigan lives were lost from this disease; lives that could have been saved had

Former Resident Dies in Illinois

James Davenport, 72, former resident, died in Elgin, Ill., on Saturday following a short illness. Mr. Davenport resided in Charlevoix from 1918-25 and operated a small store on West Garfield ave. He had lived in Elgin since leaving here.

Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. May Muel, of Petoskey; four sons, Alfred, of Elgin, Arthur, of Clare, Doug, of Charlevoix, and Ted, Sgt. Howard, with the army in Germany; sixteen grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren.

INCOME TAX MEETING TONIGHT AT CITY HALL

An income tax meeting will be held tonight, at 8 o'clock in the City Hall here. Byron Blackford from Michigan State College will explain how to fill out the 1945 tax returns for farmers.

The presence of infection has been discovered in time. There were 5,419 new cases of tuberculosis reported in the state last year.

Disseminating these figures are, they represent an improvement of 75 per cent over 1941, when a group of physicians and laymen met to organize the National Tuberculosis Association, of which the state and local associations are some of the 2,500 affiliates. The accomplishments of such a network of affiliates are of vital importance to every resident of the United States. Any one small group of individuals, however they may strive, cannot conceivably accomplish as much as 2,500 interested groups linked together by a common purpose. Such groups recognize no city, county or state lines; they know that tuberculosis cannot be conquered in one county if it thrives in the adjacent one. As a result of the joint efforts of these many groups, the American people are better protected from tuberculosis than any other people in the world.

Through extensive case-finding programs, through health education utilizing speakers, movies, radio, and literature of many types, through medical research by men who are constantly working to discover a cure for tuberculosis, and through rehabilitation of those who have had the disease, your tuberculosis association is helping to bring better health to the people of this state. Once a year the association appeals to this public for funds. Nothing gives a deeper inner glow of satisfaction than knowing that you have done something to help those who need it. Make your own Christmas a happier one by giving generously for a two-fold purpose: to help return to normal living those who have contracted tuberculosis and to protect your home and your community from tuberculosis.

Q.—What is the longest verse in the Bible?
A.—Eziah 6:9; and the shortest is John 11:35.
Q.—Can you give the names of the kingdoms represented by the four parts of the great image in Daniel 2?
A.—Gold head, Babylon; silver breast, Media-Persia; brass torso, Greece; iron legs, Rome; and iron feet, nations of Modern Europe.
Q.—Does the Bible say anything about divorce and re-marriage?
A.—Head Matthew 19:9; 5:32; 1 Corinthians 7:10, 11.
Q.—What is a husbandman? Does it mean a married man?
A.—It is an old English word meaning literally, "master of the house," but it is used in the Bible for a tiller of the soil. Genesis 2:9; "And Noah began to be an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard." (See 2 Chronicles 26:10; Mark 12:1; John 15:1.)
Q.—Are the kingdom of heaven and the kingdom of God the same?
A.—These names are sometimes used interchangeably; for example, in Matthew 13:3: "The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed." Mark 4:30, 31 says: "The kingdom of God... is like a grain of mustard seed." Compare also Matthew 13:33 and Luke 13:20, 21.
Q.—Is the Old Testament as well as the New Testament for us today?
A.—The Bible is one Book. Notice 2 Peter 3:2: "That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of the apostles of the Lord and Saviour." The prophets wrote the Old Testament, and the apostles most of the New. "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope." Romans 15:4. (See 1 Corinthians 10:11.)
For years after the crucifixion of Christ, the early church had no Bible whatever except the Old Testament, and to those writings they appealed for proof of their teachings. Paul says that the preaching of the gospel is to be done "by the Scriptures of the prophets." Romans 16:25, 26.

Good rural line neighbors give the other fellow a chance

There are very few more rural telephone lines today than before the war. But, because there were so many "war essential" rural folks who had service installed, there are almost twice as many telephones as before the war. In other words, there now are more telephones per line.

We intend to move ahead with the job of adding more lines just as fast as conditions permit. First we will provide telephones to those who are waiting. Then we will reduce the number of telephones per line. Meanwhile, everyone can enjoy better service if he will share the line with a true spirit of friendliness.

You'll help by keeping all calls short... avoid listening in or interrupting when the line is in use... hang up your receiver carefully. One receiver off the hook ties up a whole line.

Couple Observe Golden Wedding Anniversary

Commemorate Event at Special Church Services On Christmas Day

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Snider, of Marlon township, will observe their golden wedding anniversary on Christmas Day. At a special service to be held in the Church of God at 7:45 Tuesday evening, the couple will renew their marriage vows.

The service will open with a program of organ music played by Miss Helen Hamlin, organist, followed by a solo, "I Love You Truly" sung by Rev. W. D. Wood, minister of the church.

As the Wedding March is played, Mr. Snider, accompanied by his attendant, James Keeler, of Alton, brother-in-law of Mrs. Snider, will approach the altar. Mrs. Snider, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Keeler, preceded by flower girls who will be her grandchildren, will join him there.

Their daughter, Mrs. Beryl Meggison, of Detroit, will sing a special solo. The Rev. Wood will then read the service at which Mr. and Mrs. Snider will renew the vows made 50 years ago.

A program of organ music will follow while the couple receive congratulations at the door of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Snider and the guests will then adjourn to the Methodist church where a reception will be held in the social rooms for relatives and friends. The couple will be presented with a gift from the church and refreshments and group singing will follow. Friends and neighbors of the couple are cordially invited to attend the service and the reception.

The Rev. Wood, Mrs. Winifred Baumbach, Mrs. Reuben Pearl and Mrs. Robert Dickie are in charge of arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Snider were married at the home of Mrs. Snider's parents near Coleman in Midland county, Michigan, on December 25, 1895, by the Rev. W. E. Ogden, of the Coleman Methodist church. Mr. Snider, who had been born in Prince Edward county, Ont., Can., on October 12, 1871, had come to Coleman in 1890. Mrs. Snider, the former Elizabeth Spencer, had been born at Huntington, Ont., Can., on January 8, 1877, and had come to Coleman with her parents as an infant. They were early settlers there and her mother was the third white woman to settle in the community of Coleman.

The couple made their home at Coleman for a short time after their marriage before moving to the upper peninsula where they lived near Munising. They also resided at Cheboygan before coming to their present home in Marlon township in September, 1906.

They have been active in church and community affairs. Both are members of the Church of God and have held offices in church organizations. Mr. Snider has served on the Marlon township school board and was treasurer for several years.

They have one daughter, Mrs. E. D. Meggison, of Detroit, and four sons, Alvin, of Grand Rapids, Tech. Sgt. Glenn, now serving with the army in Japan, T/S Raymond who is enroute home in Sheffield, Mass., after serving with the army in the Pacific area and Japan, and Louis, of Indiana. They also have seven grandchildren.

Asbestos Chick Feeder

PROVISION for adequate feeders in the brooder house is one of the numerous repair and replacement tasks which should be undertaken during the winter months so that the brooder will be ready for spring hatches.

Pennsylvania State College, has developed designs for chick, intermediate and hen feeders which are made almost entirely of 3/16-inch asbestos cement board. Use of asbestos board, with its smooth, hard surface, provides feeders which are easily cleaned and disinfected. Deterioration from moisture is eliminated because asbestos board will not rot, decay or rust.

In constructing the chick feeder, the two end uprights are made of lumber one inch thick, 4 inches high, 3 1/2 inches wide at the bottom and 1 1/2 inches wide at the top. A piece of 3/16 inch asbestos board 2 1/2 inches wide and 24 inches long is inserted in 3/4-inch slots 2 1/2 inches deep in each end piece to prevent chicks from scratching the feed out and to keep them from roosting or standing on the feeder. The floor is formed of asbestos board 4 inches by 24 inches nailed to the bottom of the wood uprights. The two side pieces are asbestos board 1 1/2 inches wide and 24 inches long.

Ship's Crew Mourns Passing of Mascot

"Skippy" Buried With Full Military Honors Last Week

The crew of the Coast Guard Cutter, Sundew, was deeply saddened last Monday afternoon when the ship's mascot, "Skippy," was laid to rest with military honors.

The people of Charlevoix are well acquainted with "Skippy" as he was frequently seen around the business section. Skippy misled an opportunity to see the sights in any town from Buffalo to Duluth. He picked a few favored members of the crew for his close associates and preferred to follow them ashore in the town where the boat docked.

The populace of the Great Lakes area were, in many cases, better acquainted with "Skippy" as the things remembered about Skippy are his devotion to the crew of the Sundew, the fact that he never missed the ship, his immunity to sea sickness, and his loyalty to children.

Skippy was provided with a medial fund by the crew and was given the best medical treatment and care that veterinary medicine could offer. He was frequently taken by taxi to Boyne City to the only vetinary in this area.
In his recent illness he was provided with Penicillin and Sulfa drugs.

His funeral was held at 2 p. m. and was attended by members of the crew. He was accorded full military honors with a rifle volley fired over the grave. His grave marker which marks his place of birth as Manitowish, Wis., Sept. 1, 1944, to his death in Charlevoix,
Mich., Dec. 10, 1945.

Skippy's presence is missed and the vacancy left by his passing will probably never be filled on the Sundew.

Jordanites Lose To Fast Rayder '5'

By DAVID HAMILTON

Last Friday the "Red Rayders" won their second out of two tilt, by defeating the East Jordan '5' to the tune of 47 to 23.

The first few seconds of the game was slow, with the Jordanites making three points to the local team's two, in the first minute of play. When the quarter was two minutes old, CHS shifted into high until the horn sounded, making the score 14 to 2, and East Jordan never approached the local quintet from this point on.

In the second quarter, however,
East Jordan showed real form and ran up six more scores. This was the only time they threatened, but the teamwork on the part of "our gang" was overpowering. At the half, the score stood 27-15.

The third quarter, like the first, was slow. East Jordan tried to keep CHS down by playing a tight defensive game. But Ward and Carey kept the ball "swishing" through for many more points and at the breathing time, the score proved that our boys had played a real ball game. Score, 37-19.

In the final period, the reserves were called in for a few minutes, and Lyle King sent one basket home that won't soon be forgotten. From the center of the playing floor, he shot and without touching the rim, the ball sithered through the hoop, showing the fans that the second "Five" can also play good, clean ball.

B. Carey led CHS with 14 points, while B. Nemecheck, for the opposition, led with 11 points.

ROCK ELM

MRS. A. B. LAWTON
Reporter

It looks now as though all in this region who have been longing for a white Christmas will have their desire fulfilled, for winter seems to have come to stay.

Ed Bradley recently purchased fourty acres of cut over land from Mr. Bennett. The land is located south of the Lawton farm.

Jesse Lawton was fortunate in securing help to cut a good pile of wood before the stormy weather set in. For those not so fortunate in this kind of weather.

If the members of the Labor Union could count the cost to themselves in the loss of their wages they might be slower to strike. More men like the late Gordon Rade Nax are needed in both industry and labor.

Mr. Rudy called on Jesse Lawton Monday morning with a motor that was in need of some changes.

The snowplow came through here Sunday afternoon and it looks as though there will be plenty of work for it if the snow has is to continue to make its regular run through here.

By The Editor

Thousands of returning veterans are entering college to continue their education. Well, a college education never hurt anyone who is willing to learn something afterward.

Down in Oklahoma all but one of 6 dailies—and all but 23 of its 290 weekly newspapers stand back of the OPA—the Oklahoma Press Association.

A lot of folks are kinda excited about this reconversion. Going back to earning what they're worth bothers a lot of 'em.

A happy reunion it will be when Sgt. Charles Greeley arrives in town. He called his mother last night from New York informing her he will be home for Christmas.

Be careful on the icy streets and walks. Spending Christmas in a hospital is poor fun.

Some folks seem to forget the real significance of Christmas. The Yuletide season is not a season of "holidays," but a series of "Holy days," and should be observed as such.

Travel-hungry congressmen want to take a trip to Tokyo. Boys over there "sweating it out," awaiting passage home, will be out to welcome them.

It's better to give than to receive—Buy a gross of Christmas Seals.

"Is that ever beautiful," is the saying heard by passers-by as they viewed, with amazement the beautiful decorative windows of Min-Eva Cafe, Sugar Bowl, Central Drug store, Staley hardware, A. C. Belding and others during the past week.

The following essay, written by a Kansas school boy, has been sent to us:

AN EDITOR— "I don't know how editors and magazines get into the world, and I don't think God does, for he ain't got nothing to say about these in the Bible. If an editor makes a mistake, folks say he ought to be hung; but if the doctor makes a mistake, he buries it and the people can't say nothing because they can't read Latin. When the editor makes mistakes, there is a big lawsuit and swearing and a big fuss; but if the doctor makes one, there is a funeral with flowers and perfect silence long without him or anyone else knowing what it means; but if the editor uses one he has to spell it. If the doctor goes to see another man's wife, he charges for the visit, but if the editor goes, he gets a charge of larceny. Any college can make doctors, but editors have to be born."

From Bustles...

TO BOBBED HAIR...

To Bobby Sox

Big things have happened in women's fashions since 1904... and since 1918. Yes, and the big changes have taken place in the telephone system since bustles were "the rage."

• In 1904, Michigan Bell had only 65,000 telephones. Total cost of buildings, equipment, wires, telephones, etc., was only 10 million investment dollars.

• By 1918 there were 260,000 telephones; the cost had risen to 38 million dollars.

• Beginning in 1945 there were 1,122,000 Michigan Bell telephones, and the cost stood at 242 million investment dollars.

You see, to add more telephones, and continually improve service, we must invest more money for central offices and switchboards, more for wire and cable—more for everything it takes to provide service.

Right now, 125,000 families want service that we can't supply. We already have started work on a 5-year $120,000,000 program to enable us to fill waiting orders... to care for future growth... to resume extension of rural service... to put into use new technical improvements... and to give you the service you want in the future.

Rates charged for telephone service do not supply sufficient money for expansion. Such investment dollars must come from the savings of thrifty Americans willing to buy Bell System securities. And—in order to attract their money—earnings must be sufficient to assure reasonable dividends, now and in the future. If not, those folks will place their money elsewhere.

Too long a continuation of a rate of earnings substantially below that of other industries would weaken our ability to raise the money required to meet expected telephone needs. So the future quality of your telephone service depends on telephone rates sufficient to produce earnings attractive to investors.

Michigan Bell customers want good service. The telephone bill is so small an item in their regular expenditures that customers want really good service even though it might cost a trifle more than they would need to pay for inferior service.

Robert Trimble Leaves AAF

Pfc. Robert B. Trimble has been honorably discharged from the AAF at the Separation Center at Baer Field. He is married to the former Miss Elizabeth Mittler and they have two children, Gerald Bruce and William Dennis. He is the son of Mrs. Merle Trimble, former resident.

Pfc. Trimble's last station of active duty, was Foster Field, Texas, which is one of the many training fields in the vast Army Air Force Training Command. While in the army he was an airplane mechanic.

SERVICEMEN'S LETTERS

Pvt. Robert Vratnina, who entered the service recently, is now stationed at Camp Grant, Ill. He sends the following letter to us:

"I guess it's time I dropped you a line to let you know I have been receiving the Courier. I want to thank you very much for it. One never knows how welcome the home-town paper can be until after you're in the service.

"I am working as a typist in the Awards and Decorations division at the Separation Center at Grant. Well over a thousand men become civilians every day here. Our job is to see that they receive the decorations they earned for their deeds on the battle-fields of the world.

Camp Grant is a very large camp located near the city of Rockford, Ill. Recreation facilities are plentiful with four dances a week and 150 USO girls at each, swimming and gym at the USO and a basketball team which is going great guns right now. All the dirty work, KP and furnace detail, is taken care of by the former German supernmen.

"I sure was glad to see old CHS do so well in football and also that they have gotten off on the right foot in basketball. Keep it up, boys.

News About Those Who Have Returned

Dear Guys and Gals:

With the war over and with time on your hands we thought you might like to hear about the little things that are happening around home. You'll have a little time to think about this Christmas.

First, we have snow. Everyone's going around singing "White Christmas" and it looks as tho' we'll really have one. You should see the fellows who are seeing snow the first time for several years. They're like a bunch of kids. It does one's heart good to see them.

So many of the boys are home. We thought you might like to hear about them and what they're doing. Ed. Radle, who spent so much time in New Guinea, has worked up a little delivery business. Just leave your order at the store and Ed will see that it's delivered. "Anything delivered anywhere" is his motto—just call 748.

And as long as I'm telling you about the 32nd Division men I might as well give you the low-down on the rest of that gang. Herb Ager just got a discharge. Harold Newman got home a few weeks ago. He's just vacationing now. Frank Pop worked on his dad's farm this summer. Bob Heise, who served with Merrill's Marauders after leaving the 32nd, is now happily married to Madelyn Crites and living in Detroit. They're expecting a visit from the stork next month. Alvin Alexander, who was a replacement in the 32nd got his discharge last month and is taking it easy for the present. And don't forget Charlevoix's one-man army, Pete Sutton. He was taking it easy the last I heard. I imagine he's hunting right now. Dave Matchett's back on his dad's farm helping with the turkeys and they have plenty of them.

And then there are all those fellows who are home. Stan Evers, who had a lot of action in North Africa and Italy, is home now. Frank Winnick has been out for several weeks and is working on his brother's farm. Jim Feres got his discharge about a month ago and is working on his dad's farm. He's a lot thinner than when he came from overseas. Seems the Texas heat took a lot out of him. Bud Weststaff and his wife, the former Louise Lonselle, are back and he's working at Art Dry Cleaners. Jim Martin is home. Got his discharge at Fort Bliss, Tex., and hopes to go back to his job in Detroit after the holidays. Chick Gallagher is home now and is working here and there. He's been out several months. Bob Fochtman, who was in the SWPA in the early months of the war with the ground crew, is back in Charlevoix and is working with his dad at the Charlevoix Oil Co. Bill Eccleston is here too. He filed with the idea of going to South America with an air company but it didn't pan out so now he's thinking of going to school in Texas. Ted Ager just got here a few weeks ago. He's driving taxi for Lowell Merica in his spare time. They tell us he might return to Texas and go to school.

Bob Miller, who was an aviation cadet in Texas when the war ended, is back at his job with the Telephone company. Francis Mason, who was with the air force way back when in Australia, is now living at Central Lake.

Franklin Olmsted and Vern McGinnis, who served with the ground crew in Italy are home. Frank is going to school at Kalamazoo college and Vern is on the farm. Elmer Poole, who was a B-17 gunner in Italy, is back in East Jordan with his wife and family. He's going to take over his mother-in-law's grocery store. Clarence R. Smith, who was in India with the 10th Air Force, is back home. Ed Stinson just returned from India where he served with a photographer's outfit. He's re-enlisting for another 3 years.

Chuck Cellner has been home since last Spring. He's working on the farm. Vernon Cook has taken over his dad's farm in Hayes. David Coulter was discharged from the Navy and is now with his family at Rochester.

The Duplessis boys are home. Oliver was discharged recently and is enjoying a few weeks rest. Warren is around again. He attended the Ford Trade school for several months. Willard Drost was going there for a while but he's home now. His brother, Cecil, who was overseas for so long got home in October. He's getting a lot of hunting in right now. Irving Drost, who was stationed at Pensacola and Norfolk during the war, is home with a discharge too. I hear, Martin Elzinga is back here with his family. He sure packed a world of experience in his 18 months in the service.

Jack and Maurie Foster are home now. Jack is thinking seriously of re-enlisting in the naval air force and Maurie is working in the road commissioner's office. Steve Farulak, who went overseas without a furlough, finally got home last month. He served with an armored outfit in France and Germany. They say his brother Tony is enroute home.

Ed Gregory is back and is working for the Maxbauer's dairy. Eddie Golden, who was in England for more than two years, is home now with his wife and family. And then there are the Gill boys—Tubby, who was wounded a year ago, is discharged and is living in Sheboygan, Wis. Ben, who was home recently after being liberated from a Jap prison camp where he was held for more than 3 1/2 years, was to report at Great Lakes, Ill., last week, but his records hadn't been forwarded so he is on his way home again. By the way, he gained 15 pounds while on home leave. Bob is getting his discharge in the very near future at Camp Attlebury, Ind. He came home with the 5th Division. Frank Gendle is back at his old job in Detroit. Harry Goldstick arrived the other day with his wife and two children. He's going to be here a couple weeks before going out east where he plans to attend school. Vernon Willette, who served with the air corps in India, was discharged at Indianapolis recently.

Jim Amis, who served with the Seabees in the Pacific, has been home since last summer. He's spending the winter in Florida. Norm Ance, who was with the Navy, was discharged recently and is here on terminal leave. He's got any plans for the future. Bruce Armstrong, until recently a captain with the army overseas, is returning to his practice in Rockford, Ill.

Harry Baker, who did a grand job with medical corps in the Pacific, is visiting relatives here. He spent some time in California after he got his discharge. Gordon Bartlett is around. He was working in Detroit for a while. Bernie Boss just got back from overseas and has been visiting relatives around Ellsworth. "Big" Bergman has been getting a lot of hunting in. I think he's making up for all the years he was gone. He just got back today from Outoung where he bagged himself a nice buck. Lewie Brown is back in Petoskey at the Brown Motors. He's the same Lewie. Doug and Ken Bird were in the bird business this fall—they had a few thousand turkeys that have since gone to market. Carl Beattie, who was in the hospital for so many months after being injured early in the war, has been discharged and is visiting relatives here. He hopes to go to school. Jack Barot is around town. Guess he's helping his dad. The Bobbitt boys, Bob and Hugh, are out. Fny Bradley was discharged several weeks ago and is now in Chicago. Don't know what his plans are. Oakley Prandall was in the other day. He just got back from Simpson and is going back to his old job in Detroit. The Chambers boys, Gerry and Bill, are around. Gerry's working for his brother-in-law and Bill is vacationing after serving with the tank corps for so long.

Stan Hammond has a discharge and has returned to Lansing after visiting here. Bud Heise is around. He and June Kibbee were married last summer, you remember, after he returned from overseas. Dick Hull went back to Great Lakes last week to get his discharge. He was on a Liberty ship in the Pacific for ages. Ralph Hoffman, who was in the hospital for months after being wounded in France, is discharged. He spent some time in Charlevoix this summer. Bobby Herington, who spent 14 months in the Pacific, and Norm Honck, who was cooking at Little Creek, Va., are both home with discharges. Arland Howe got home last week with one too.

Guy John was discharged from some camp in California and is supposed to be here before long. Lyle Beaudoin is discharged too. He was here for several weeks but left recently for Cincinnati where he was working before the war.

Charlie Kudlik, who was stationed at Langley Field, Va., came home several weeks ago. Forrest Kerr returned from Europe about a month ago and is going to live in Flint, I hear. Johnny Kuchak, who was in the Navy, has been discharged and is back in Chicago.

Bob Livingston, who served overseas with the first army through so many invasions, is working at the State Bank. Doug Livingston, who was discharged in October, is now deer-hunting in the upper peninsula. Bill got home a few weeks ago. He has no plans 'til after the holidays. Franklin Left, who served in the Merchant Marine, is back at his place of business, the Chateaub, and doing alright by himself.

Omer McGinn is back at the postoffice again. Will return to school after the holidays. Ralph Mitchell returned from Italy recently and hopes to attend a trade school after a much earned rest from the infantry.

Bobby McGuff and Tom Gray who served in the Seabees together for more than three years, were discharged at Great Lakes last week and made it home for Thanksgiving. Tom plans to work with his dad. His wife, the former Esther Hansen, met him in Detroit. Buddy will stay home for a while. Lorna Matchett, who served with the army nurses corps in Iran and later in France, is on terminal leave. She's having herself a time at the present.

The Miles brothers are home. Keith and Lyle. Both plan to attend a photographer's school, the grapevine says. Lowell Merica is home from the Navy and he and his wife, the former Julia Glados, have taken over the old Sugar Bowl. They have big plans about. Clarence McMahon is now out in Oakland, Calif., we hear.

Keith Nickerson is home. He and his dad are hunting right now. Nick hasn't any special plans 'til after the holidays. He may return to school. Emile Nowland is in Flint with his wife. He was discharged this month at Fort Bliss after returning from overseas. He's bigger than ever.

Frank Oels is back in the Central Drug with his dad. Jay Oliver has been back for several months and is working at Art Dry Cleaners. Gilbert Powers is here. He and his wife are living at the McCurtchys. He just got back from a hunting trip and didn't get a thing. Marvin Pederson is home from Europe and is on a hunting trip up north with his brother-in-law, Marv Dixon, who was discharged in September. Bert Pearl has arrived from the west coast to join his wife and twin sons. Orlo Plumm stopped here recently while enroute to the Soo to join his folks. He was discharged.

Sheridan Root, who served in the Navy, is back on his farm. Albert Russell is back with his family. Emerson Rice is enroute home from the Pacific for a discharge. Orville Shannanquet is home from Italy and has gone to Detroit to work. Warren Shapton is home on terminal leave from the Navy. Right now he's hunting with his dad. Carlton Smith, who served in the SWPA in the early days of the war is home with his wife and child. Eddie Thorp is back to stay and his brother, Albert, expects to be out in a few months.

Harley Warner is home. So is Harry Potter after serving in the ground crew of the air force. Jim Whitely is home from Italy. Jack Withers is home after serving with the Navy in both the Atlantic and Pacific. Forrest Wagner came home recently from Europe and plans to live in Detroit. Keith Wagner came home last week to meet his young 17 months old son for the first time. They're getting along very well. Arlio Wasag-shik who served in the Pacific and in Europe with the army is home with a discharge. Bruce Withers is back. He's been doing some hunting with his father-in-law out in the Dakotas. John Walker has a discharge from a camp in California. Eli Wagner, who has been in since June, 1941, was discharged this week. He served in Alaska and later in Europe. Jim Novotny, who served in New Guinea and the Philippines has a discharge.

Lots of boys are on their way home. Father Collins is enroute home from the Philippines on temporary duty leave. Bill Supernaw was supposed to sail on Thanksgiving day, aboard the Queen Mary. Ery Ruegnel is awaiting transportation from 17 hours. John Duttcher arrived in the States last week for a discharge. Claire Stevens is in a hospital at San Diego and hopes to be out by Christmas. John Martin went back to Camp Campbell, Ky., last week for a discharge. He served in Europe with the 5th Division.

We hope we haven't missed anyone in the thumb-nail-sketches. There are many of the boys and girls still in. We hope with all our hearts that before many months of 1946 have passed you will all be back in good 'ole Charlevoix the Beautiful! Until then you may have a happy Christmas and may the New Year bring you everything your hearts desire.

CSO Chairman Gives Resume of Activities

The Charlevoix Service Organization has been in existence since you left these shores and those in charge have tried, by various means and methods, to help both those in service and the returning veterans.

The CSO was instrumental in forming a Veterans Council for Charlevoix County, and through the help of the Board of Supervisors, now maintains a full time Veterans Counselor who is at the disposal of the returning soldier and his immediate family. There are many advantages that you may obtain upon your discharge from the Service and we are here to help you in any way possible to do so.

At the present time we are inaugurating a contest where suggestions are asked as to the most suitable memorial that could be maintained in future years for those boys who gave everything for us. We invite your suggestions.

We wish to convey our holiday greetings through the assistance of this Special Overseas Edition and also inform all of you in the Service that you may feel free to contact the CSO at any time with any problem confronting you. We shall do our utmost to help you.

Now that Peace is here,
And boys are coming home;
The light will still be shining
On the pier in the little Red Dome

Now the lights of the world are ablaze again, And things are back as they were before, And kids all laugh on the streets once more; And the Axis flags are dipped and furled And God looks down on a Peaceful World.	With gratitude for the past and in earnest Prayer for the future That God's richest blessings may ever rest upon you, We wish you a Merry Christmas.
--	--

The black storm clouds of war are gone;
We face the future bright with hope.
And faith is strong within our breast,
And glad songs issue from our throats.

A Christmas day draws near again;
A million hearts are light and gay,
For joyous peace reigns o'er the world,
God grant that it be here to stay.

Charles Dickens Club Entertain

The Charles Dickens Club entertained the members of the Shakespeare Club with a delightful Christmas tea, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Ranger, with Mrs. Clarence Wood and Mrs. Archie Livingston, assisting. Special guests were the daughters of members of both clubs. The house was attractively decorated with the Christmas season. Mrs. Wilber Clark, vice-president of the Dickens Club, who presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. John Reed, welcomed the assembled guests and introduced the first number on the program, a piano solo, "Tartan Ribbon" by Liszt, played by Miss Gwendolyn Miller. The speaker of the afternoon, Prof. Roy Swinton, of the University of Michigan, was then introduced to the sixty guests present. Prof. Swinton spoke most interestingly on his experiences while interned at the Santa Tomas Japanese prison camp in Manila, for almost three years. At the conclusion of Prof. Swinton's lecture, he invited the guests to ask questions concerning the country, the people and conditions in general, as they exist at the present time, as well as during his internment. The program concluded with those assembled singing "God Bless America," after which the hostesses invited the guests to a most attractive table decorated in the club colors, where they served daintily decorated open faced sandwiches, Christmas cookies and fruit punch.

Octogenarian

CHRIST DROST

Christ Drost, retired woodsman and farmer, will celebrate his eightieth birthday anniversary on Christmas Day. "Now that my three sons are home from overseas, it will be the happiest Christmas and birthday I've had in many a year," he said. In honor of the occasion, a family gathering will be held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Nina Ouderkerk, 403 Mason st., with whom he had made his home since 1941. "Pop," as he is called by his many friends, is a familiar figure in Charlevoix and surrounding cities. He walks to town every day, does a bit of farming during the summer months and spends a great deal of time looking after his "boys". He even does some hunting each fall and although he rarely fills his license, he enjoys being in the woods. No one enjoys life more than Pop and no one brings more happiness to others than he. Born at Holland, Michigan, on December 25, 1865, of Dutch parents, he came to the Grand Traverse district at the age of 14. He worked as a lumberman and riverman throughout northern Michigan during the colorful logging days. In 1900 he and his wife, the former Nellie Brown, whom he had married at Bellaire on May 2, 1900, settled on a farm in Marlow township. Mrs. Drost passed away on September 13, 1938. He continued to live there until he retired from farming in 1941 and moved into Charlevoix. The "boys" he's always talking about are George, who moved recently from Alpena to Portland, Ind.; Ben, who resides on the family farm in Marlow township; Louis, Cecil and Willard, who have been discharged from the army after serving a combined total of 113 months, 92 months of that time was spent overseas. He also has 13 grandchildren.

"Merry Christmas" this year is true
As never heretofore,
Lift up your heart, it is your due,
For there is war no more.

Christmas comes once again to an America at peace. With thankfulness and joy we enter this Yuletide season, complete in its spirit of happiness and merriment. It is in this self-same spirit that the Courier welcomes the holiday season, and wishes for you a Christmas rich in happiness and hope.

Just one year ago America entered the holiday season with heavy hearts and burdened minds. Christmas, 1944 was our nation's fourth successive wartime Christmas. Some of us were fortunate enough to enjoy the Christmas holidays in our own homes, far from the discomforts and dangers of war. Millions of others were not so fortunate.

Among the men on the fighting fronts of the world Christmas, 1944, were many from Charlevoix. This holiday season finds many of those veterans of World War II home again, some of them for their first Christmas with their families since the declaration of war. In wishing these discharged veterans who served in our behalf during the past four long years of war, an especially joyous Christmas, we express our gratitude to them for their help in bringing peace to our nation and world once again.

During the past year, the Courier has attempted to bring you the views of our boys and girls overseas. We have published accounts of them in England, France, the Pacific, Italy and at sea. We have learned how servicemen at war feel away from home.

At this Christmastime, 1945, we are glad to see so many of them reunited with loved ones at home. To all of them at home and abroad, and to you, the Courier extends sincere wishes for a Christmas filled with joy, happiness and peace. The Publisher.

Rayders Are Victors Over Gaylord Quintet

By David Hamilton

Friday, the Charlevoix fans watched breathlessly while the Red Rayders fell slightly and then pulled ahead and out of sight of the Gaylord Lions. The score of this exciting game was 44-23. Ward led the Rayders with 15 points. The first quarter Charlevoix fell behind at first, but slowly gained in a tight game with the fans going wild watching Gaylord pile point on point. But CUS soon got the initiative and the first quarter ended with the Rayders ahead by two points.

The second quarter opened slow but in the last few seconds everyone ran like a mad and the horn blew on one of the fastest quarters ever seen in Charlevoix. Capt. Hardy and Bill Carey sent many baskets home in this quarter to set the score at the half at 19-12.

The second half opened and it looked like CUS would win hands down. But bad luck soon followed with Capt. Hardy out with a sprained ankle, the Rayders slaved od down and Gaylord gave them a run but after getting started the locals soon had everything in smooth, running order. Ward ran up 8 points on two minutes to even the score for Hardy. And the quarter ended 34-23.

The fourth quarter CUS kept the visitors down to 5 points while giving themselves 19 more and Coach Kipke and his boys were victorious while Coach Carlson's lads left taking the short end of a 44-26 tilt.

New Order For Enlistees

Navy Recruiting Stations all over the country are initiating an all out drive for voluntary enlistments, particularly in the Regular Navy, among men in the age group 17 to 30 inclusive, who are now eligible for Executive Order of President Truman. Men who have not been in uniform as well as those recently discharged through the Army and Navy demobilization plan are sought through this recruiting drive. Seal Sale Going Good Michigan's 39th annual sale of tuberculosis Christmas seals is making good progress over the state as a whole, although the returns are not up to last year's, according to Curtis M. Wylie, of Grand Rapids, president of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association. One reason for the slight decrease in returns, Mr. Wylie pointed out, may be the fact that many contributors of former years are on strike. As soon as the current labor problems are settled and they return to work, it is expected they will send their contributions. This year's sale is expected to raise about $450,000 in the state, Mr. Wylie said. Any substantial decrease in this amount will mean a lessening of services brought to the people of Michigan by the association, as it is hoped that such a step may be avoided. "If the sale lives up to our expectations," Mr. Wylie said, "the association will be able to maintain at its present levels a state-wide program of child and adult health education, case finding and rehabilitation of tuberculosis patients. The program carried out by the association is designed to inform people all over the state about tuberculosis and to help them protect themselves from this dread disease.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTERS

Quotation—What's the world coming to, anyway?

Answer—It's coming to a better day, when God's kingdom will be set up. Daniel 2:44: "And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed."

Q.—Will Adam be raised from the dead? Some say he will not.

A.—Jesus says to John 5:28,29: "Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice, and shall come forth."

Q.—Are not people who talk about the end of the world fanatics?

A.—Jesus spoke about that great event, as we see from Matthew 13:39: "The harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels." (See also Matthew 24:14; 28:20.)

Q.—Who is Balaam (2 Corinthians 6:15)?

A.—Balaam is one of nearly forty names for the devil. (See Deuteronomy 13:13.)

Q.—Why are the Ten Commandments given in different form to Deuteronomy 5? They are not quite the same there as in Exodus 20.

A.—Exodus 20 is the original law as given by the Lord on Mount Sinai. Deuteronomy 5 is Moses' rehearsal of it about forty years later.

Q.—What does the Bible say about foreign missions?

A.—Our land is foreign to other lands. Christ was a foreign missionary, for He came from heaven to earth. And He said: "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." Matthew 28:19. (See Matthew 24:14.)

Q.—Does the Bible uphold astrology?

A.—We reply by quoting Jeremiah 10:2: "Thus saith the Lord, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them." Notice also the words of Isaiah 47:13,14: "Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee. Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it."

A LESSON FROM THE MULE

He's mighty useful, the mule. Feed him right and he'll pull all day, no matter how heavy the load or how tough the going.

But the feeding is important. If he gets too little, day after day, he grows weak. So when you buy a mule, you're more interested in how much he can pull than in how little you can feed him.

Your Telephone Company pulls a heavy load, too, and for the past three war years the going has been tough. Handling more business than ever before, Michigan Bell has had its largest gross income. But wages, taxes, and other costs have gone up even faster, so net earnings are far below the pre-war rate—far below the earnings of other industries.

It's like underfeeding the mule. If earnings are not sufficient, the Company's ability to pull the load becomes weakened.

Michigan Bell customers want good service. The telephone bill is so small an item in their regular expenditures that customers want really good service even though it might cost a trifle more than they would need to pay for inferior service.

To give you the kind of service you want in the future, when and where you want it, Michigan Bell is undertaking a 5-year $120,000,000 post-war program of expansion and improvement. Money to finance that program must come from the savings of people who want to make a sound investment. But if prospects for future Telephone Company earnings are unattractive compared with those of other companies, they won't supply the money we need. They'll place their savings elsewhere.

Too long a continuation of a rate of earnings substantially below that of other industries would weaken our ability to raise the money required to meet expected telephone needs. So the future quality of your telephone service depends on telephone rates sufficient to produce earnings attractive to investors.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTER

Question—The Bible says that the stars would fall. But if one star should fall, it would destroy the earth, for stars are suns.
 Answer—Motors are called "falling stars." In fulfillment of Christ's prophecy of Matthew 24:29, the greatest meteoric shower of history occurred on November 13, 1833.
 Q—Do you think that modern transportation by train, automobile, or airplane was foreseen by the Bible writers?
 A—How about Daniel 12:4: "Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased?"
 Q—Don't you think that even the forms of Christian worship will pass away in the latter days?
 A—No! Read 2 Timothy 3:16: "This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves . . . having a form of godliness."
 Q—Can you tell me what verse in the Bible contains all the letters of the alphabet?
 A—The nearest to it is Ezra 7:21 which contains all but "I." Check it and see!
 Q—Where is the text that says the time is coming when nobody will be able to buy or sell?
 A—The text does not say that, but rather "that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name." Revelation 13:17.
 Q—Don't you know that only Abraham's descendants, the Israelites, will inherit the new earth?
 A—Yes, but who are Abraham's descendants according to the Bible? We read Galatians 3:29: "And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." If we are true Christians, we shall share with Abraham the promise that he should be heir of the world. (Romans 4:13.)
 Q—Do you think there will be a definite day when God will judge men, or are they being judged all the time?
 A—In Acts 17:30-31 we read: "And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: because He hath appointed a day, in the which He will judge the world in righteousness by that Man whom He hath ordained; whereof He hath given assurance unto all men, in that He hath raised Him from the dead."

Come peace or war the real spiritual celebration of Christ's Birthday reminds us always of the teachings of the Saviour, teachings that were promulgated to bring true peace to each individual striving to reach the Kingdom of Heaven. In times of depression or prosperity, the benefits of Christ's Coming are within reach of every one willing to forsake blind personal and selfish interests in favor of the loving rule of the Infant King. We receive the true blessings of Christmas only in the measure that we give of ourselves to Christ during the year. The human heart is the Infant's special throne; His blessings come to those who have room for Him there!

May the love of Christ fill your hearts and guide your ways! May the Blessings of the Infant Saviour visit you and your loved ones this Blessed Christmas Day!

Holiday Greetings

To each of us the word Christmas summons many happy memories. To some it recalls a ride over the frozen countryside to grandma's, sleigh-bells tinkling all the while. To others it recalls happy reunions in birth-filled living rooms, gay banquets and glowing Christmas trees. But to all it recalls days of charm and endearment, the happiest days of our lives.

May you know this happiness in all its fullness once again, dear friends, this Christmas season of 1945.

Postmen Handle Record Mail

Deluge of Christmas Cards Biggest in History

With the Christmas rush behind them, the local post office employees are taking a well-earned breather. While the present train schedule is not too popular with the public, it proved to be a lifesaver for the postmen this year in handling one of the largest Christmas mails in its history.

Outgoing mails leaving in the morning instead of the afternoon helped a great deal to keep to a minimum a large group which in former years congregated in the lobby between the hours of one and three every afternoon during the Christmas rush. This also permitted the employees to work as late in the night as necessary to have the mail ready for dispatch in the morning, which meant until 10 or 11 o'clock.

The parcel post mail was not as heavy this year, undoubtedly due to the shortage of gifts. However, this was made up by the flood of Christmas cards. No count is available on incoming cards, according to Postmaster Foster, but approximately 60,000 were sent out by Charlevoix citizens.

The local staff was augmented during the holiday period by the efficient and willing hands (and feet) of Omer J. McCann and David Hamilton.

"North Shore" Purchased Tuesday from Wisconsin Firm at Cost of $10,000

Announcement is made today of the purchase of the motorship "North Shore" by Capt. Leroy Allers, of the Charlevoix-Beaver Island Transit Co. Line.

The boat was brought here on Tuesday. Capt. Allers, assisted by James H. Gallagher, of Beaver Island, and William Gibson, of Charlevoix, brought her from Washington Island, Wis., a distance of 90 miles, in 9 hours and 10 minutes.

Built by the Berger Brothers, at Manitowish, Wis., in 1931, the ship was first operated as a passenger boat from Milwaukee to Juno Park. Later it made the Benton Harbor-Milwaukee run as a fruit boat. Nine years ago it was taken to Washington Island where it was pressed into service for the Gill's Rock-Washington Island run.

Allers purchased the boat from Carl Richter and son, Arni, at a cost of $10,000.

The boat is a third class motorship and is just under 65 feet in length. It has a beam of 20 feet 4 inches and will carry 100 passengers and 7 cars.

Capt. Allers expects to put the boat into service next season. It will be in operation from Beaver Island to Charlevoix, while the Mary Margaret will operate from Charlevoix to Beaver Island.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTER Question—What does Emmanuel mean?

Answer—We are told in Matthew 1:23: "Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us."

Q.—Were there not some times when Christ did not agree with the Father, but taught differently?

A.—They always agreed. Jesus said: "For I have not spoken of Myself; but the Father which sent Me, He gave Me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak." John 12:49.

Q.—Who was this person called the "Word" in John 1:1?

A.—The answer is in verse 14: "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth."

Q.—Can't you give a text for husbands as well as for wives?

A.—Yes. Ephesians 5:25: "Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave Himself for it."

Q.—Isn't it true that we are to accept Christ's words, but not Moses' words in the Old Testament?

A.—Christ said: "For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed Me; for he wrote of Me. But it ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe My words?" John 5:46,47.

Q.—I don't believe in setting time for Christ to come. Why do people do it?

A.—Jesus said: "But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but My Father only." Matthew 24:36. He will come unexpectedly. "Therefore, he ye also ready; for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." Verse 44.

Q.—Is it true that the people in Old Testament days didn't know anything about salvation or the grace of Christ?

A.—Let the Scripture answer. "Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow." 1 Peter 1:10,11.

A LESSON FROM THE MULE

He's mighty useful, the mule. Feed him right and he'll pull all day, no matter how heavy the load or how tough the going.

But the feeding is important. If he gets too little, day after day, he grows weak. So when you buy a mule, you're more interested in how much he can pull than in how little you can feed him.

Your Telephone Company pulls a heavy load, too, and for the past three war years the going has been tough. Handling more business than ever before, Michigan Bell has had its largest gross income. But wages, taxes, and other costs have gone up even faster, so net earnings are far below the pre-war rate—far below the earnings of other industries.

It's like underfeeding the mule. If earnings are not sufficient, the Company's ability to pull the load becomes weakened.

Michigan Bell customers want good service. The telephone bill is so small an item in their regular expenditures that customers want really good service even though it might cost a trifle more than they would need to pay for inferior service.

To give you the kind of service you want in the future, when and where you want it, Michigan Bell is undertaking a 5-year $120,000,000 post-war program of expansion and improvement. Money to finance that program must come from the savings of people who want to make a sound investment. But if prospects for future Telephone Company earnings are unattractive compared with those of other companies, they won't supply the money we will need. They'll place their savings elsewhere.

Too long a continuation of a rate of earnings substantially below that of other industries would weaken our ability to raise the money required to meet expected telephone needs. So the future quality of your telephone service depends on telephone rates sufficient to produce earnings attractive to investors.

OUR $120,000,000 POST-WAR PROGRAM MEANS JOBS FOR THOUSANDS

"Me... I'm staying in the Army!"

THERE ARE PLENTY OF REASONS...
AND HERE THEY ARE!

- "First, I keep my present grade. That means a lot."
- "By reenlisting for 3 years I can pick my own branch of service in the Air, Ground or Service Forces, and can go to any overseas theater I wish."
- "I get my mustering-out pay, even though I'm reenlisting. Also, I get $50 a year reenlistment bonus for each year I've been in the Army. My dependents receive family allowances for the full term of my enlistment. And I'll be eligible for GI Bill of Rights benefits when I get out of the Army."
- "My food, clothes, quarters, medical and dental care are all supplied to me. And I can learn any of 200 skills or trades in the Army schools."
- "All of us who are reenlisting are going to have from 30 to 90 days' furlough at home with full pay and our travel paid both ways. And we'll have 30 days' furlough every year with pay."
- "Any time after 20 years I can retire at half pay increasing year by year to three-quarters retirement pay after 30 years of service. And the time I've already served in active military or naval service counts toward my retirement time. Added up—reenlistment seems pretty sound to me!"

JANUARY 31, 1946

BLACK BEAUTY

Suits are indispensable in the wardrobe of every well-dressed woman. Tailored suits are excellent for the business girl. The trim, feminine lines of a well-tailored, well-groomed suit make the most of her figure and her good looks, and their simplicity is appropriate to her job. And a suit that can stay out after dark will take you dining and dancing.

The blouse of this smart restaurant suit by Fashion Frocks is fashioned of striped rayon faille, with a flit of a peplum that flares out from the waist. The slim, plain-colored faille skirt plays a pretty "second fiddle" to the high-styled blouse.

Many a bride will be married in a suit when Johnny comes marching home, a suit that can do double duty for practical wear after the honeymoon.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTER

Question—What is the longest chapter in the Bible?
Answer—The 119th Psalm with 176 verses.

Q.—Are there any parables in the Old Testament?
A.—Yes, many. For instance, (the parable of the trees making a king, Judges 9:8-15).

Q.—What is meant by a creed?
A.—It is from the Latin word "credo" — "I believe" — and is a statement of belief or doctrine.

Q.—About how much time elapsed between the last of the Old Testament?—A hundred years?
A.—About four hundred years.

Q.—Was Matthew one of the twelve apostles?
A.—He was. (See Mark 2:14.) Before his conversion he was a publican, or tax collector. (Matthew 10:3.)

Q.—How long was Noah's ark?
A.—If the length of the ancient cubit is accepted as 21 inches, the ark was about 525 feet long. (Genesis 6:15.)

Q.—Where is the text that says, "Cleanliness is next to godliness"?
A.—There is no such text in the Bible. Isaiah 1:16 says: "Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil."

Q.—What became of the gold from Solomon's temple?
A.—When the Romans took Jerusalem, they carried much treasure to Rome. When Rome was captured by Alaric about A. D. 460 much gold was taken from the city and later buried in his tomb—some say in a riverbed in Italy. Some of the treasure of Rome, including the golden enstatelion from the temple at Jerusalem, was carried off to Africa by the Vandals, and has not been found since.

Q.—The word "ark" seems to refer to more than one thing in the Bible—what are they?
A.—(1). Noah's ark — a ship, Genesis 6:14-16; 8:1-13. (2). Moses' ark—a little boatlike cradle in which his mother hid the baby Moses in the flags on the bank of the Nile. Exodus 2:3-5. (3). God's ark—the ark of the covenant, or testimony—a gold covered box in which the stone tablets of the Ten Commandments were placed. Exodus 25:10-22; 37:1-9; Hebrews 9:4; 1 Kings 8:9; 11 Chronicles 5:2; 1 Samuel 3:3.

Fixing Up the Farm by BURTON WILLIAMS

Handling Asbestos Board
THE steadily increasing use of asbestos board on the farm has aroused much interest in this versatile material. Asbestos board is similar in character to a sheet of stone of even thickness. Its stone-like qualities give it many individual advantages which will more than compensate for a little extra care in handling.

In lifting and carrying, do not grip the board by the corners. Holding it along the side causes less strain. Avoid throwing or dropping on the ground. Use large-headed nails and keep them at least half an inch from the edges of the board.

15 to 18 million new cars needed! Making them will mean jobs!

Over 2,000,000 new trucks needed! Building them will build jobs!

Millions of cars need gas, oil, and parts. More jobs for workers!

Jobs by the carload! On railroads! In factories, banks, stores!

Postwar Jobs—Delivered by Automobile!

FEW of our basic industries contain as many postwar opportunities as the business of making and selling automobiles.

In almost no other industry is the pent-up demand for postwar products so apparent. At least 15 to 18 million people want new cars—and want them just as soon as they can get them! 5,000 cars are wearing out and leaving the roads every day. And for many months there will be more demand than our factories can possibly supply. Over and above this, more than 2,000,000 new trucks are needed.

Building these cars and trucks will mean jobs—in mines, mills, and factories. Jobs on farms. Jobs in machine shops. More jobs on the railroads that haul raw materials and parts for making automobiles—as well as the finished product.

In addition, the manufacture of tires and parts, and the selling and servicing of automotive equipment, can mean the employment of hosts of other workers. It can mean additional jobs in the country's 250,000 gasoline stations, 85,000 independent service shops, 35,000 car agencies! It can mean jobs in banks and in offices, in the service trades and in the professions!

Here's one of the greatest opportunities for mass employment, mass buying power, mass prosperity, that any nation has ever had! And the automobile industry is just one of many great enterprises along the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Nickel Plate, and the Pere Marquette, that are preparing for greater production than ever before—to satisfy the demands of all of us—and by so doing to multiply jobs and opportunities in this country!

Local Banks Pay Intangible Tax This Year

The Charlevoix State Savings Bank and the Charlevoix County State Bank have paid the tax assessed against deposits in these banks and all depositors are therefore exempt from the tax, as far as it applies to their deposits in the banks, during the year 1945.

Bankers, generally, throughout the State, have expressed opinions to the effect that taxing the thrift of our citizens is not the proper thing to do, but, for the present, most banks will assume and pay the tax for depositors.

Guests of the meeting were Roy G. Bennett, superintendent of schools; Cpl. Eugene H. Bergmann, and Sgt. Paul Perry Smith.

Aims of Bureau Given by President of Local Farmers

A pep meeting and dinner was held Monday noon for Charlevoix County Farm Bureau captains and workers which signals the opening of the annual roll call which officially begins Thursday morning, Jan. 10. Lee Sneathen, of Charlevoix, who is roll call manager, presided at the meeting.

Wesley Hawley, district Farm Bureau representative, addressed the group on the subject, "Farming—A Family Enterprise."

"Our goal, as established by the state formula, is 214 members for 1946, but our aim is to solicit the membership of every farmer who wants a voice in shaping the future of agriculture," said Harold Totten, president of the County organization. "We will pass that goal if you workers will explain to your neighbors what the Farm Bureau has done for them in the past and what they can expect in the future."

Seven captains will assist Mr. Sneathen in directing the roll call. They are: Marion, E. E. McGinn; South Arm, Delbert Ingalls; Duwood, O. D. Hilton; Ironton, Albert Carlson; Barnard, Jasper Warner; Peninsula, Theodor Westernman; and Hayes, Peter Winnick.

In addition to the present membership of 167 Farm Bureau members, Charlevoix County is proud of having 11 Community Farm Bureau discussion groups and one Junior Farm Bureau organization. Part of the program for the coming year is to increase membership in both the family discussion groups and the young peoples activities. A new and interesting division of the program is the newly organized Michigan Farm Bureau Women's activities. Hereafter, women were considered part of the family membership and usually did not participate actively, but beginning with the current year, the chairman of the Michigan Farm Bureau women automatically becomes a member of the Board of Directors of the Michigan Farm Bureau.

Rayders Continue Winning Streak

By David A. Hamilton

Again this time over a very determined Pellston team. The final score was 41-11, but that doesn't tell the whole story, as Pellston gave Charlevoix a run for their money and then some.

The game opened with Pellston doing everything fast. The "Yellowjackets" were the first to score and during the initial quarter kept "CIS" hopping. "Laughing" Ward proved his worth in this quarter by tallying 6 of the 12 points to set the score at 12-0.

In the second quarter, the Rayders ran over the Yellowjackets and literally wore them out. Although Charlevoix didn't have the ball much of the time, but they scored plenty to bring themselves away out in front at half time 23-5.

The third stanza opened very slow with neither team doing any scoring until midway through the period, when Pellston scored 4 fast points to show the locals that they were still in the game. But "CIS" proved proved over-whelming in the quarter ended 32-0.

Last quarter saw both teams trying to out-run each other, but several fast plays gave the Rayders the edge over the Jackets. Capt. Hardy, in right forward position, and R. Carey in pivot, sent 8 of the 12 points swishing home.

It's a fact, as we figured it out that B. Ward, Capt. Hardy and R. Carey each scored 12 points in this game to tie for first place. W. Carey accounted for 7. For the opposition, Dulch had 1, and Capt. Coffin scored 3.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

HARRY: "I don't know what they'll weigh up, Judge, but my cattle and poultry sure have been gettin' fatter since I started to use distillers' dried grains in their ration."

OLD JUDGE: "You're about the tenth one who has told me that, Harry. How do you account for it?"

HARRY: "The by-product recovered from grains used by distillers is very high in vitamin and protein content. It's the best feed supplement we can get to balance the rations we feed our dairy cows, livestock and poultry. Mixed with original grain, these distillers' dried grains have a much greater feeding value than the original grain has."

OLD JUDGE: "Have any trouble getting all you need?"

HARRY: "Yes, at times, even though the distillers produced 1,200,000,000 pounds of it for the year endin' last June. I hope they'll be in a position to produce a lot more next year."

OLD JUDGE: "Then I guess nobody can tell you grain is wasted in distilling."

HARRY: "Not me, Judge... I know."

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Rose Observed Sixty-First Wedding Anniversary Last Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. Mason S. (Sam) Rose observed their sixty-first wedding anniversary on Tuesday. The couple were married at the Methodist church in Elk Rapids on January 22, 1885, by the Rev. J. Golden. They have resided in Charlevoix since May, 1894.

Mr. Rose, who has been active in civic affairs, was born in a log cabin near Cass in Allegan county, Michigan, the son of Mason and Sybil Rose. His father was a veteran of the Civil War and is buried in the National Cemetery at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. Rose came to northern Michigan in 1881 and resided in Petoskey where he was employed as a barber. In 1882 he went to East Jordan and lived there for five years. From there he went to Elk Rapids where he resided until coming to Charlevoix. He has lived here since then except for three years spent at St. Ignace and Mackinac Island.

Mr. Rose's interests were many. He was a deep-sea diver and laid the first water-main across the channel between Round lake and Lake Michigan in 1892. Later he repaired the main. In 1893 he laid a 24 inch pipe across the river at Columbus, Ga. He also sailed the Great Lakes and still has his Master's papers for all tonnage in the Lakes. He was master of the steamer Eric L. Hackley and later held part interest in the R. J. Gordon of the Tannery Company of Boyne City. He also operated tugs which would bring the schooner into the harbor to unload their freight.

He served as a village trustee before Charlevoix was incorporated into a city in 1905 and a mayor and council form of government was adopted. He was the first alderman from the second ward. He served five terms as mayor of Charlevoix—1908-09 and from 1917 through 1920 inclusive. He was also a supervisor for four years and was city assessor for two years.

He operated a barber shop until December 14, 1943, when he retired. Since then he has spent a great deal of time in his garden.

Mrs. Rose, the former Lizzie Campbell, was born at Allen on January 6, 1867, and lived at East Jordan and Elk Rapids before coming here.

When asked what her hobby has been, Mrs. Rose said that housekeeping has always been her main interest and hobby.

Both have been active in fraternal affairs. Mr. Rose is a member of the Blue Lodge and a High Priest in the High Arch of the Masonic Order. At one time he was a member of the IOOF, the Maclodges and the Lake Tug Protective Association. Mrs. Rose is a charter member of the Rebekah lodge and has been a member of the Maclodges lodge. Both are life members of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Their only son, Mason H. Rose, died at North Hollywood, Calif., on August 27, 1943. Their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Catherine Deibel Rose, resides at Sarasota, Fla. She formerly taught in the Charlevoix schools.

They have three grandsons, Mason, Jr., of Los Angeles, Hal D. of Beverly Hills, and Jack, of Beverly Hills, and three great-grandchildren.

"I am up in the mountains at our cabin, among tall pine trees, the temperature is 78 to 80 degrees during the day and 40 to 50 degrees at night. Trees and shrubs are a beautiful green. Coyotes howl at night. It's wonderful."

"Homes are among the trees and roads wind in and out. Looks similar to Boulder Park or Bay View without Lake Michigan. We have lights, gas, etc. Postoffice, store and dining hall are on the main road."

"I often think of my good friends at home. I get the Courier and keep up with home news. So get your names in the Courier occasionally."

Grand-daughter of Former Courier Owner Entertained By Chinese Ruler

Miss Jean Hampton, grand-daughter of Will E. Hampton, who was an early owner and publisher of the Courier, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hampton, who now reside here, has been with a "WAC" detachment in India and China for many months and writes the letter below from Shanghai where her detachment has been waiting for transfer home.

Hello everybody:

It's been approximately a month since four trucks and three staff cars carried 30 lucky girls out to Generalissimo's estate in Chungking as to-time guests. One of the nice things about it was we left work early in the afternoon in order to attend. It was a long and extremely dusty ride and our off-duty dresses so spotless and meticulously pressed for the occasion were in a sad state upon arrival to the Chinese leader's lovely mountain estate. However, we clambered out of the clumsy vehicles with the prayerful hope the reception committee consisting of the local "Women's Advisory Service Council" would understand the social inconveniences of being in the army.

We followed the party along a stone path through the gardens and had up to a long summer hall where we were to be entertained. Along three sides of the room were sufficient chairs for us and along the fourth side of the room, done in beautifully carved wood paneling, were chairs for Madame and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

We had scarcely been seated before Madame Chiang Kai-Shek entered. She was dressed in a stunning black silk crepe dress with Chinese style collar and slits up either leg. It fitted her beautifully. A red handbag and high-heeled sandals shoes provided contrast. Her hair was swept up and off her face and helped add a few more inches to her diminutive stature. All eyes were upon her as she walked with grace and poise to her seat, then tea was served. There were cakes and cookies and meat balls and strange Chinese tidbits which were very good. Soon the rumor went around the Generalissimo was coming. We were so thrilled. As he stepped into the room all rose to attention. See GRANDDAUGHTER, Page 4

Clothing Drive Is Conducted by St. Mary's Church

3,000,000 People Will Be Saved If Help Can Be Sent Them This Winter

The hungry and needy in the war-torn countries of the world cry out for help to the more fortunate people of this country. According to a conservative estimate, because of lack of sufficient food, clothing and shelter, 3,000,000 of these people will perish this winter! This figure would equal the population of more than 2,000 cities the size of Charlevoix.

As in the Canned Food Collection, so in this Victory Clothes Collection, St. Mary's Church is conducting a drive for clothing for the needy of Europe and in the Far East. The clothing collected will be shipped to UNRRA depots; distribution will be made to all people in need, regardless of race, color or creed.

The rallying cry for this collection was sounded by the letter of the Most Reverend Francis J. Haas, Bishop of the Grand Rapids Diocese. It read in part:

"The United Nations Clothing Collection Committee on behalf of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration UNRRA will conduct a nationwide clothing campaign for war sufferers in Europe and the Far East, ending Jan. 31. The campaign, to be known as the 'Victory Clothes Collection,' will seek to gather and ship 100,000,000 usable garments, in addition to bedding and shoes."

Any article of wearing apparel, for summer or winter use, will be gladly received. It does not have to be in complete repair, but if washable, should be washed, without ironing, before being turned in.

The aim of this campaign should commend itself to the highest motives of Christian charity.

Anyone having shoes, clothing or bedding to donate is invited to bring these articles to St. Mary's School Hall. Packing and shipment of all clothes collected will be taken care of by members of St. Mary's Altar Society and shipment will be made to designated depots. All distribution of these clothes in the war torn countries will be in the hands of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration (UNRRA). Neither race nor color nor creed will prevent the war sufferers from getting these clothes. Need alone will be the key that will open this store of clothing for those who are in need of it.

Rayders Win Over Boyne Ramblers In Exciting Game

(By David Hamilton)

CAPT. JOHN W. COLLINS

Fr. Collins Gets Grand Rapids Parish

Discharged From Army Chaplain's Corps Recently

Father John W. Collins has been discharged from the army chaplain's corps after serving more than 2 1/2 years and has been named by the Most Rev. Francis J. Haas, Bishop of the diocese of Grand Rapids to form a new parish in the north end of Grand Rapids.

Before enlisting in the army in May, 1943, Father Collins was pastor of the St. Mary's church here. He went overseas in March, 1944, and served in New Guinea, the Netherlands East Indies, and the Philippines. He returned to this country early in December on temporary duty leave and was ordered to report at Fort Sheridan, Ill., for discharge Jan. 12.

President's Ball At Argonne

Will Be Conducted For Crippled Children's Aid

The annual March of Dimes appeal for funds, conducted each year by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is under way. Gordon Lindsey, of Boyne City, Charlevoix county chairman, has announced, Charlevoix county in co-operation with every county in Michigan is conducting a drive simultaneously with the National appeal in order to guarantee that every victim of the dread polio in this state will receive the most modern and effective cure.

Mr. Lindsey has appointed William I. Sapernaw Jr., and Dan McManis co-chairmen of the annual President's Ball to be given at the Argonne on Wednesday evening, January 30, in an effort to raise funds for the worthy cause. Wayne Hedding's orchestra has been engaged to play for the benefit party.

D. Archie LaFreniere has been named chairman of the Beaver Island committee.

Infantile paralysis, always one of the most expensive diseases, has become even more costly since the latest methods of treatment which require almost constant attention in hot, packing and physical therapy, have become so universally used. It is now estimated that the average amount spent on each case in this country, is $2,500 per year. Some cases require years of continuing treatment and each year's toll adds new names to the ever increasing list. That is why an appeal for funds must be made each year—not only to provide care for those who have been stricken, but to be prepared in the event of another epidemic. Michigan counties know how suddenly and tragically such an epidemic can occur, since just two years ago it happened right here, and our state figures rose to more than three times the average of the past seven years.

Half of the money raised remains right here to be used for treatment and hospitalization of local patients. The other 50% is sent to the National Foundation, which in turn disburses it for epidemics control, education and research. In 1945 the National Foundation advanced $1,000,000 to chapters in need of funds to provide medical care. It also appropriated $1,267,000 for scholarships to train qualified persons in physiotherapy upon which the elimination of crippling after-effects of this disease is so dependent. At this date 10 scholarship awards from this fund have been approved for Michigan applicants.

The local gym was the scene of a close, fast and exciting game last Friday night when the Rayders emerged victorious over a determined Boyne City team by three points. The final score was 25-22.

The first quarter opened very slowly, with Capt. Hardy making the first point in a game that proved to be exciting. The Rayders held the Ramblers down in this period and really handled the ball to give themselves a 6-point lead at quarter time, 6-0.

The second quarter Boyne broke loose and the game became wild in the deepest sense of the word. Fans went wild as Miller took the first Boyne point. Quarter ended very noisy with Boyne threatening to score many times but being out-played by a superb Rayder team. Bob Carey threw one over his back to end the half at 13-5.

While the Ramblers seemed slow in the second they threatened to win the game in the third quarter alone. One of the calmest persons in the gym was B. Ward, as he streaked down the floor to make a "bucket" that set Boyne back on its heels. This period went out in a blaze of glory as both teams turned headsprings trying to get the ball. The Ramblers worked the Rayders over once lightly and the Rayders came back in the last period to wipe everything off the slate. They really played ball.

The last quarter was very hot, very noisy and just—well—exciting as the game to Northern Michigan, as played by the champions can come. Every one was on his feet in a fast quarter with Charlevoix falling behind after having a 10-point lead earlier in the game. Boyne played ball, but a little too late. They closed in on the Rayders and played a tight defensive. Screams and yelling helped to bring the score up into the twenties and Hardy and W. Carey made the only field goal shots in this quarter. Boyne made seven points in this quarter to bring the game to an exciting climax as everyone went home all a-twitter. Score after this roaring finale was 25-22.

Capt. Hardy and R. Carey tied for first place with 8 points each while Miller, for Boyne was high with 10. (Umpire Criske and referee Farland "played fair ball.")

Rod and Gun Club Have Special Feature For February Meet

If any parcel of land cannot be sold for the full amount of taxes, interest and charges, such parcel shall be passed over for the time being, and shall, on the succeeding day, or before the close of the sale, be offered, and if, on such second offer, or during such sale, the same cannot be sold for the amount aforesaid, the County Treasurer shall bid off the same in the name of the State.

WARD I. WALLER, Presiding Circuit Judge
FENTON R. BULOW, Clerk.

STATE OF MICHIGAN

In the Circuit Court for the County of Charlevoix, In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Petition of John D. Morrison, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State, for the sale of certain lands for taxes assessed thereon. To the Circuit Court for the County of Charlevoix, in Chancery:

John D. Morrison, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, respectfully shows unto the Court:

1. That he is the Auditor General of the State of Michigan and makes and files this petition under, by virtue of and pursuant to the provisions of Act No. 206 of the Public Acts of 1893, as amended, and Act No. 129 of the Public Acts of 1933, as amended;

2. That Schedule A annexed hereto is the tax record required by the act first above mentioned, and contains the description of all lands in the aforesaid county upon which taxes, which were assessed for the years mentioned therein, have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent, the description of all lands in said county heretofore bid off in the name of the State and thus held and upon which taxes which were assessed subsequent to the tax for which said lands were sold to the State have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent, and the description of all lands in said county which are delinquent for any installment of taxes under the provisions of the act last above mentioned;

3. That extended separately in said schedule against each description of said lands therein contained are (a) the total amount of delinquent taxes upon said description for the non-payment of which the same may lawfully be sold at the next annual tax sale, (b) interest computed thereon as provided by law to the first day of May, next ensuing, (c) a collection fee of four per cent and (d) $1.00 for expenses, all in accordance with the provisions of the act first above mentioned;

4. That all of the aforesaid taxes, interest and charges are valid, delinquent and unpaid, and have remained delinquent and unpaid for sufficient time to authorize and require, as provided by the foregoing acts, the sale of the aforesaid parcels of land against which they were assessed and are extended in said schedule at the next annual tax sale for the non-payment thereof; and that said taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses so extended in said schedule against each parcel of land therein described constitute a valid lien upon each of the said several parcels of land described in said schedule as therein and against which extended in favor of the people of the State of Michigan, the payment of which lien this court may enforce as a preferred or first claim upon such lands by the State thereof.

Wherefore your petitioner prays:

a. That within the time provided by law this court may determine and decree that the aforesaid taxes, interest, collection fee and charges are valid and constitute a valid lien upon each of the said several parcels of land described in said schedule as therein extended;

b. That within the time provided by law this court make a final decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of land therein described for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against the several parcels of land therein contained;

c. That said decree provide that in default of the payment of the taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses so extended against said lands, in said schedule, the said several parcels of land, or such interest therein as may be necessary to satisfy the amount decreed against the same, shall severally be sold as the law provides;

d. That your petitioner may have such other and further relief in the premises as to this court may seem just and equitable.

And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.
Dated: December 27, 1945.

JOHN D. MORRISON, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State.

Grand Daughter

and he smilingly bowed and said "how" to all the girls until he came to the Madam's side. Then Madame Chiang Kai-Shek rose to address us, speaking in a low well cultivated voice: "Major Simpson, Captain Harmon, Officers and Members of the WAC: I wasn't going to say anything except to tell you how very glad I am to see you but just now the Generalissimo said he would like me to say a few words to tell you how much we appreciate your coming here and to bid you welcome to China and particularly to Chungking. We have learned to like it. I was just telling one of your officers that I think you will like Shanghai better than Chungking, as much as we like it and after all consideration for what it has done for China, it is still the backwoods of China—much as your Tennessee is the backwoods of America. There is nothing wrong with Tennessee—I know, I've been there!" (laughter)

"Since the Generalissimo asked me to say something I think I ought to say something about him. He is a very brave man because he is the only man present. I am sure he is the most popular: (more laughter) He thinks the points should be lowered, especially for the married women. If that doesn't make him popular, I don't know what would. I am glad to see you all here and bid you welcome to China. I hope you will like it as much as I like your America, and so, God speed to you all. Thank you."

As Madame Chiang Kai-Shek was applauded, she spoke a few words with her husband then rose to address us once more: "The Generalissimo wishes to give you a gift before leaving Chungking. He wants you to come and wander in it as much as you please. Perhaps some of you would like to walk around now. We can show you where General Wedemeyer stays when he is here. He has a little cottage out in the park; also where your ambassador stays in his little cottage. Would you like to see it?"

Naturally we were all quite enthusiastic in accepting this invitation and the famous couple, linked arm in arm, led our procession through their gardens and "cottages" which were in reality good sized lovely looking homes to accommodate their distinguished guests when they visited them. The last place they took us was their own home and it was indeed charming, being simply but tastefully furnished in a combination of Western and Oriental style. There were flowers in vases everywhere which one immediately attributed to Madame's dainty instincts. There was an autographed photo of Franklin D. Roosevelt on a bookcase. In the Gimo's study Madame paused on the arm of a chair to smoke and offered the girls around her cigarettes from her case. I wanted to have one with her but was too shy. After this bit of relaxation all went out on the veranda where with much graciousness the Madame and the Generalissimo seated themselves for a siege of autographing dollar bills and cien notes. When they had written their last signature on the last bill (in Chinese characters) our little group was escorted down the roadside to the waiting trucks and there the Generalissimo left us to the final adieux of the Madame. The GI drivers were lounging against their vehicles and when the Madame saw them she called one of the boys over to her. "Were you not invited to join all the rest?" He, red-faced and embarrassed shook his head unable to say anything. "I am terribly sorry," the Madame apologized to him, "I gave explicit instructions you were to be entertained with the rest." She appeared genuinely upset over the misunderstanding. General and Madame Chiang Kai-Shek are real people. They made us all feel right at home. Those of our original detachment from Chungking who are in Shanghai now volunteered to come. While the remainder who wished to go on home were sent back to Calcutta to await a transport to the States. Some of them are still waiting I understand. It has been almost a month now since I arrived at Kiangwan Air Base in Shanghai and I feel as though I have indeed come a long way from home. My next trip will be to return and it will be, I understand by boat as no personnel in any amount is being transported by air from here on out. Perhaps one reason is our transports are being left to the Chinese under Rev. I. L. Anyhow, it will be nice to come back home now. I think I've had it!

Lots of love,
Jean

Fixing Up the Farm

by BURTON WILLIAMS

Winter Fire Hazards

DEFECTIVE chimneys, stoves, ranges, furnaces and stovepipes, connections in farm buildings are responsible for a large percentage of the disastrous fires on farms each year. A small crack will provide a passage for sparks which may set a building on fire. It's important that loose mortar and cracks in chimneys be repaired, that rusty stovepipes be removed and that all stovepipe connections be tight. Flues and smoke pipes should be cleaned at least once a year.

The Big Issue

Should the Min-Eva Cafe be allowed to rebuild on the same location, or should that space be reserved for Park space?

The first part of this issue, regardless of location, would probably be out of the question, not only on this building but on the one you own, without sufficient insurance coverage.

RIGHT WRONG

In setting the stove pipe into the chimney, care should be taken to assure a tight fit, and the pipe should not project into the flue lining. The pipe itself should enter the chimney horizontally and the connection should be made with fire clay set tightly in masonry. The space around the pipe should be sealed air-tight by a closely fitting terra cotta collar and boiler putty or fireproof cement. No wood should be within 12 inches of the connection or any part of the smoke pipe. If a smoke pipe must be carried through a wood partition, the woodwork should be protected by cutting a hole in the wall 12 inches larger than the diameter of the pipe and passing it through a double wall metal ventilating thimble.

Appendicitis operations have become so matter of fact that unless you are ever on your guard, the mere mention of feeling sick may land you in the operating room. I had my appendix taken out twice already."

VOICE of the People

Postmarked Petoskey, the following comes to our desk: Charlevoix Courier, Charlevoix, Michigan.

Dear Editor:

This letter is not entirely criticism, but hoping to show where more credit should be given.

First of all I wish to show my appreciation as a reader of the Courier for the splendid write-ups that the High School football team had last year. This was the first year in many that a running account of the game was written.

Now for the basketball games. WHY is there no account of the players, except those who score the points? WHY isn't there a line-up as other papers use? Granted Charlevoix has a good team this year, but it isn't always a formality that they win, which we hope it is. WHY doesn't a Charlevoix player receive a little more build up, like the Harbor player Hovey, true he was high point man for Harbor in the few minutes he played. I am a spectator in all of the games and know who plays, but what of the readers, (like the boys still in the service) who don't, do they know who is playing the other guard or forward position?

lected item corrected in the next issue of The Courier.

Respectfully,
A loyal Charlevoix fan and Courier Reader.

News Of Our Servicemen

George Winnick, cox., who has been serving in the Pacific with the navy Seabees, has arrived here to spend a 30-day leave with his sister, Mrs. Otto Kane, and other relatives. He will report at Great Lakes, Illinois, for reassignment.

James Marsh, CMM, who is stationed aboard the ice crusher, City of Mackinaw, at Cheboygan, spent the week-end with his wife and family.

Servicemen's Letters

John E. Bennett, SK3/c, who is serving aboard the hospital ship, USS Samaritan, writes from Japan: I thought I would inform you that my address is the same as before and I would like to hear of all the good news at home. It is well to receive the Courier and I enjoy it very much. We have been here in Japan for two months and it seems like two years. When we first arrived we were at Yokohama. We were there for a little while and then we came down to the southern tip of Japan and found ourselves in the harbor of Sasebo. It is only two days from Shanghai, China. We are also near Naha, where they dropped one of the two atomic bombs. Several doctors have been over there and they say it is just like a typhoon coming down a steep hill and sweeping the valley clean. You see, none of the doctors can go without permission from the island commander.

I have had several liberties here in Sasebo. There isn't much left of the place as the B-29's dropped a few bombs. There are still a few places and buildings still standing. They still have a bank, three postoffices, one print shop and a couple of Japanese naval buildings. They also have a church, the Church of Jesus. I went inside and found that it was very beautiful. We talked to the priest who spoke a little English.

When we have liberty we have to wear dress blues and they get so dusty. When we first went back to the ship the boys thought we'd been rolling in the dust and did they razz us.

There are a lot of interesting things here in Sasebo. A little child will come up to you and ask for gum, candy or cigarettes. They are cute kids. Some of them walk around with a white tag on which means they are orphans and have lost their parents.

The scuffle-butt has it that we're to leave for home but no one knows what's next.

From T/5 Hazel Matchett, who is stationed at Atlanta, Ga., comes this letter: I have enjoyed the home town paper very much since I have been in the service, which is 14 months now. I wish to thank everyone of you who has made it possible for me to receive it.

I am doing x-ray work here in a General Hospital. It is an excellent center and really a great deal of experience is to be had here.

ROCK ELM MRS. A. B. LAWTON Reporter

Up to the present time, no I much success has been reported by those who have tried their skill at fishing on the South Arm of the lake. The record thus has rendered the ice unfit and the lake water muddy for good fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lawton called on their mother Saturday afternoon.

Karl Bradley hauled a few loads of wood out to the Metz corner last week.

Here's hoping that not many GI's will be tempted to go into the huge poultry project proposed by someone who evidently knows very little about the work required for curing for even a few hundred chicks.

If industry and labor would come together on a plan similar to the one adopted by the P & G Soap company by which the employees share in the profits, strikes would cease.

Fixing Up
the Farm
by BURTON WILLIAMS
Warm Stock's Drinking Water
HOT water can now be regarded as a farm production "tool." There are hundreds of farm operations which are done better with running hot water—cleaning stock barns and sheds, washing down dairy stalls, floors, sterilizing milking machines and milk cans and washing and sterilizing poultry brooders and hatcheries.

Hot water can be easily piped to all parts of the farmstead by digging narrow ditches to below the frost line, laying the pipe in the ditch and covering with earth.

A practical way of heating water is with an automatic gas water heater. This can be fueled with liquefied petroleum gas—butoane or propane, which are sometimes known as "tank" or "bottled" gas. A gas service man from a nearby town will make the installation and keep you supplied.

Heating the drinking water of cattle, hogs and poultry during the cold winter months saves a great deal in feed bills. According to the experts, a large part of winter feed is consumed to replace lost body heat. Tests have shown that milk made put on more weight per dollar of feed when drinking water is warmed for them.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

ART: "Saw you at the movies last night, Judge. That was quite a weekend that alcoholic went through, wasn't it?"

OLD JUDGE: "Sure was, but I'm afraid most people won't really understand it."

ART: "What do you mean, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Simply this. That poor chap was really a sick man...not just a drunk. Studies by famous psychiatrists and the medical profession show that alcoholism is not caused by a craving for alcohol...it is usually the result of some deep-rooted social, physical or emotional condition. If that fellow had not turned to alcohol for escape, he would have turned to something else."

ART: "Are there many that get in that condition, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Fortunately not, Art. Scientists at a great university have stated that approximately 95% of the people who drink do so sensibly. Only 5% are immoderate at times. In that 5% is the small number known as alcoholics. And the beverage distilling industry which does not want a single person to use its product immoderately, is cooperating fully in the solution of this problem."

When implements are mounted forward on the tractor, rather than pulled behind, they need no wheels of their own. They cost less. Furthermore, they can be attached quickly and controlled automatically by tractor power.

A-C FRONT-MOUNTED planters, cultivators, fertilizer attachments and rotary hoes represent still another step forward... ahead of the driver's seat. You watch the row ahead easily and naturally... never twisting to look behind.

Forward vision is an invaluable feature for precision planting, fertilizing and cultivating young plants. You'll find it not only pays to "look ahead"—it's a pleasure.

Charlevoix Red Rayders were given the well-earned top position in Northern Michigan Class C Conference standings when they defeated the Grayling Green Wave Tuesday, Jan. 22, on the Grayling home floor. The Graylingites never showed up to point and the Red Rayders played all kinds of ball to win hands down.

Before the first quarter was four minutes old, the locals had collected a seven-point lead. Making most of their 48 points in this quarter, the Rayders had a 15-3 advantage at the whistle.

Willy Carey and Bernard Zietler were in top form against the formerly undefeated Green Wave as were the rest of the Rayders, but these two fellows really played their guard positions.

Bob Carey led the Rayders, scoring 14 points, with Hardy and Zietler in second high with eight each. Bennett led the opposition with 10 points and Keway was second with eight.

County Receives Tax Returns From State

Highway Commissioner Chas. M. Ziegler reports the State Highway Dept. has prepared vouchers for return of $1,589,316.41 in gas tax and weight tax returns to the counties and cities of Michigan for use on county roads and city streets. The returns are made up of 1915 gas tax returns, as provided for in Act 8 of the Public Acts of 1934 extra session, and $314,316.41 in fourth quarter of 1945 weight tax returns, as provided for in Act 302, Section 34, Public Acts of 1915.

All weight tax money is returned to the counties and cities for use on local roads and streets. A total of $21,418,642.44 collected in weight tax during 1945. In 1944, the weight tax amounted to $21,282,741.42 or $125,901.02 less than 1945.

In addition to all the weight tax a total of $6,750,000 in gas tax money is returned each year to the counties and cities, also for use on local roads and streets. The remainder of the gas tax, less the cost of collection, which goes to the Secretary of State's department, is turned over to the Highway Dept. to meet its cost of operation and is the sole source of income for that department.

Charlevoix will receive a total of $6,249.96 for the second half of 1945 gas tax returns. For the 4th quarter, Charlevoix will receive $1,294.06 in weight tax returns.

Michigan Bell Catching Up On Orders

Still Months Behind Though, on All Orders For Telephone Requests

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company today announced that it has turned the corner on its job of catching up with its unfilled orders for service, but warned that the day that all orders can be filled is still months ahead.

Thomas N. Lacy, president-elect, said the company, for the first time in nearly four years, is still installing telephones faster than new orders for service are reported in. It is the first recession in the tide of held orders that began as a trickle in March 1942 and reached the flood stage of 127,449 in October.

He reported the waiting list of families wanting service and unable to get it stands at 113,216 in Michigan Bell territory today, a reduction of 14,233 in November and December.

Meanwhile, the company set two monthly records in telephone installation. In November, it installed 30,186 telephones and removed 16,799 for a net gain of 13,387, largest gain on record at the time. Last month, however, that figure was surpassed when 30,323 telephones were installed and 13,852 were removed for a gain of 16,471 telephones.

Lacy, in warning that it will be no overnight task to clear the company's lists of held orders, pointed out that new applications for service, because of continued shortages of equipment, must await their turn for completion. Extension telephones are not being installed at this time except in case of certain priorities such as service for doctors. Orders for "extensions" are now being accepted by the company, however, for completion sometime in the future.

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company has made a start in cutting down its service waiting list in Charlevoix, C. L. Johnson, Mgr. reported today.

Mr. Johnson said most of the delayed orders are being held for central office equipment and cable.

In the winter time he worked as a lumberman and since coming here has spent a great deal of time in the woods of the upper peninsula.

On Feb. 22, 1901, he married Myrtle E. Lambert, by whom he is survived.

Besides his wife he is survived by seven sons, Lyle J. and Ira L. of Newberry; William and Forrest of Gaylord; Glenn of Ypsilanti; Clifford, of Detroit; and Pfc. Iceland, of Camp Cooke, Cal.; three daughters, Mrs. Rupert Earl, of Gaylord; Mrs. F. M. Dehn, of Charlevoix; and Mrs. Gerald Barnett, of East Jordan; and 10 grandchildren. A short prayer service was held at the family home at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. W. D. Wood after which the body was removed to the Walker Funeral home in Gaylord, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Interment in the Gaylord cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Allard will observe their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary at their home at 114 E. Upright avenue Monday. The couple were married at Petoskey Feb. 4, 1891, and have always made their home in Charlevoix.

Mr. Allard was born on Fox Island April 15, 1863, and lived there until coming to the mainland as a young man. He was a lighthouse keeper in Lake Michigan for many years and served on the Grey's Reef light ship, Squaw Island, Beaver Head light on Beaver Island, Frankfort and Little Pointe AuSable. He retired 13 years ago.

Mrs. Allard, the former Pauline Cheney, was born at Bracebridge, Ont., Can., on May 15, 1873, and came to Charlevoix in 1879.

When the couple were married in Petoskey, they made the trip by sleigh to St. Francis church where the service was performed. At that time there was no resident priest of Catholic church in Charlevoix.

The Allards have one son, Lee, a veteran of World War I, one granddaughter, Mrs. Robert Herington, and three great-grandchildren, Robert, Michael and Joel, all of this city.

Vets Must Act If They Want to Vote

The "veteran vote" won't be much of a factor in the 1946 elections unless returning service men and women can be awakened to the so-called 60 day clause in the war time voting legislation.

Many veterans who have been voting under special legislation will be disappointed when they go to the polls April 9 (primary day) or Nov. 5 (election day). They will be asked how long they have been out of service. If the answer is 60 days or less, they may vote even though they are not registered.

But those who were discharged more than 60 days before will not be able to cast ballots unless they have complied with the same requirements facing any other citizen. Furthermore, they will be asked to show their discharge papers to prove the date.

This job of getting veterans on civilian voting lists ought to be done long before March 11, the last day of registration.

Many ex-service men were never registered because they did not take the trouble to register before the war or because they were not of voting age.

Many registration cards undoubtedly have been removed from the active files because of failure of notice to reach the board that those voters were in the armed services. All veterans previously registered are urged, therefore, to write or call at the election board to make sure their cards are in order.

Veterans who reached voting age while in service must register just like any other civilians. Those who have moved from addresses of pre-service registration must notify the board of the fact.

Wives of veterans who have been voting from abandoned residences now must notify the board of new addresses.

The regular monthly meeting of the Third Order of St. Francis was held last Sunday, January 20, and considering the severe winter weather, there was a good attendance. The harbor of St. James is solidly frozen over now, making it much more convenient for the mail plane from Charlevoix, to land close to the business section of the town. The pilot has to be a pretty fair navigator to miss all the fish shanties that are springing up all over the harbor. The fish are biting pretty good too; proof, Wilfred O'Brien told the writer the other day he caught 67 in no time at all.

Kiwanis Notes

Roy Bennett, superintendent of schools, was guest speaker at our Jan. 21 meeting. Speaking on the subject, "My Philosophy of Education," he stressed the necessity of training the child for life now, as well as for the years following graduation; the importance of vocational education, and the possibility of a 13th and 14th grade in the near future.

Ernest Penslee, who retired on Jan. 15, last, after 25 years of continuous service as deputy clerk of the Charlevoix County Board of Commissioners, spoke at the Jan. 28 meeting on "The Evolution of Charlevoix County Roads." He traced the development of the road system under the Charlevoix County Road Commission from its adoption, by a vote of the people, April 1, 1912, to 1920 when 121 miles of state reward roads had been built. The county, he said, now has 826 miles of county road;

62.9 miles of state trunk line highway, and last winter removed snow from 322 miles. A question period followed the address.

Floyd Brown was presented with an "8" pin for eight years of perfect attendance. President "Pete" Bolow and Clarence Morrison attended the annual Mid-winter meeting, held at Grand Rapids last week.

Tourist Association Plans to Sponsor Training Course

Michigan State College To Co-operate in Educational Program

Advisory committees are being set up in individual counties to inform and advise interested persons concerning the cooperative program in which the West Michigan Tourist and Resort Association is engaged with Michigan State College to make educational courses available to those connected with the tourist and resort industry.

Size of the committees will vary from county to county, according to William Palmer, secretary-manager of the Association, but will generally include a representative of the Board of Supervisors, Board of Commerce, and County land use or zoning committee.

Advisory committees will work with the County Agricultural Agent in each case.

The educational courses are designed to help members of the west Michigan tourist and resort industry attain higher levels of quality in their service.

"One of the foremost aims of West Michigan Tourist and Resort Association is to develop a standardization of service among its members," Palmer explained, "and this educational program is of extreme importance in achieving that goal."

TAX SALE-ISSUE

This week's issue of the Charlevoix Courier carries the insertion of the Annual Tax Sale for delinquent taxes of 1943 and prior years. The tax sale list will appear in five issues of the Courier on Jan. 30, Feb. 6, 13, 20 and 27. Its size is a compliment to the taxpayers of this county. Miss Lillis Flanders, county treasurer, compiled the list in her office and stated it was the smallest one in many years.

sort Association is to develop a standardization of service among its members," Palmer explained, "and this educational program is of extreme importance in achieving that goal."

Training of waiters and waitresses and other employees who contact tourists, as well as chefs and kitchen help and other "behind-the-scenes" workers has been added to the curriculum at Michigan State College.

Persons unable to attend classes at the college may receive instructions through the college extension service which provides for instructors to visit communities in which suitable groups are organized.

Western Union Plans To Revolutionize Telegraph System

"Telegrams between major cities will travel by radio beam instead of by wire within the next few years," M. E. Wakefield, local manager of the Western Union Telegraph Co. stated today. "By using radio relays instead of the present trunk pole lines, the company will replace thousands of poles and hundreds of thousands of miles of wire."

"This system will improve the quality, dependability and speed of telegraph service provided to the public. It will reduce interruptions resulting from storms, falling trees and electrical disturbances. Also, the cost of the program over a period of seven years will be less than would have been required for maintenance and reconstruction of the pole lines to be replaced."

"The first step in the program now under way is the establishment of what is known as the 'New York-Washington-Pittsburgh Triangle.' This triangle will provide two-way radio beam communication between these cities and will permit the removal of some 2500 miles of pole lines. The second step will be extension of the system late in 1946 to Columbus, Cincinnati, Chicago, Toledo, and Cleveland."

"Each of these super-high frequency beams will be used to provide circuits for all available telegraph traffic as well as for other purposes. Because these radio waves do not follow the earth's curvature, relay towers, located on hills and mountains as far as 50 miles apart, must catch the waves to bend them along the surface of the earth. The towers will be from 60 to 120 feet in height.

"On each relay tower are two pairs of circular reflectors, one pair aimed at the next tower in each direction. Incoming waves are caught by an antenna, located in what looks like a tin can in the center of a reflector. The waves then pass to an automatic transmitter on the other side of the tower and are sent to the next tower."

Mr. Wakefield stated that he is now displaying the Washington, D. C. tower in the local Western Union office window, located on Bridge street.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION MET AT METHODIST MANSE

The Charlevoix Ministerial Association met with Rev. and Mrs. Gaylord Howell at the Methodist manse Monday night. At the business session the pastors discussed plans for forthcoming Lenten and Easter services, while the pastorettes discussed plans for the World Day of Prayer.

After the business session the time was used in friendly discussion of interesting and timely subjects of local, national and world interest.

Mrs. Howell, assisted by the other wives, then served refreshments.

The next meeting will be held with Rev. and Mrs. Dykstra Feb. 25.

Those present were Rev. and Mrs. Wood, Rev. and Mrs. Dykstra, Rev. and Mrs. Howell and Rev. and Mrs. Claypool.

ROCK ELM MRS. A. B. LAWTON

Ernest Mathers, on his way in for a Sunday visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Jensen, got stuck in a snowdrift about a quarter of a mile from his destination. He walked the rest of the way and Mr. Jensen took pity on him and helped shovel his car out of the drift.

The snow plow had trouble breaking the road, on the hill near the Jensen farm Monday morning. However, they succeeded in opening the road in time for the school bus.

Jesse Lawton helped his brother Frank cut wood last week Friday. After a three-week visit with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jensen and other friends, and Miss Jesse Metz returned to Grand Rapids this week.

SHORT CALLS HELP EVERYONE GET BETTER RURAL LINE SERVICE

If you'll remember to keep every call short these days, you'll enable your rural party line telephone neighbors to get their calls through, too.

When you have finished talking, please hang up the receiver carefully. One receiver off the hook can tie up a whole line. And please avoid listening in or interrupting when the line is in use.

This kind of friendly co-operation helps everybody to get better service, especially now when most rural lines are serving more telephones.

More lines and more switching equipment will be added as fast as conditions permit. This will enable us to take care of those who are waiting for telephones, and reduce the number of telephones per line.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

DICK: "I wonder how the distillers feel about that new movie built around an alcoholic."

OLD JUDGE: "It's funny you asked that, Dick... I was just reading a piece about it."

DICK: "What did it say?"

OLD JUDGE: "A very sensible statement. It said the beverage distillers are fully aware of this problem and are cooperating in every way possible to help solve it. The alcoholic in the beverage distilling industry what the reckless driver is to the automobile industry. There is nothing wrong with the automobile, but in the hands of a man who doesn't know how to drive it or is reckless, it becomes a menace. Likewise, it's not the use but the abuse of alcoholic beverages that causes trouble."

DICK: "Wonder why it is most men can drink moderately and others can't?"

OLD JUDGE: "Intensive research at a great university has shown that most excessive drinkers are really sick people. They are suffering from some physical, social or emotional upset. And great strides have been made in developing clinical methods of helping these unfortunate people."

THE NEW MR. LINCOLN

NOW THAT President Truman's labor-management conference has exploded with a beautiful bang and the boys have gone back to their favorite pastime of bashing each other's brains out, this might be the opportuna time to put Mr. Lincoln under the microscope.

Ed Reardon

This is in no way a reference to the Great Emancipator—although he had some pertinent ideas about labor, too. The Mr. Lincoln now under discussion is James F. Lincoln, a gentleman who operates an electrical welding concern in Cleveland, and has been making a pretty good go of it for a considerable number of years.

Mr. Lincoln has a plan on how to run business in a way which is mutually satisfactory to both labor and management. His plan isn't just a theory he has scribbled down on paper and is waiting for someone to try.

It is one which he has tried himself, and has found practical over a period of years. It is a plan which is so simple, however, that it has the efficiency experts, the economists and the brawny-brained Government statisticians tearing at their hair roots and gnashing their bridgework in angry amazement.

Mr. Lincoln merely pays his employees what they are worth.

THAT ISN'T intended as a witicism. It really is the Lincoln plan in a nutshell. But the idea is so elemental that it has confounded the experts who regard the Cleveland tycoon as a sort of monstrosity, an industrial bogeyman, a guy with a gimmick who will pull the world's economic structure down around their big, red ears if someone doesn't throw a net over him in a hurry.

They even hustled him off to Washington during the war to let a Senate investigating committee pick and poke at him and threaten him with fines for overpaying his help and warn him that he and his silly ideas would be the ruin of all the wartime industrial regulations if he didn't watch out.

You see, Mr. Lincoln made the mistake of thinking that what this country really wanted was more production for less money, more employment and less strikes and shamefacedness, and the most that could be produced in the shortest possible time. He didn't know that keeping within the Government regulations was more important.

Mr. LINCOLN, it appears, is an old individual. He works on the principle that if you pay a man what he is worth, based on what he can produce, you won't have any of this fuss about union rights, or quotas, or days off, and the like. You will also increase your productive output so that you can drop this unit price on your product, which in turn gives the buying public a break and prevents inflation.

Mr. Lincoln believes these things because out at his Cleveland plant where they are in effect not a single hour ever has been lost through a misunderstanding between the workers and management.

In 20 years no person has been laid off because of lack of work. In the same period no reduction in wage rates has been made and every employee has received a steady income.

Mora jobs have been created so that the employs force of the company has been more than quadrupled.

The earnings per man of Lincoln employees have been increased by more than four times, which is double that of industry in general. Last year's average compensation per man was in excess of $5,800.

The system has made possible a reduction in the selling price of Lincoln's products by more than 60 per cent. During the same period other manufacturers' products were increasing an average of 25 per cent.

Yet dividends to the company's owners and shareholders—practically all of whom are workers—have been continuous and increasing.

MR. LINCOLN thinks now that the labor-management conference has blown up higher than one of those lovable Picard Brothers' balloons, maybe both sides would be interested in studying his plan as a solution to the present problem.

He seems of the opinion that representatives of the unions and of the big industries might welcome an opportunity to drop all these long-winded discussions about contracts and agreements, hidden profits and "take-home" pay and say, instead:

"Okay, fellows. From now on we'll both agree that the worker will be paid what he's worth." Isn't Mr. Lincoln brilliant?

Rural Caravan to Visit Petoskey

The Rural Progress Caravan, a parade of labor-saving devices developed during the war on Michigan farms and in the research laboratories at Michigan State college, will visit Petoskey for a one-day showing on March 13 at the County garage and will be on display from 10:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. Several specialists from the college will be on hand to demonstrate and explain models and displays. Exhibits of ideas and equipment for the farm and home include models and full-size machines that will be carried from county to county in trucks and trailers.

The caravan started on its 4,000-mile itinerary early in January for showings in 50 counties over a three-month period. Almost 10,000 people attended the show the first week.

An additional feature of the show will be an exhibition of locally-developed devices used by Charlevoix county farmers to help solve labor shortages. Persons who have worked out ideas and equipment of their own that speed up production and increase efficiency are requested to contact County Agricultural Agent Ed Robinson at Boyne City as soon as possible.

A machine that will plant 10,000 trees in an eight-hour day will be illustrated as one of the scores of displays of labor-saving devices. Two men, one driving the tractor, the other operating the machine, can do a complete job of planting. The planter furrows and opens a trench, the operator puts the tree in place, the trench is closed, and the machine packs the soil around the roots. The entire operation taking place on the machine moves along at tractor speed.

In demonstrations made in 30 counties, it was found that 1,400 trees can be planted an hour as compared to 80 to 100 when planted by hand.

Work of building the first machine was finished last August, but the planter is not on the commercial market as yet. However, several Michigan farmers are using their own at costs of around $350. Blueprints of the refector are available at the college forestry department at the request of interested persons.

The Charlevoix Red Raiders won their 8th straight victory by whipping Mancelona, 39 to 20, last Friday night. Luck was against Mancy, and though they tried many field goals, only nine went home. The locals made only one field goal in the first quarter but sank seven of the 10 fouls thrown at them.

Charlevoix took the tip-off and played real offensive ball. While Mancelona went foul-happy in the first quarter, it cost them one of their stars before the half was out. R. Carey sent the only field goal in this quarter to make the score 9-4.

The second quarter was different. The Raiders opened with a bang and made eight beautiful shots while holding the opposition down to three. B. Griffore of Mancy went out on personal fouls in this quarter. A tight defense, but open playing was the rule for CIES. They had the opposition pinned down and intent to keep them there. Score, 18-10.

The third quarter saw both teams settle down to wearing each other out. Mancelona played her zone defense here and sort of slowed down the Raiders. But "Tuff" Ward came through and scored four points in this period to encourage teammates and fans. Charlevoix led all the way to make the score 29-15 at the whistle.

In the final quarter, the boys climbed deep into the thirties, virtually unopposed, and the Mancelona team was worn out before the horn sounded, closing the game at 39-20. R. Carey led CIES

$150,000 Court House Planned for Charlevoix

Charlevoix will soon have a new Court House, the cost of which is estimated at $150,000, if present plans materialize. It was learned today, as representatives of the Architectural firm of the Davenport company of Grand Rapids prepared to meet with a special committee of the Board of Supervisors here.

Members of the committee are: Culvin J. Bennett, chairman of the board of supervisors; Pen-ton R. Bulow, county clerk; Clarence B. Meggison and Rudy C. North of Charlevoix; Barney Milstein of East Jordan; and James R. Dean of Boyne City.

The committee will discuss the plans with the architects and make its report to the April session of the county board.

The present 75-year-old structure has been twice condemned by the state fire marshal. Repairs and alterations to make it meet specifications have been estimated at more than $50,000. The special committee of the board was appointed to consider plans for a new structure to be built on the same location.

It would be necessary to bond the county to finance the building.

R. G. Craig Gets Commendation

Robert Craig, of the Linde Air Products Co. Inc., of Buffalo, N. Y., has received the following commendation from the War Department:

The Army Service Forces

Corps of Engineers

Manhattan District

"This is to certify that Robert Craig, of the Linde Air Products Company, Inc., has participated in work essential to the production of the atomic bomb, thereby contributing to the successful conclusion of World War II. This certificate is awarded in appreciation of effective service."

Signed: Harry L. Stimson

Secretary of War

In receiving the commendation Mr. Craig was given a certificate and a lapel button in recognition of his work. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Craig, of this city and received his bachelor of science degree in chemistry from the University of Michigan. He has been with the Linde Air Products Co. since March 1, 1944.

GRADE ENLISTMENTS EXTENDED TO JULY 1

Of special interest to veterans seeking to re-enlist, is the announcement that the period for such re-enlistments, in grade, has been extended to July 1, 1946, providing the veterans re-enlist within 90 days of discharge.

Re-enlisting officers will be open Monday through Saturday, instead of Monday through Friday as has been the case in the past few months, according to L. T. Gilbert M. Spring, recruiting officer.

Band Uniforms Are Sought

New band uniforms for the spring festival is the goal of the drive starting this week in the Charlevoix school.

The need of band uniforms is not new, it has been discussed for several years, but wartime shortages of materials, plus a lack of funds have prevented its fulfillment.

Now, with a possibility of getting satisfactory material, and a start of $300 in the Band Fund, it is hoped that hard work and the co-operation of all interested may swell the fund to $1,000 within a month so that an order can be placed. The cost will be about $1500, but financed over a two-year period, approximately two-thirds of the amount will insure the order and leave a balance of $500.

The band is working on a concert to boost their bank account. Tuesday, some of the band members will serve a dinner for the 4-H Club leaders, proceeds to go to the fund.

The first offer of help from outside sources had already been made. The Independent basketball team made up of returned veterans, has offered to make one of their games here a benefit for the band, and have selected next Wednesday night, February 13, with Boyne City here. This volunteer help is heartwarming and deeply appreciated by every one in the school.

Along the Avenue

By The Editor

Many Charlevoix residents have gone south for the winter. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. George Meggison who send the following:

"We have received two issues of the Courier and enjoy reading it very much. We have met some Charlevoix people and will be seeing more later on."

"The weather is sunny and warm during the day but a little cool at night but we're not shoveling coal and snow."

"Thanks for sending the paper."

Even with the meat strike on, we get a "beef" once in a while. A lady called us to enquire what had happened to a "local" news item she had phoned in for last week's issue. When we replied that the "news" item was advertising, and as such, could not be published in the local column, she chastised us severely for our business tactics, threatened to take it up with her boss, and otherwise gave us the usual To our knowledge, the lady in question IS NOT a subscriber to the Courier, her "boss" is not an advertiser in the Courier, nor a subscriber... So-o-o-o, we couldn't feel justified in publishing the note.

It snowed and snow in these hazy parts last week end. Banks were high everywhere. Half-way thru a drift before the door of the Henry Barker shop. Barker "Dad" straightened up, leaned on the heavy snow shovel and enquired in no soft tones, "Snow, Snow, Beautiful Snow"—"who in tarantula wrote that song, I'd sure like to have him with me now."

Strikers and atomic energy are getting most of the publicity in our dailies. They should get together.

Returning veterans are being "gyped" to the point of national disgrace. Men coming back from battlefields, without arms or legs, are being "taken in" on artificial limbs; fake schools are springing up on every hand; partnership rackets are getting many a veteran to put his savings in a "dying" business; "guaranteed" oil gushers, stocks, advance-fee rackets, "something for nothing," and other get-rich quick schemes, are all making a bid for the savings veterans made during the war. The man who gets "something for nothing" won't be the veteran; he will be the swindler.

Dear Reader:

A mathematical problem confronts this column. We here-with give you the question and a few hints on how to solve it. The results will be correct if we all (or enough of us) follow a simple rule. Our school band members need uniforms. The total cost is approximately $1500. The band fund now stands at $300. They need a thousand within a month, which will give them the necessary two-thirds to place an order and will ensure members of getting badly needed uniforms now. The balance, or $500 will be financed to be paid next year. Hint at solution: (?) If all of you, (comprising the Courier family) read the above note, it automatically enters you as a contestant with the privilege of donating to this fund. We know we have a large family of readers, but we don't know how many or how much they will contribute. That's where you readers come in. This problem is getting so complicated that, well—"how many of you readers (whether you're in Chicago, New York, Calif., St. Louis, Detroit, or anywhere) will contribute $1 or more to this great cause? I've promised to publish the names of all persons, making a contribution, in the Avenue column, even if it requires more than one or two columns to do it. Will you help? (Send your donations to the Avenue, care of the Courier, or bring it in!)

The World Wide Guild of the Baptist church met with Mrs. Guy Smith Monday evening for their regular meeting. The members are making a study of their home town and a report was given on the number of children in Charlevoix and the number who attend Sunday school.

A social hour and refreshments followed.

Main Street In Our Town

When you walk down main street in our town—a city of approximately 2,500 individual and individualistic human beings—it's not really the main street, but it does have a kind of significance for us. This thoroughfare (more generally known as Bridge street) is a cross-town cross-section of life in our town, as it might well be for almost any town our size in the country.

Along both ends of Main street and stretching toward the center, from south hill to north hill bridge, is the park, which borders beautiful Round lake. Immediately at the bridge, on the west side of Main street, stands the Alhambra hotel, an old landmark soon to be modernized—from this building overlooking the channel to the north, and all along Main street south, lie the majority of business places in our town. Further on south, over the hill, but not very far away, a road winds its way to the cemetery, situated in beautiful trees at the edge of Our Town.

Some folks travel from the park to the cemetery in a short span of time, while others are given the opportunity to spend several score or more years taking in everything Main Street in Our Town has to offer.

Our park is a symbol to us of new life as it really thrives on Main street in Our Town while the cemetery is the resting place for those who have reached the end of life.

Thousands of visitors, summer residents and transients, come each year to visit Our Town, primarily for its natural beauty and healthful climate.

Back from Main street, in the valley, we have a modern high school, with a faculty of the best instructors in the country. This year especially the youngsters excel in sports. If you see the youngsters from the school in Our Town you'll know for sure that they're enthusiastic about their studies and sports. We're never lacking for enthusiasm during the basketball and football seasons.

Besides a dozen hotels scattered about in Our Town, which accommodate summer visitors, we also have a good hospital and we are proud of its record in the fight against illness and disease.

Then, like all other towns, we have a postoffice. It stands on the corner of Our Main street, just below the south hill. It has the symbol of man's socialness and unquenchable desire to communicate with other men over thousands of miles of land and sea. We have, too, the telephone office with its well trained operators, connecting calls to all parts of the globe.

If you pass the Masonic hall, or Odd Fellow hall during the course of an evening, you are very likely to see and meet men and women passing in or out of the building—another symbol of man's desire to be close to man.

Up Antrim street, off Main street, and next to the county jail, stands the court house itself, which gives Main street only a side glance, but it stands there to remind all in Our Town that local government is still in the hands of farmers, merchants, lawyers and others whom we elect to write the rules of our country.

A new, modern city hall, with its back turned to Main street, houses city government offices and a modern fire department, too. City fathers meet here to make the laws for Our Town.

There is only one church on Main street, up over the hill, but most of them are not very far off Main street. All draw together the citizens of Our Town in common hope and faith in the present and in the future.

Our Main street is well represented with business places. We have a large area on both hills and the valley around Main street which comprises our residential district.

In the homes in Our Town you'd meet all types of people, old people, young people, vicious-tongued people, kind people; you'd visit homes which were really homes where children like to spend their time and other homes where parents have no time to devote to their children; homes that are happy because their soldier and sailor sons are back again; homes that will always have empty places for those sons who are not returning.

Now, after meeting some of these people in these homes, you'd find Main street leading you to the south, out into the fields and finally to the cemetery. As cemeteries go, this is a pretty one, lying there among the trees at the edge of Our Town. You could glance around at the tombstones and see that it's an old cemetery, and if you knew our people, you'd recognize the family names on many of those stones.

Our Main street isn't very long, with hills at either end. You'd probably want to walk up the hills for a final view of Our Town. Up beyond the north hill, is Mt. Me-Sauha, which would furnish a view in all directions for miles, while just below you would lie Our Town.

If you narrowed your vision, you could see all of Main street in Our Town without moving your eyes or head. You could see in a fraction of a second the life of our town in this ribbon of street we call Main. And then you might remember some of the tombstones up over the hill at the edge of town—"1939-1944," "1925-1945," "1862-1943"—Yes, for same the journey along Main street is short while for others it is long!

Red Rayders Defeated by Northmen

(By David Hamilton)

A frustrated Charlevoix Basketball team met the fast Petoskey five last Friday night to feel their first stinging defeat of the season, by the score of 41 to 28. Though the game was not in Conference competition, it marks the first record of nine consecutive victories for the Rayders.

Breath-taking from the sound of the first whistle, both teams displayed their prowess in smooth working form.

The first quarter opened fast and noisy, in typical Rayder and Northmen style. Each team playing cautiously, each team making points carefully, and as B. Zeiler dropped in a fast one the quarter ended 6-6.

The second quarter opened slowly, but midway through the period, when Charlevoix showed signs of taking the lead, Kolinski made an overhead shot that set the crowd yelling at a frantic pitch, which was matched by swirling action on the floor. Still CHS couldn't pull ahead and the half ended 16-12.

In the third quarter, the Red Rayders got into running order at a pace which couldn't be kept up. CHS pulled ahead with four fast points but Petoskey caught up with steady plugging. The third quarter closed as Kolinski and Ward fouled each other. Neither man made his attempt at the basket and the quarter ended 24-21.

The fourth quarter was brilliant, heart-breaking basketball. With Charlevoix concentrating on Foehman, a new man on the Northmen team, Petoskey opened the way and at the automatic time-out, they were ahead 28-24. But Charlevoix couldn't get thru a quarter without making some news and J. Nol, a substitute for Ward, scored a beautiful tally to set our hopes high. But Petoskey came back and in the last minutes of play the extra stamina of the Northmen earned for them 13 more points to win 41-28.

Bellinger, Nettleton, and Ochs Cast Dissenting Votes to Erber Motion

The Common Council, sitting as a board of appeals, Monday night rejected the petition of Perl Scott for building permit by a 3-2 vote. Alderman Houker was absent.

Since the fire, which destroyed the Min-Eva restaurant recently, much discussion regarding the probable rebuilding at the present site was heard.

According to city ordinance No. 203, the proposed building at 302 Bridge street is located within the "Scenic Reserve District." The ordinance specifies that 10% of replacement value must remain before a building permit can be granted.

According to final figures of engineers, only 3.5% of replacement value of the building remains.

Alderman Karl Erber, proposed candidate for mayor, made a motion, seconded by Alderman Goss, that Perl Scott be granted a permit to build on his property according to building code for that district. The rejection came with the following Yen and Nay vote:

Yea: Erber and Goss.

Nay: Bellinger, Nettleton and Ochs.

Incorporated in the resolution, denying the permit, which was offered by Alderman Ochs, and seconded by Alderman Bellinger, was the following:

"That the proposed use and construction of the proposed building do not conform with the regulations of said district as set forth in Article VIII of said zoning ordinance," and "that the Min-Eva restaurant building, formerly located on said property, having been a two-story brick veneer building, used for restaurant purposes, was a non-conforming structure and a non-conforming use under the regulations of the Scenic Reserve District as set forth in said ordinance."

During the summer of 1945 he was a member of the Charlevoix Police force.

He was a charter member of the Charlevoix Post No. 1153 Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Mud-Daubers

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

A TRIBE of insects artistically named Scaphiron (common mud-daubers) got busy one summer and built a fort inside the vent pipe on top of a big steel tank of heating oil. The tank had been filled in the Spring for Fall marketing and stood quiet for months. Finally came an order for a large load of heating oil and the plant owner started pumping it out of storage. Suddenly the big tank collapsed.

The oil man's motor-powered pump silently pulled out the liquid and built up vacuum inside the tank. Being in a position to plug up a vent line and call down the forces of nature to destroy property and waste merchandise is too much authority for a mud-dauber. To be perfectly frank, the more I observe the workings of the ope, the surer I am that such authority is too much for anybody.

Severe RIGHT now our government strain mental price fixers have the vent line closed on some exceptionally tight structures and the pump has already started. "People who buy machines shall not pay more for them," says government, although people who manufacture machines must pay more, much more, for every hour of effective labor, and for every pound of processed material.

I am in favor of workers getting high wages. The more take-home pay America's factory workers earn and get, the more food and feed stuff our farmers will sell. It means prosperity.

Just the same, nature's laws are inexorable. If wages keep going up, somebody'd better work that price-line or business is sure to collapse. Some firms have crumpled already and more are in jeopardy.

Vital AMERICA'S big manufacturing concerns have some strength; of course they have. They need financial strength to navigate economic storms, race with competition and meet payrolls on schedule. The more strength they have the more useful they are. That oil man's tank had a great deal of strength too; was useful because it was strong, but it buckled because a mud-dauber asked it to hold a vacuum.

Big corporations have to be efficient. If they grow extravagant, a lot of small concerns with lower overhead stand ready to undersell them and take their trade. Accordingly, big firms must operate on thin margins of profit. Figuratively, they are tight. They can be "pumped down" by holding their prices and boosting their costs. Ford declares a $27 net loss on every new car sold at prices fixed by government.

Nearly everybody knows that America's advantage over foreign lands is based on mass production and volume sales, things we have that they don't have. We have nothing to gain and much to lose by working big industries. Theodore Roosevelt said, "It either is, or ought to be evident to everybody that business has to prosper before anybody can get any benefit from it."

Fair Play

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Seony, Arkansas

UNEQUAL advantages in any kind of contest spoil the sport for most Americans. A sense of fairness is deeply rooted in our people. Actually exposing crookedness in a professional team is all it takes to bankrupt the club, because fairness is cardinal. Practically all forms of competition take on the features of a game in this country; business and politics are no exceptions.

The public has taken a hand occasionally in the bout between those heavy-weight contestants, Capital and Labor. Until very recently, labor was the popular favorite, and the choice was sane. The laborer has been "the man on the bottom" in many lands for countless years and sympathy for the underdog is a human trait. But this generation of Americans has seen the tables turn.

Popular LABOR in the United Verdict States is not the underdog—far from it. Every mature person, who has given this subject any thought at all, knows that Capital is no match for Labor in this country now. Labor has a club that management can't use, the strike. What is even more, management has no weapon that will approximately match it in force and violence, and has no defense from it.

There was a time when an employer could fire a competent workman for voting wrong. A straw-boss once could dismiss a female subordinate for resenting his overtures. Intelligent persons were let out for voicing discontent over long hours and low wages. It was disgraceful. It was also a long time ago. It was not fair. The public reacted it and stopped it.

Public PEOPLE still remember from those days. Nobody cares much now if employers have to hire whom the union says hire, pay what the union says pay and blow the whistle by the union official's watch. But there is something that the public does care about, namely strikes. When a home owner's family shivers in a cold house for want of fuel he is anxious to buy, he finds out why.

In finding out why, people discover Labor's unequal advantage. John Q. Public might not frown on a strike over wages or hours, but he gets plenty huffy doing without necessities while somebody retaliates a grievance—or while men sit idle, trying to force a point that might better be settled peacefully, settled with both shifts working and business going on as usual.

Strikes are violent and destructive as arson. They hurt many people, not just one. I am a life-long friend of Labor, and I predict that strikes will be outlawed by popular disapproval. The lock-out and the blacklist were so outlawed. Peaceful ways to settle industrial disputes exist now. Unless they are used voluntarily, we can look for the public to create some compulsory method.

Along the Avenue

By The Editor

The response to our appeal for help to dress up the band with new uniforms has indeed been gratifying. We herewith submit a few of the letters received by the Avenue editor, showing how former residents feel about our band:

"Being a subscriber of your fine paper, I read in your 'Along the Avenue' column an appeal for contributions for the school band uniforms. I am enclosing my bit and I trust that your appeal, which is a worthy cause, will be successful.

Sincerely yours,
M. SCIRADZKI

An Ole' Timer writes from Ann Arbor to say:
"I saw your appeal for help to get new uniforms for the school band, and here's my little bit toward that end. If every reader will even do as much, it will, I'm sure, be sufficient. Hope your appeal brings in the dollars in a hurry. As a guy who 'tumbled' on horns when a youngster in the Huron Springs band, and later as an editor in the Charlevoix City band in years long gone by, I have a soft spot in my heart for anything in the way of band music, and band musicians. Sincerely yours, Will E. Hampton."

Listed below are the contributors and the amount given for benefit of the band fund:

The above names and amounts comprise only those contributions received up to noon Tuesday, Feb. 12 (Lincoln's birthday). As they keep coming in (I hope they just pour in), we will keep tallying until the last contribution has found its way into a new BAND UNIFORM.

We cannot even venture to say whether or not this column will come up with at least half of the money needed, because, you see, only a few of our many out-of-town readers have had a chance to send in their contribution, as yet. If we should fail to get our half for $500, it's going to be awful cold on our case to push that peanut a block down main street. Help! Help!

Just a little secret in my loyal Avenue readers, we are still in the lead in this appeal for band uniforms. I'll let you all know the result next week after we have tallied up all those out-of-town donations we've come.

And now, in closing this band column, we can only mention that our neighboring city to the East (East Jordan) is hoping to receive their NEW BAND UNIFORMS by March 11. Will we?

New Mail Schedule Announced

P. M. Will Revert Back to Its Former Schedule

With the trains on the Pere Marquette Railway reverting back to the old winter schedules, effective Feb. 17, patrons of the Charlevoix postoffice are advised that incoming and outgoing mails will be back on practically the same schedule as before the war, according to Postmaster J. M. Foster.

The train from the South will arrive at 2:47 p. m. and from the North at 4:35. Mail matter to be dispatched on the north-bound train must be in the Post-office not later than 1:45 p. m. and for the south-bound train, not later than 3:30 p. m.

The Star route to Petoskey will operate in the morning, leaving at 7:15 a. m. and returning at 8:45 a. m. Mail to be dispatched on this route must be in the office not later than 7:30 a. m. Both north and south mails will be sent out in this dispatch as this route will connect with the south-bound Pennsylvania train leaving Petoskey at about 10:00 a. m.

The Star route from Kalkaska will continue to operate, but will leave Charlevoix on its return trip at 11:00 a. m. arriving at Kalkaska at 1:30 p. m. In time to connect with the north-bound Pennsylvania train. This dispatch is of little value to "South" mail, but does afford a good connection for all north-bound mail.

"Your Board of Supervisors are responsible to the citizens of the county. It is our duty to make known these conditions, and to do something about it. Loss of the contents of our present old county building could well be considered a catastrophe for Charlevoix county's citizens. Much more than the cost of building a new courthouse besides the countless records which could not be replaced in any way, or at any price.

"The question of where the courthouse would be built has been asked. In the writer's opinion, this committee, or the Board of Supervisors have no choice in the matter of a site, except that they build on county property at the County Seat of Charlevoix county. Historical events remind us that the County Seat has been located in at least three cities of the county in the past several decades. The city of Charlevoix is now the County Seat.

"Your county is in excellent financial condition as your Board of Supervisors have foreseen this condemnation of the old courthouse for years, and have planned accordingly. With the cooperation of Charlevoix county's practiced and thinking people, the next few years will see our county business conducted in a suitable building, and our valuable records in fire-proof vaults. This committee plans to keep the public fully informed from time to time through your local newspapers."

Chairman Public Grounds & Building Comm., Board of Supervisors, Charlevoix County, Michigan.

Minors Barred From Taverns

The Charlevoix County Tavern Owners Association, at a meeting held at the Elworth hotel, Inyone City, recently, passed a resolution that no minor under the age of 21 would be allowed in any establishment serving alcoholic beverages in Charlevoix County.

The association also went on record as favoring legal means to be taken against any person misrepresenting himself by false identification, or against any persons or parent aiding in false representation for the purpose of obtaining alcoholic beverages for a minor.

The newly-formed association will deal vigorously with the problem of minors who gain entrance to taverns by various ruses such as false identification cards, or misrepresentation by parents.

Calvin J. Bennett, chairman of the association, announced that identification cards issued by the county clerk would be acceptable for those within the age limits of 21 to 24 years.

Officers of the association consist of Calvin J. Bennett, chairman; Harry Turner, Charlevoix; vice-chairman; Virgil Delaney, Inyone City; vice chairman; Frank Nachazel, East Jordan, treasurer; and Bob Wiley, Inyone City, secretary.

Boy Scout Week Observed Over Nation Feb. 8-14

President Truman, in a message to the Boy Scouts of America on its thirty-sixth anniversary (Friday) opening a nation-wide observance of Boy Scout Week, Feb. 8 to 14, said that the "theme of the year", "Scouts of the World—Building Together" is timely, refreshing and appropriate.

In his message to the 1,377,463 members of the Boy Scouts of America, of which he is honorary president, Mr. Truman said, "your record for wartime services accomplished is enviable."

President Truman's message, made public today by Howard Shiley, president of the National Trails Council, Boy Scouts of America, follows:

"To the Boy Scouts of America: 'In a world that has suffered so grievously from the most awful war in history, your theme for the year, 'Scouts of the World—Building Together' is timely, refreshing and appropriate.

"Evidence of your determination to help your fellow Scouts in other handless fortunate than ours, is worthy indeed of the Boy Scouts of America. Your record for wartime services accomplished is enviable. Analyze it and you will find that planning, endurance, and, above all, cooperation helped you win through in your various campaigns.

"Now that hostilities have ended, you Scouts and your leaders, Scouts overseas can help the world maintain a secure peace by fostering good-will, understanding, and respect through continued cooperation.

"Good Scouts, good Scoutmasters and good Scoutcraft! There is a real contribution to the new world now in the making.

"Keep on building together in this, the thirty-seventh year of the Scout Movement of America, and all the years to come."

(Signed) Harry S. Truman.

The Scouts will meet at the Scout cabin Thursday at 4 p. m. Big pancake supper. All scouts, who are eligible, please come and bring your own mess kits. There will also be first aid lessons, according to "Mike" Humlin, Scoutmaster.

Band Uniform Fund Swelled by Donations

4-H Leaders Meet Here

Discuss County 4-H Camp for Charlevoix County

Twenty-three 4-H club leaders and guests met at the Charlevoix high school Tuesday evening, Feb. 5. The meeting opened with a dinner served by the band members in the Home Economics room, under supervision of Miss Margaret Strehl.

State club leaders, Mr. Lundin and Miss Ada Hough, of Lansing, K. C. Fosterling, district club agent, Ed Rehman, county agricultural agent, Miss Emma Perro, Extension Food Specialist, and Miss Frances Milner, principal of the Charlevoix Elementary school, were among those present.

After dinner group singing was enjoyed, after which Mr. Fosterling gave a demonstration on work with plastics in handicraft. Mr. Lundin instructed the handicraft leaders while Miss Hough gave the sewing leaders highlights in fashion and workmanship.

Among the topics discussed at the meeting was a county 4-H camp for Charlevoix county. The leaders feel that it is possible and that the project is worth consideration.

It was also announced that the Spring Achievement Day will be held in East Jordan this year.

A social hour added to the evening's enjoyment.

Lenore Goldman Myer Memorial Fund Helps Those Less Fortunate

The Lenore Goldman Myer Memorial fund is a charitable organization, carried on locally by a committee, organized to help those less fortunate, by contributing food, clothing and shelter to the needy. Donations alone serve to keep up this fine organization.

The work and purpose of this organization run probably best be summed-up from a recent letter of a beneficiary of the fund, received by Robert Bridge and the committee. It reads in part:

"I have meant to have written before, but with my trouble and worry, I have neglected to write and thank you, Mr. Myer and Mr. Bridge for all you have done for the children. I can't express all that it has meant to me. They have been comfortable with your help. I want to thank you all many times over."

Kindly interesting letters, praising the fund committee, have been received.

"During the past five years this fund has spent over $4,000 on food, clothing, shoes and other necessities for needy families and for emergency relief, adding more than 150 families in this period," Mr. Bridge stated.

Contributions are received from summer visitors and local residents, and all are gratefully received, regardless of the amount. Birthdays, anniversaries and other occasions are remembered by a contribution to the fund. A card is sent by the local committee to the honored person, giving the names of the donor and a receipt is sent to the contributor. Recently more than 150 persons made contributions.

The Lenore Goldman Myer Memorial fund was instituted in 1940 by Mrs. A. D. Goldman and Jess S. Myer in memory of Mrs. Lenore Goldman Myer. Local committee consists of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ranger, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bridge and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Meyer, who have spared no effort in administering the funds for the aid of the needy.

Few communities are favored by having a charitable organization of this nature. And to have it administered without expense by local people who know and are interested in the welfare of the community is an added benefit.
